PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

We pray for the repose of the soul of Aimee Wesselman. Please keep the Wesselman family in your prayers.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION WITH THE DISCIPLE MAKER INDEX SURVEY. The Skyline Gift Card winners are: Mary Beth Connelly, Peg Halpin and Jill Crossen.

Christ entered in triumph into his own city, to complete his work as our Messiah to suffer, to die, and to rise again. Let us ...follow him with lively faith. With palm in hand to honor the Lord as did the children of Jerusalem so long ago, we journey with the Lord through his Paschal Mystery – his Passion, death, and resurrection.

The point of this Sunday, popularly called Palm Sunday but actually named Passion Sunday, is precisely this: that we follow Christ with lively faith into the mystery of his death and resurrection. The enthusiasm of our procession with palms has led us in a matter of minutes to hear of the “Suffering Servant” who humbled himself to death, death on a cross, and the story of God giving Himself for our salvation.

The third scrutiny of our Elect are pictured above. Please keep Jordan, Ralph, Tonya and Martina in your prayers as they prepare for Holy Week and the Easter Vigil.

REFLECTIONGOOD VS. POOR STEWARDSHIP:

The Palm Sunday readings provide examples of both good stewardship and poor stewardship. There is much to learn by contrasting them. Let's take a look at just two examples.

Have you ever been surprised by Jesus' sending his disciples to take someone's donkey without asking? He further instructs them: "... if anyone should say anything to you, reply, 'The master has need of them.' Then he will send them at once." Clearly, Jesus knew there was a good steward in the town — someone who recognized that all blessings come from God and should be used to give glory to the Lord.

In another reading, we find Judas squandering his close relationship with Jesus, misusing this great blessing from God, a decision that led to his own despair.

Throughout each day, we make stewardship choices, whether or not we realize that's what we are doing. Our time, our health, our skills, our inborn talents, our money, our relationships, the rights and privileges we enjoy in our nation — in short, our very lives belong to God. How we use each gift is our stewardship. Do we, like the owner of the donkey, send our blessings "at once" wherever God's has need of them, or do we, like Judas, squander our gifts entirely for our own ends? For most of us, the answer is sometimes one and sometimes the other. Growing in conscious awareness of our tendencies and learning to reflect upon our stewardship choices will lead us closer to God and to the joy to which he calls his stewards.

'TIS THE SEASON

Please pray for our RCIA Catechumens and Candidates, our 8th grade Confirmation Candidates, our 2nd grade First Communicants, and all who will enter more deeply into the sacramental life of the Church this spring.

Loving God,
Pour out your blessing upon those preparing for sacraments, upon their catechists, their families, and our whole community.

Grant that those of us who have already celebrated these sacraments may be renewed in our appreciation of the sacramental life.

Grant that we may all grow closer to you as we pray for one another.

Unite us in our love of you.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

EASTER HOSPITALITY

Make visitors to our parish welcome on Easter. Greet strangers, move to the center of your pew to make room, be patient with anyone sitting in "your pew," offer to assist anyone needing help, show extra courtesy in the parking lot, don't take the closest parking space if you don't need to, pray that new-comers return.

GETTING MORE OUT OF MASS

Many people go to Mass with the expectation that they are supposed to "get" a lot out of it. In life, we get the results for the efforts we make. The same is true of Mass.

1 – Prepare for Mass.

Read the readings before you go to Mass, and then listen to them intently while The Word is proclaimed.

Get to Church a few minutes early to quiet down and pray. Once inside and seated, don't talk or people-watch...pray. Remember that during Mass isn't socializing time.

2 – During Mass

Don't let outside distractions disturb your internal peace.

Listen to the Word proclaimed and let it challenge you.

Find something in the Homily and apply it for the week.

Sing, even if your voice is bad.

Respond and pray with enthusiasm.

Offer your pain, sufferings, joys and prayers to God.

5 - Proclaim your Faith

Don't just recite the Creed - proclaim it like you mean it and understand what you are proclaiming.

7 - When you receive Jesus in the Eucharist - understand what it is you are doing

You are taking the Body, blood, soul, and divinity of GOD into you

You are joining in heaven on earth

You are becoming one with The Body of Christ

Realize that He is in everyone else that received Him as well.

8 – The Mass Never Ends

As you leave, take the Word of God and Christ living in you to all those you meet and return next week to renew your relationship with Christ.

"If we really understood the Mass, we would die of joy." - Saint Jean Vianney
