Happy Birthday to our very own Fr. Augustine! We wish him a day filled with joy and a year of abundant blessings.

A reminder to us that even though Jesus is not with us in his human body, we are still connected to him and to each other in prayer. The first reading tells of how after the ascension of Jesus, his followers grow in community by praying together. The psalm expresses our longing for God. If your heart longs to know God more intimately and pray as a community then RCIA may be what your heart is longing for. Please contact Jennifer Summe @ jsumme@bscky.org for further details or questions.

REFLECTION

STEWARDSHIP OF OUR MISSION

“Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations...” With this handful of words, Jesus gave us a clear mission. There is no indication that his apostles were confused about what this entailed. They were willing to die for this mission, and all but one did. They made disciples who made disciples for 2000 years! Now the mission is in our hands. What does discipleship mean to us? What makes a disciple different from a non-disciple? What are we doing to lead others to Jesus? Are we following in the footsteps of Christ: loving and praying for our enemies, caring for the poor, welcoming the stranger, taking up our cross? Are we making disciples who will make disciples for another 2000 years?

“If you judge people, you have no time to love them.”
~ Mother Teresa

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA

(b. 1381 – d. May 22, 1457)

Like Elizabeth Ann Seton, Rita of Cascia was a wife, mother, widow, and member of a religious community. Her holiness was reflected in each phase of her life.

Rita wanted to become a nun but was pressured at a young age into marrying a cruel man. During her 18-year marriage, she bore and raised two sons. After her husband was killed and her sons had died, Rita tried to join the Augustinian nuns in Cascia. Unsuccessful at first because she was a widow, Rita eventually succeeded.

Over the years, her austerity, prayerfulness, and charity became legendary. When she developed wounds on her forehead, people quickly associated them with the wounds from Christ's crown of thorns. She meditated frequently on Christ's passion Beatified in 1626, Rita was not canonized until 1900. She has acquired the reputation, together with Saint Jude, as a saint of impossible cases. Many people visit her tomb each year.
