20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Fr Anthony's Word of the Week

For years I've had a fondness for Our Lady of Guadalupe. It is so tender and endearing how she came to Juan Diego (and us) as a Mother who knows our needs, meets us where we are, follows us even when we go the wrong way and reassures us of Her Motherly care in all our distress and afflictions.

Her image that she gave to the Church of Guadalupe in Mexico was imprinted on Juan Diego's tilma and is amazing and miraculous.

While I love Mary as Our Lady of Guadalupe, admittedly this image has never been my favorite image of her. The tone of the image I always felt was a bit shadowy and unemotional. However, since I came to St. Jerome's and St. Aloysius, I'm becoming more and more drawn into the beauty of Our Lady of Guadalupe's face. It is as if Our Mother was waiting until this time in my life to draw me closer as a son through this image of her. I can't forget or use the beauty in this young mother's face, that I did not see before.

The first day I visited the rectory of St Jerome and got the "ten cent tour" I realized quickly the centerpiece of the rectory. As you go into the dining room, your attention is drawn forward into the sitting room just ahead. The walls are painted light blue and there in the middle of the wall is a large image Our Lady of Guadalupe incased in a gold painted frame.

I noticed the staff that work here would occasionally step into the room, gaze up at Her Image and say a quick prayer. Every time I show someone around the rectory, there is always a pause of silence when they look ahead and see Her Image. It's like when a loving mother looks upon the face of her child, the child feels little, loved and safe. That's how I feel every time I walk by that room or glance at Her face as I sit.

I wondered how long it's been there. Fr. John Sullivan who was a priest here ages ago, said it was there long before he came. This image will be on the wall at St Jerome's long after I go.

Mary is the Mother of this house. If you love Jesus and want to stay close to Him, embrace the gift of His Immaculate Mother as YOUR Mother...the last gift he gave us before He gave up His life for us on the Cross. Make her image (There are many) a centerpiece in your bedroom, the dining room, living room or the kitchen. May Mary be the Mother of your house.

Ursuline Faith Formation Program

The Ursuline sisters will be sponsoring a faith formation program via zoom over the course of the next two years. This program provides a faith formation opportunity that will:

- * Explore Scripture, the writings of St. Angela and the Ursuline active-contemplative heritage
- * Invites members to strength their spirituality
- * Encourage participants to witness to their faith through shared conversations
- * Enriches society through supporting the compassionate outreach of its member
- * Promotes the Ursuline Mission and its contemporary expression
- * Builds community through prayer, service and adult education

Four sessions each year combine input, guided and silent reflections, prayer and small/large group exchanges. The fifth session each year is a "sending forth" prayer service. The dates for this year are September 8, 2022, November 10, 2022, January 12, 2023, March 9 2023, and April 27, 2023.

If you are interested in this Ursuline program, please contact Sr. Joanne Buckman on or before Wednesday August 31 at 440-229-5631 or jbuckman@ursulinesisters.org.

SCHOOL NEWS

Our school's new STEM Lab has been dedicated to Sr. Sandra Sabo, SSJ, our former school principal. Last week Sr Sandra was able to stop by and see the lab as well as some familiar faces from her 30+ years at St. Aloysius School. Thank you to Mrs. Orr and Mr. Gismondi for setting this visit up. May God continue to bless Sr. Sandra!

Your Help Is needed for Parish Picnic**

The parish group who met on July 31 had a wealth of ideas to add to our annual neighborhood picnic. This year we will be adding a 50/50 raffle, hourly door prizes for both adults and youth, on-going bingo games for all ages, and parish t-shirts.

We are asking all parishioners to participate in one or more of the following ways

- contribute small prizes for bingo games
- bring a dessert to share
- contribute school supplies or a backpack for the children's raffle
- volunteer to work at the food tent, as servers and helpers
