Liturgical Ministries

Over the next few weeks, I want to explore the roles performed at Mass, why they are necessary and the bigger picture they entail.

Many times, it is easy to overlook things that are right before our eyes. Ministries utilized at Mass fit that category. Many times, we may look at these things just for the utility.

- ◆ Lectors - welcome all, make announcements and read the first and second readings
- ◆ Extra-Ordinary Ministers of Holy Communion - distribute the precious Body and Blood to the faithful
- ◆ Hospitality Ministers - hold the door or help folks find a seat
- ◆ Collection Counters - count the money offered by the faithful,
- ◆ Music Ministers - assist the congregation in worship at Mass through song
- ◆ Altar Servers - assist the Priest through various actions at Mass

The current coronavirus restrictions aside, all these ministries serve functions larger than just their utility, all are necessary for the proper understanding of how Mass is “executed.” Two terms that might be helpful for deeper understanding is “ministerial” and “presidential”.

A Ministerial action, an action performed by a minister, can only be done by delegated authority. They can never be done independently of that authority. A Presidential action must be performed by a designated presider. At Mass, we know this presider as a Celebrant and must be an ordained priest. No matter how many priests, bishops, Cardinals or even the Pope, and no matter the “rank”, there is only one presider.

The presider, or celebrant supplies that authority. Our Mass structure reflects how we understand the make-up of the Church as a hierarchical organization. My faculties to preside at Mass are by delegated authority of the “Ordinary” of the Diocese, better known as Bishop.

This hierarchy, both in the Church at large and as applied to the actions at Mass, serve the Lord well through the public worship we know as the Mass.

Next week, I want to explore why this has developed and what it means for all the faithful called to participate in the Lamb’s High Supper.

Blessings!

Father Benton Clift Sr.

The Sisters of Notre Dame are looking for compassionate, dedicated and committed individuals to fill the following openings.

General Maintenance Needed

We’re looking for an experienced Maintenance Worker to join our team working 3-4 days/week. This person will be responsible for general repairs such as painting, electric, heating, carpentry, plumbing and grounds work to ensure our facilities are kept in proper order.
