From Fr. Steve...

Happy Anniversary weekend everyone! I do not know what the traditional gift is for the 74th but I am sincerely grateful for the gift of yourself and gifts you bring to this parish community on a continual basis. I looked up to see if there is a gift for the 74th but I found it interesting that the traditional gift for a 2nd anniversary is cotton. The article said, "Traditionally, cotton is the gift of choice as each fiber represents two people that have become interwoven with one another." Last week I mentioned National Marriage Week is February 7th to the 14th. World Marriage Day is February 12th. May our married couple's relationship be modeled after the heavenly marriage revealed to us in the Wedding Feast of the Lamb: The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass! Speaking of being fed, a big "thank you" goes out to Marilyn Belevic and her crew for cooking and serving the wonderful anniversary meal. Thank you, Marilyn and your team of helpers! Once again, thank you for supporting our MegaRaffle. The MegaRaffle helps with the operational cost of the parish. Speaking of meals, our parish Fish Fry is March 24th. This year we will return to offering the dine-in experience in the gym. Please know you can still order carry-out. With that, Lent is around the corner. Ash Wednesday is February 22nd. Ash Wednesday Masses are 6:30AM, 9AM, Noon and 7PM. Pretty soon we will have a flyer with all the activities during Lent. Mary spoke last week about the Lenten Warm Up on February 19th. I hope you can attend. The afternoon Mary and Bob have planned will help get your Lenten Season off to a great start. Before I get too ahead of myself, the Lourdes Novena begins Saturday, February 11th. I am sincerely grateful for Mary Ann Blase organizing and taking the lead on this beautiful devotional. Be sure to consult the bulletin for the start times. With February we begin our planning for the Parish Festival. This year the festival will be different but we are going ahead with four days of fun beginning on June 1st. Thank you Jim and Rosemarie Sisler for being co-chairs of the festival. Thanks to all our festival committee leaders. I hope you can offer prayers and support for our upcoming festival. I hope we do well with the Festival Raffle and hope we can sell many tickets. A successful festival raffle can make up for the loss of income we drew from Bates Amusements. So, I sincerely hope and desire that you can help the parish out with the sales of the tickets as well as lending a hand during the festival. Our Knights of Columbus Council is rolling out a new program called, "One More Knight" to recruit new members. KofC is open to men 18 years of age or older who are practicing Catholics in union with the Holy See. If interested, please contact Randy Higgins or the parish office. God bless!
