From Fr. Steve.....

This weekend as we transition into the month of October, each October, the Catholic Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is observed as Respect Life Sunday. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life. There are three simple things we can do this month to celebrate Respect Life Month. The first is to pray. I know many of you are praying the 40 Days for Life Prayer during this Fall Campaign. Maybe you are also praying the 54 Day Rosary Novena to defeat Ohio Issue 1 in November. If you like a “vote no” yard sign, please see me. There is also the Respect Life Month Novena that runs from October 13th to the 21st. Join thousands of Catholics across the country praying for the protection of human life, from conception to natural death. To receive the daily prayers, go to www. Respect-life.org/celebrate and enter your email. The second is to reflect. At the entrances of our Church is a short reflection that highlights how we are called to put our love for others into action, embracing radical solidarity with mothers and their children. Third is to pledge to prayerfully support pregnant women in our local community. We do a great job supporting Birthright. You can make a pledge by visiting www.walkingwithmoms.com/pledge. Walking With Moms is an initiative to support local pregnancy centers where they exist, and to share other resources with pregnant and parenting women. Lastly, if you want to help someone to look closely at the legal ramifications of Ohio Issue 1 without using a religious website, I recommend seethelanguage.com. Also, I hope you saw the recent issue of Northeast Ohio Catholic. The issue contains Christy Ballor’s story about her journey finding healing after having an abortion. Next Saturday is Coast to Coast Rosary. It is also the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. Promptly at 4PM, we will be praying the Rosary in the Church. I hope you can join us. With that, Confessions on Saturday, October 7th will be from 3PM to 3:45PM. The day after Coast to Coast is our Cabbage Roll Dinner from Noon to 3PM. Tickets are $12. Chicken Dinners are only $10. Dine in or carry-out. Sign ups are underway for Hallway Harvest! Hallway Harvest is Sunday, October 15th at 10:30AM. Parishioners with children at our local Catholic schools in kindergarten to 5th grade are welcome to attend. Just come to the parish office at 10:30AM. Donations of candy are accepted. Usually, we have plenty of candy and treats. So children, do not be bashful about going through the line more than once. You can share the extra candy with your family and friends.

God bless!
