FROM FR. STEVE...

Thanks to all who volunteered and attended our 33rd Saint Mary Magdalene Parish festival. Listed below are our festival chairs. These men and women dedicated a lot of their time during the past year planning, contacting vendors, contacting bands and entertainment, collecting prizes, recruiting and organizing workers for our festival. We could not put on a well-organized and fun festival if it was not for their time, talent, effort and love for Saint Mary Magdalene Parish. If you see them, please thank them for taking the lead with these areas of the festival. Speaking of taking the lead, thank you, festival co-chairs Jim & Rosemarie for your service. I think Jim and Rosemarie did a great job. Please keep our festival in prayer. We hope that we may continue to offer a multiple-day event that is a great opportunity for fun, fellowship and to raise some money to help with the operational costs of the parish.
