FROM FR. STEVE...

CHRIST IS RISEN! INDEED, HE IS RISEN! He has put death to death! Happy Easter everyone! May you and your loved ones have a blessed Easter Season! 50 fabulous days! Welcome to all our visitors this weekend. Thank you for joining us! Good to have you with us. Also, thank you to our Art & Environment Committee. Liz Annandono and her team do an amazing job. They had a busy week with our custodial staff with all the set up. Plus, thank you to all our Liturgical Ministers helping with all the Holy Week Services and Easter Sunday Masses. Our OCIA Team did a super job getting our Candidates ready to receive the sacraments! I am grateful to Mike Weikart and the team guiding our Catechumen and Candidates. Bob Soeder did a super job preparing our cantors, musicians and choir. Our staff did a super job making sure there were plenty of palms, all the booklets printed and all the loose ends. We have a great staff! Lastly, thanks to our cleaning team making the church shine! I hope you enjoy this marvelous season of Easter. I hope you enjoy your Easter Sunday dinner with your family and friends. Thank you for donating Easter Hams to our SVDP so folks in the area that are struggling could have a nice Easter Meal with their family and friends on this day. If you are traveling, I hope you reach your destination safely and God's most choice blessings on your gathering. Also, Happy Easter Monday or Happy Dyngus Day! I must admit being Polish American, I did not hear about Dyngus Day after I was ordained a priest. I do not remember my parents ever mentioning or making it a special day at our house. I went to public school as a child, so Easter Monday was spent in the classroom with sugar withdrawal missing my Easter basket loaded with marshmallow peeps, jellybeans and chocolate. Maybe my parents did not want the house to be a soggy mess with pieces of pussy willow branches all throughout the house. So, they kept this tradition from us seven children. We could be wild at times. But once I found about Dyngus Day as a priest, I was too tired to go out and celebrate. After all the confessions and celebrations during Holy Week and Easter Sunday, I usually spent Easter Monday quietly eating marshmallow peeps, jellybeans and chocolate and happy I was not sitting in the classroom. When I first heard about it, I did not believe it. I thought the person was making it up trying to fool me. That's how well Mom and Dad kept it from us! Speaking of Easter Monday, Fr. Mark Hollis is known to say, "Good luck trying to find a priest on Easter Monday." Many priests take Monday off to recover from Holy Week and Easter Sunday. But you will find me at the Easter Monday Mass at 9AM. God bless and have a tremendous Easter Season!

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

The First Sunday After Easter

Sunday, April 12, 2026

THE PROMISE

Our Lord Jesus said, "The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates throughout which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet... Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy."

— Saint Faustina, Diary, 699

WHY IS THIS PROMISE FROM JESUS SO WONDERFUL AND MERCIFUL?

TEMPORAL PUNISHMENT AND SUFFERING: The Catholic Church teaches that sin has two consequences, or punishments, (CCC 1472). The first is eternal punishment in which the soul loses Heaven and is confined to an eternity in Hell. This punishment is remitted through the forgiveness of sins. The second is temporal punishment, in which a person must expiate, or make reparation for his sins. This temporal punishment remains even after sin is forgiven. This temporal punishment is known as Purgatory.

So, Jesus's amazing promise to St. Faustina amounts to offering all mankind the graces of a COMPLETE PARDON; an opportunity to have all temporal punishment, time in Purgatory, that which would be necessary before entrance into Heaven, completely removed!

THE DIVINE MERCY FEAST DAY

"I desire that there be a feast of mercy. I want this image, which you will paint with a brush to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter; that Sunday is to be known as the Feast of Mercy."

JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU.

Visit DivineMercySunday.net for additional resources and to download this flier for parish distribution.

THE IMAGE

"I desire that this image be venerated throughout the world. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I promise victory over its enemies, already here on earth, and especially at the hour of death... I Myself will defend it as My own glory."

THE CHAPLET

"Pray unceasingly the Chaplet that I have taught you. Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death. Priests will recommend it to sinners as their last hope of salvation."

THE CONVERSION PRAYER

"If you say this prayer, with a contrite heart and with faith, on behalf of some sinner, I will give that soul the grace of conversion:

"O Blood and Water that gushed forth from the heart of Jesus, as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in You."

—Diary 186, 187

Know, My daughter, that this prayer is always heard and answered."

—Diary 1397

SPREAD OF THE DEVOTION

"Do whatever is within your power to spread devotion to My mercy. I will make up for what you lack."
