WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. (Is 60:1)

PSALM

Lord, every nation on earth will adore you. (Ps 72)

SECOND READING

It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. (Eph 3:5-6)

GOSPEL

"Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." (Mt 2:2)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis references a thought from Pope Benedict XVI: "Being a Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction." Today we celebrate an encounter with the Person of Jesus Christ! This simple but holy event in time dramatically changes human life, pointing it toward a new horizon and giving it a decisive direction. This is a message and truth that is not meant to be shared with only a select few who qualify but with the entire world. Pope Francis continues saying, "Thanks solely to this encounter or renewed encounter with God's love, which blossoms into an enriching friendship, we are liberated from our narrowness and self-absorption. We become fully human when we become more than human, when we let God bring us beyond ourselves in order to attain the fullest truth of our being."

Look around at people. Where is life heading for them? What gives them direction? Even we who are people of faith can get distracted and lose our focus. God, in all of His fullness, is revealed in Jesus Christ and we can encounter Him! God is tangible, real, vulnerable, poor, and full of wonders, surprises, and opportunities. For those who are struggling and lost, today is a day of great joy. All they have to do is reach out and touch the truth of Christ. This presence is revealed in the poor, exploited, and vulnerable ones who cry out for compassion and love. But it is also found in the faithful ones who see in the Epiphany of God a liberation from structures and systems that hurt us, a narrowness of mind and heart that constricts us, and an absorption in our self-agenda that prevents us from seeing anything other than ourselves as important.

We have been given the charge of preaching this Good News. If only we could find a way to be more effective, it might stand a chance of doing what God intended it to do. There is always tomorrow and our memory of that bright new light that shone so brilliantly that Bethlehem night pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

Please mark your calendars to attend!

PACK-A-BAG FINAL REPORT

We would like to extend a heartfelt thanks to all who provided prayers, gift cards and encouragement to our adapted Pack-a-Bag program this year. Through your generosity, and additional help from the St. Vincent de Paul Society of Our Lady of Grace, we were able to provide $25.00 Shop 'n Save gift cards to all of the 206 families who are clients at the food pantry at Our Lady of Grace. With all of the challenges that we, as a nation, have faced during the past two years, we were truly happy that we were able to provide this extra Christmas surprise to our clients. Thank you to Fr. Dan, Fr. Ignatius, and the parish staff who provided additional support. We pray that you all receive God's richest blessings during 2022!

Flowers on the Altar

If you would like to donate flowers to decorate the parish altar for a particular weekend in memory of someone or in honor of a special occasion, please call the Parish Office to make sure that date is available and to give us the appropriate information. Your memorial or special occasion will be listed in the bulletin for that particular weekend.

MARY

THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

~January 1~

*God of heaven and earth,
you came to us and took our earthly flesh
through the gift of Mary's yes.
She is our Mother in faith,
as she is your earthly mother.*

*We are thankful beyond our ability to thank you for the gift of her Son as our brother and savior.
Through her self-giving,
we have been reconciled to you.*

*Bless us as we begin this New Year
and endow us with the desire and ability to create a world of peace.*

*We ask all this,
through the intercession of Mary to you,
one God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Amen.*

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES

This past month, Caritas Internationalis (the official humanitarian and development organization of the Catholic Church) launched a campaign that puts two important papal encyclicals into practice to care for our common home and people living in poverty. This campaign, titled "Together We," is about Integral Ecology — the fact that we are all connected to each other and to our Common Home, the earth. The inspiration and motivation behind the campaign title reflects the ambition to put the Papal Encyclicals of "Laudato Si" and "Fratelli Tutti" into practice as one human family. The campaign aims to bring people together to carry out new actions and initiatives, especially at the grassroots level, which combat poverty, restore dignity to the excluded, and protect nature in the spirit of Integral Ecology. This will be our way of responding to Pope Francis' invitation to create a new kind of solidarity. Please visit www.caritas.org/TogetherWe/ to get involved.
