“Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me.”

That is not something we want to hear Jesus say to us. It was probably upsetting for Peter to hear Jesus say those words to him. We can detect the disappointment and frustration of Jesus with the man he had just made the “rock upon which I will build my church” and to whom he had handed the “keys to the kingdom of heaven.”

Yet despite his harsh words, Jesus does not lose faith in Peter because Peter had not lost faith in Jesus. Peter just had not fully grasped the magnitude of the message and mission of Jesus. So Jesus turns the occasion into a teaching moment. He instructs Peter and the others that they must learn to think “as God does.” They must think of others ahead of themselves. They must not be so attached to this life and to all the stuff in this life that our culture makes so alluring and appealing.

In a world in which people die for the right to property, and “meism” is pandemic, it is difficult to comprehend and live true detachment that allows us to “think as God does” not as “human beings.” But we must try.

Prayer for Shelter Against the Storm

Rev. Thomas L. Weitzel

God of heaven and earth, God who carries our lives and the lives of our whole community in your hands, be with us in the peril of this day/night. Help us to release our anxieties and fears into those same caring hands, knowing in faith that your will for us is life and everlasting good. Send your holy angels to watch over us and guard us. May they spread their holy wings to give us shelter against the storm. For you alone, O God, are all good, all life, all love, and that love is for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Office Closed

The St. John office will be closed next Monday, Sept. 7th due to the Labor Day Holiday. We wish everyone a safe and happy holiday.

Mass & Novena

Mass will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 1st at 6 pm in church. This mass also includes the Novena to our Mother of Perpetual Help. All are invited.

Marriage Anniversary Couples Celebration

The Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux is inviting all couples married in the Catholic Church who are celebrating their 25th, 40th, 50th, (and beyond) anniversary during 2020 to one of two Diocesan Liturgies of the Word, which will be celebrated Sunday, Nov. 8 and Sunday, Nov. 22 respectively at St. Joseph Co-Cathedral, both at 3 pm. The celebration will not be a Mass, but a Liturgy of the Word. If you wish to participate in this program, contact your church parish before Sept. 18, 2020 to register. All registered anniversary couples will receive an inscribed diocesan certificate in their own church parish during their scheduled parish celebration.
