Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time—Oct. 25, 2020

“Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?”

During the life of Jesus, Rabbi Shammai and Rabbi Hillel [the uncle of Gamaliel, who taught Paul] lead two schools to study the Torah in Jerusalem.

A man approached Shammai and asked if he could recite all of the laws and the prophets of Israel while standing on one foot. He said it could not be done. The man then went to Hillel, who raised one foot and said “What you would not want someone do to you, do not do to them” and then put his foot down. He added, “All the rest is commentary.”

The Pharisees and Sadducees sent a scholar of the law to challenge Jesus with the same question. Jesus, cites Deuteronomy 6:5 and Leviticus 19:18 and adds that “The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.” Jesus is saying, “All the rest is commentary.”

Imagine a world in which everyone loves God with their whole mind, heart, soul and strength; and loves their neighbor as themselves. Obviously, we cannot do it by ourselves. But if we do not do it ourselves, it cannot happen. So let it begin with us.
