4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" - Mk 1:23-25

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Today's gospel reminds us "unclean spirits" still haunt our families. These "spirits" thrive inside our grudges, punishing silence, impatience and abruptness. Today Jesus offers you the "authority" to cast out these spirits from your life and your family. Be forgiving. Be reconciling. Be the light you wish to see in the darkness.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

What do Ground Hog Day and Job have in common? "Job spoke, saying: Is not man's life on earth a drudgery?" (Job 7:1) The Ground Hog Day story relates how life seems to repeat itself ad nauseum. Don't let your love become a boring drudgery. Wake up determined to refresh your love on February 2.

???QUESTION OF THE WEEK???

Question for Children: Name some bad things that you want to pray that Jesus will take away from our world.

Question for Youth: Jesus was able to free the man from the unclean spirit within him. What do you hope Jesus will free you from? What is happening in the world that need's Jesus' help?

Question for Adults: What are the evils in today's world that you pray God will free us from?

From Our Pastor

By announcing the “Year of St. Joseph,” Pope Francis is hoping that “every member of the faithful, following Joseph’s example, may strengthen their life of faith daily in the complete fulfillment of God’s will.”

In 1870, Blessed Pius IX proclaimed St. Joseph patron of the Universal Church. In 1937, Pope Pius XI declared him patron of the Church’s campaign against atheistic communism. Partly as a response to communist May Day celebrations, Pope Pius XII in 1955 instituted the feast of St. Joseph the Worker. Six years later Blessed Pope John XXIII declared St. Joseph the patron of the Second Vatican Council. Pope Leo XIII wrote an encyclical on the saint in 1899. The men’s movement in the Catholic Church has fostered a renewed devotion to St. Joseph.

In fact, we know little about Joseph beyond his virtues of justice and generous service. Because some early Christians were not satisfied with what the canonical Gospels say about St. Joseph, over 100 years after his death they added unverifiable details about his life into gospels that are not part of the New Testament.

The below prayer, written by Pope Francis and found at the end of his apostolic letter Patris corde (“With a father’s heart”) may be something you wish to use in your daily prayer this year.

“Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

To you God entrusted his only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life.

Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen!

I mentioned briefly last weekend that the Catholic Services Appeal is coming up soon. This annual fund-raising campaign of the Diocese of Erie supports the work of the church. As an individual parish, we are called to help our diocese to serve the faithful throughout Northwestern Pennsylvania. Through your support of the 2021 CSA the Diocese of Erie can evangelize, educate, serve, proclaim the Word, celebrate the sacraments and give hope to thousands. Your support of the CSA makes this important work possible. We would hope to exceed our assigned goal of $71,158 and use the funds given above this to go to our parish debt to the Erie Catholic School System. Commitment Sunday is February 14. Please prayerfully consider how you are able to share your gifts in support of this year’s CSA to help advance the mission of Jesus Christ.

Be safe, Fr. Phil

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Most of us are quiet people who desire to live a good and holy life, promote the values and mission of the Gospel as best we can and desire to one day inherit the surprise of life eternal God promises to us. We are not trail blazers. We are simple people who want to do the simple things of life well. But there are others who left a more profound impact along the way of the paths they walked. Folks like Dorothy Day, Martin Luther King, Thomas Merton, Gandhi, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and many others left lasting impacts and legacies. Like Moses, they show us by word and deed who God is and what integrity and a purpose driven life look like. They show us how to be holy. We need Moses people like these to give us inspiration, hope and an example of holy living.

We do not need to do what they did or even mirror their relationship with God. Each one of us is God's special creation, with a purpose and soul known only to us. We need to learn how to open up and bring, without compromise, our soul-ness to life. We know when someone is authentic and centered because they always point to truth, even though they struggle and sin themselves, and they embody an unspoken timeless wisdom that just sounds and feels right. Jesus taught with this same type of authority and it astonished many who listened. We do not need to move mountains, advance a cause, write books or become notable. All we have to do is become credible witnesses of the faith we profess. Moses people can teach us how to do this.

St. Oscar Romero was an amazing man and a Moses figure for sure. He saw God in the burning bush and brought the flame of Gospel faith to the poorest of the poor, challenging the evils of the society in which he lived. He was tireless and persistent. He must have gotten very close to the problem because it cost him his life. He suspected it would. St. Romero said, "When we leave Mass, we ought to go out the way Moses descended Mt Sinai: with his face shining, with his heart brave and strong to face the world's difficulties." We can learn from this wisdom. If we allow the power of the Mass to truly transform us, we will leave that holy encounter changed. Our face will shine, and we will have courage. We can then bring what we have received to life's challenges. That sounds doable, doesn't it? Because of the example of our simple holiness, people will be amazed. ©LPi

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Strengthen the partnership

The relationship between parishes and schools is long and intimate—important to note at the start of Catholic Schools Week. After the first Catholic diocese was established in the United States in Baltimore, pastors lobbied at once for schools and religious to staff them. Frontier pastors vowed to build the school first and the church later. They understood that without proper religious education, the parish venture would certainly fail. Today, celebrate this essential partnership with a holy hour, candlelight prayer vigil, or special project in the parish for young people and their supporters.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 18:15-20; 1 Corinthians 7:32-35; Mark 1:21-28 (71). "What is this? A new teaching with authority."

Monday, February 01, 2021 Example is the best education

Each day of Catholic Schools Week is the celebration of a component of Catholic education. Today we look at the experience of community. Through the relationships and interactions of service activities in the community and class trips to other environments, students get to practice the values they learn in their Catholic education and experience what it feels like to be making the world a better place. Plus they get a chance to observe others in community service and come to appreciate how they can continue caring for others their entire lives. Today, be an example of service to others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 11:32-40; Mark 5:1-20 (323). "[A]nnounce to them all that the Lord in his pity has done for you."

Tuesday, February 02, 2021

FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

Teach a faith that grows on you

Mary and Joseph bring their beloved firstborn to the temple at the appointed time, so Jesus can enter into the covenant with Yahweh that Jews have revered since Abraham. Not unlike infant Baptism today, it was—among other things—a powerful ritual of belonging that put the child on the right path to growing in faith. As we celebrate Catholic Schools Week—with the focus today being squarely on "the student"—may we never forget or neglect the promise of every young soul, so receptive to our efforts to plant the seeds of faith.

TODAY'S READINGS: Malachi 3:1-4; Hebrews 2:14-18; Luke 2:22-40 (524). "The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom."

Wednesday, February 03, 2021 One nation, under God

Catholic schools have made a unique contribution to the nation, and today we can recognize and celebrate that contribution. At their very best, Catholic schools train students to grow both as members of the Catholic church and as productive citizens of the nation. By "rendering to Caesar and to God," Catholic schools in the United States have managed to achieve that rare combination in world history, the development of a relatively harmonious church-state relationship that has endured for centuries. the NCEA website for suggestions on how to celebrate the nation during Catholic Schools Week.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 12:4-7, 11-15; Mark 6:1-6 (325). "Many who heard him were astonished. They said, 'Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him?'"

Thursday, February 04, 2021 Line things up

Catholic schools prepare students to discover their vocation, so they can grow to use their gifts in service of church and world. Over the years, our notion of "vocation" has broadened significantly. A word that once designated those who take religious vows or are ordained into ministry is now used more broadly. No one defined vocation better than essayist and theologian Carl Frederick Buechner: "The place God calls you to is the place where your deep gladness and the world's deep hunger meet." Are the two aligned in your life? And if not, how can you bring them into alignment?

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 12:18-19, 21-24; Mark 6:7-13 (326). "Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two."

Friday, February 05, 2021

Thank those who opened your mind

Where would any of us be without our teachers? They did everything from helping us with our "three R's" to opening our minds to new ways of seeing the world. The really great teachers taught us how to learn for ourselves and thus set us up for a lifetime of discovery and fulfillment. When was the last time you thanked a teacher? Today is the day Catholic Schools Week pays special attention to the faculty, staff, and volunteers that make it possible for these great schools to function. See NCEA website for suggestions on how to give thanks and recognition.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 13:1-8; Mark 6:14-29 (327). "The Lord is my helper, and I will not be afraid."

Saturday, February 06, 2021 Make faith a family affair

We close Catholic Schools Week by recognizing the central role in Catholic education played by the family. The Second Vatican Council called the family "the domestic church" because it is in the home that faith is first formed and nurtured. Whether you live alone or with others, your home can be a sacred space of prayer and spirituality. Creating sacred space in your home includes prayer and scripture readings at meal times and before bed; praying the Rosary; placing a crucifix in a prominent place; and family traditions based on the liturgical seasons. for ways to recognize the family's role in Catholic education and also to make your home a domestic church. Have at it! TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 13:15-17, 20-21; Mark 6:30-34 (328). "The Apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught."

*Daily renewal for busy Catholics.
Invest just five minutes a day,
and your faith will deepen and grow

Dear Friends, Family and the Erie Community,

On December 23rd, our family awoke to the faint sound of our basement fire alarm ringing and a house filled with smoke. Our parental instincts kicked in as we rushed through the house to save our children, not thinking of anything other than getting them to safety. We were unable to save our pets however, the wonderful Fire Fighters were able to find them; every living thing in the home was brought to safety. Our minds replay that night and how 5 short minutes could have changed the outcome drastically.

We are a few weeks out from the most terrifying moments of our lives and our days are filled with appointment after appointment and discussions on how we will make our less than robust insurance reimbursements cover all that we have lost and make our home a safe place to live. Our nights are filled with worry and racing minds as we lay in the beds of a home that is not ours.

Of all the feelings we have felt navigating this most difficult experience, we have never felt alone. Our family, friends and even so many people we have never met have wrapped their arms around us. It is because of YOU that we will be able to get through this. We will be able to refurbish our home with the donations YOU so generously gave to our family and fill our home with some normalcy.

Our family will overcome this situation and our hearts will be full knowing that we have so many people who care about us and have showered us with the outpouring of love and support.

There are no words big enough to express how grateful we are for each and every one of you. THANK YOU ALL SO MUCH! JUST THANK YOU.

Sincerely,

The Salter Family (Jeremy, Heather, Amelia, Alivia & Aleena)

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS Embracing Change in Christ

It's officially one month since we popped the champagne, toasted 2021 and wrote down a list of resolutions. This is usually the time when we start to take a good, hard look in the mirror to assess what we have done, or have not done, with the first month of this brand-new year.

New years can be scary, can't they? Full of promise, sure, but also full of room for failure. Full of space for our old baggage, old fears and the continuation of old mistakes.

The same can be said of Christ, and the new life he offers us, if we are brave enough to accept it. Opportunities like that can be intimidating. In that moment, we might find ourselves like the man with the unclean spirit crying out: "What have you to do with me, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us?"

Jesus is a comforter of the afflicted; he is a consoling figure, but he is also a challenging one. Sometimes we have grown attached to our afflictions. The idea of correcting bad habits or forming new ones is frankly terrifying to us. We have a voice deep inside who sees Christ and his invitation to repentance, and it cries out in fear: "I know who you are!"

When we live in the present, disavowing the baggage of the past or fear of the future, we submit ourselves to the promise of redemption. Let us be brave everyday stewards and invite Christ's healing power into our lives. We won't regret it — I'm sure the demoniac never did.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus, I believe that you are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, as though you have already come. I embrace you and unite myself entirely to you; never permit me to be separated from you. AMEN

FORTY CANS FOR LENT
Together we can fight hunger!
I Can! You Can! We Can! The program is simple; Collect one can of food per day during the 40 days of Lent, which begins on Ash

Wednesday, and then one extra can per person on Easter Sunday. Drop off your cans at any time throughout the Season in a marked box in the School, Church, Cafeteria, or the Church Office. As you prepare for Easter by sacrificing during Lent, remember the 40 days and nights that Christ spent in the desert, without food or water, praying and preparing for his sacrifice on behalf of mankind. During this Season, we hope each person will donate one can of food each day if possible, but everything helps. We will use these items to help supply our parish food pantry, provide for school families (as needed) and to make emergency care packages for individuals and families.
