PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the members of St. Ann Catholic Church, Hamilton, Ohio, share in the mission of the Apostles to bring Jesus Christ to the world. As individuals we seek to live as Christ would have us live. As a community we seek to provide all types of ministry to the Parish and to the wider community. We come together on the Lord's Day to listen, to celebrate, to receive Jesus.

2nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

- Jn 2:1-3

God, our Spouse and Lord of Life

"As a bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so shall your God rejoice in you." Today's first reading from Isaiah shows us how much God delights in human life. He rejoices in us as in a bride. He gives himself to us as a bridegroom is called to do for his beloved. He protects and defends us, and leads us to the life that never ends. His commitment to humanity is the source of ours. Like him, we are to give ourselves for the good of others, starting with the most vulnerable lives – children at the very beginning of their development in the womb.

This week, January 22nd, marks the sad anniversary of the Roe vs Wade Supreme Court decision that legalized the killing of those children by abortion throughout all nine months of pregnancy. This remains the single most destructive and barbaric public policy in our nation, and hundreds of thousands of Americans march in Washington, in San Francisco, and in many other cities at this time of year calling for a change. Moreover, this coincides with our nation's honoring of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., whose dream of equality for all under the law needs to be applied now to the children in the womb. This is a work around which Christians of all denominations should unite, and this week also marks the week of prayer for Christian Unity.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER THARP

Next Sunday: Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Celebrant : Fr. Tharp

DO NOT FALL FOR SCAMS!!!!

Remember I NEVER solicit funds, donations, favors, or any request of any kind over the telephone, text, email, carrier pigeon, drone, etc. NEVER! Do not allow yourself to be taken in by scammers. Even if they have my recorded voice, it is computer generated! It is not me!!!

Considering a “Men’s Retreat Program?”

Over the next month, we will be posting information about a rather challenging ascetic retreat option for adult men from St. Ann and Sacred Heart Pastoral Region, soon to be a Family of Parishes. The program is called Exodus 90. Here are the personal comments of one of our parishioners who has some experience with the program:

The goal of Exodus 90 is spiritual freedom. We are all attached and/or addicted to sins or material things that are holding us back from being the men God created us to be. Going back to the roots of the Christian Faith through the ancient traditions of the Church of prayer, penance, and community helps us to free ourselves so that we can be the husbands, fathers, brothers, sons, and leaders that we are meant to be.

The outline of the program is simple and built on 3 pillars prayer, fraternity and asceticism. In short it requires commitment to one hour of prayer a day. Weekly meetings with a small group and fasting from foods on certain days, and giving up certain luxuries like sweets, a sedentary life, warm showers and a commitment to exercise. It’s difficult. But today in our culture maybe we need something a little difficult.

Please keep an eye out for more information and feel free to email any questions in anticipation of an informative meeting which we plan on having a few weeks before Lent. You know how the TV stations post a teaser announcement to gauge interest. Well, that is what this is!

Anniversary of Roe vs Wade

In 1973 (January 22 to be precise) the U.S. Supreme Court decided Roe versus Wade and effectively legitimized the practice of aborting unborn children in the United States. As believers in Jesus Christ, let us be ever more vigilant in our quest to show respect for human life in all its stages. Immersed in a secular culture of death, exercise every opportunity to proclaim the value of human life in all you say and do.

Synod 2021-2023

(The Archdiocesan coordinator for the Worldwide Synod on Synodality has asked that this be posted in all bulletins:

The Holy Father has called a synod inviting ALL the Baptized to come together to discuss and discern how we can walk together in accomplishing the Mission of the Church. He wants ALL those who make up the Church to participate: elderly, youth, religious orders, clergy, lay faithful, poor, disabled, divorced, migrants, those who no longer practice the faith, etc. It is my understanding that the gathering for our deanery is scheduled for Saturday, January 22 at Queen of Peace

If you are a volunteer classroom parent in the school, a coach, drama club volunteer, scout volunteer, etc. please note that you should have been moved to the Safe Parish program. Please be aware that failure to register with and complete the requirements of Safe Parish will result in your inability to continue to work with or around children in any parish and/or school setting. We have been informed by the Archdiocese that there can be NO EXCEPTIONS.

Live Streaming a precept Mass from St. Ann and Sacred Heart each week

Since I live stream both the 4:00 p.m. at Sacred Heart and the 5:15 p.m. at St. Ann; I usually manage to live stream both, but on rare occasions the internet is out at one or the other location. If this happens, be assured that I will make every effort to correct the malfunction before the next weekend. Please remember to access the Sacred Heart / St. Ann Pastoral Region YouTube site by clicking on the following link: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCVLLqbEY5hKWInwz069MVcg>

Reflection on Scripture:

The story of the Wedding at Cana is recounted only in the second chapter of the gospel of St. John. Although it owns only one reference in one gospel, it is one of the stories unique to St. John which was so important in battling the heresy of Gnosticism. As many pagans who had their cultural origins in the Hellenistic Empire were welcomed into the Church after their conversion, some of these brought with them the philosophical paradigm of Platonism. Plato was a dualist who postulated a world of forms and ideas as well as distained world of matter. These Platonistic Christians could not envision a Jesus was both fully human and fully divine (the hypostatic union). They said that Jesus was divine, but never really human. Taken to its logical conclusion, this would mean that humanity was never really saved by Jesus appearing to die on the cross. Gnostics claimed that Jesus was never really human.

In the first half of John's gospel known as the Book of Signs, John focuses every sign on the institution of one or more of the sacraments in its very "human" context. Thus in the Wedding at Cana story (the first of the seven signs) a very human mother, Mary; explains to a somewhat annoyed Jesus that the Bride and Groom have embarrassingly run out of wine. Jesus, having a good time with his friends, basically asks Mary, "What am I supposed to do about it?" Nevertheless, like any dutiful son (who happens to possess divine powers); he fixes the situation by turning water into wine. This is of course an obvious Eucharistic reference.

In his gospel, John references "personal" recollections not refined kerygma. He often comments, "I know this to be true because I was there." John thereby validates the Sacraments of very human sentimental human gifts left for us by the "Divine" Son of God. Only Jesus can make the naturally human also fully divine.

CATHOLIC SCHOOL NEWS

Kindergarten Class News

Happy New Year!!! While we really enjoyed spending time with our families and friends during our Christmas break, we are super glad to be back in school. We really miss our classmates and teachers when we are not at school. Our teacher, Mrs. Lindsey, misses us terribly when we are not here at school. She said we all look so much bigger since she saw us in December.

There are so many exciting things coming up in the next couple of months. We can't wait for all the fun activities like Catholic Schools Week, the 100th day of school, and Valentine's Day! Who said the winter months are boring? Not us! We can't wait to participate in all the winter fun!

Anyway, we are super glad to be back in school. Mrs. Lindsey said we are not allowed to be off school anymore because she misses us too much! (Well, except for maybe a snow day or two, because those are just plain old fun!) Well, it's time to get back to work! We got things to learn, books to read, people to see, and stuff to do!

Have A Great Weekend!

Yours In Monkey Business,

All 14 Kindergarten Snow Monkeys (That are super excited for fun snowy days!)

Synod on Synodality local meeting

Did you know that when you were baptized you were called to a priestly, prophetic, and kingly mission to bring the good news of salvation and discipleship to all? How is the Church journeying together today in living and advancing its mission? What steps is the Holy Spirit inviting us to take to better journey together going forward? The Holy Father, in seeking to hear from all the People of God on how to better bring the Mission of the Church to the world, is calling for a synod focused around these foundational questions. This synod is starting from the ground up at local dioceses. The Holy Father recognizes that the Holy Spirit dwells within His people, so this synod is to bring us together to discuss how to better further the mission of the Church where the Holy Spirit can work powerfully.

Please consult the Archdiocesan website (www.catholicaoc.org) and click on the Synod on Synodality tab to learn more and to sign up for a meeting near you. The meeting for our deanery area is at 10:00 AM on Saturday, January 22nd at Queen of Peace Church. Please sign up and we hope to see you there!
