Water

A few days ago, I took a ride out to Fairport Harbor. It's one of my favorite places on Lake Erie. It was a week-day evening, but as usual in the summer, it was packed with people. This got me to pondering: is it any wonder why human beings are so attracted to water?

Depending on various sources, the human body is made up of about 78% water at birth. By the first year that number drops to approximately 65%. The average content of water in the adult male body is 60% and 55% in adult women. From soon after we're conceived to just before birth, we are surrounded by water.

On summer days, people gather along the shores of Lake Erie. They enjoy the beauty of reflected rays of light on the waves. They are in awe at Erie's might, fury and strength in the face of a storm. They imbibe in the serenity of the soft breeze, the fragrance and the sounds of an evening at the shore. They enjoy the delight of their catch as they turn to the lake for food. How intimately connected and attracted are human beings to water.

A sip of cool water brings refreshment and rejuvenation on a hot day. A warm bath on a winter's evening soothes and relaxes a weary body.

This train of thought eventually led me to recall the Gospel story of the Woman at the Well, where our Lord asks for a drink. I have always found it curious that we never hear whether she actually gave him a drink. Jesus then refers to himself as living water, although she doesn't seem to connect it right away.

What this story points out is that as important as water is to our bodies, even more so is Jesus to our being. While we have to constantly replenish our physical bodies with water, our Lord is always intimately and intricately with us. The only replenishment necessary is to remember this and live our lives accordingly. His love is unconditional. He walks with us and encourages us to come to the water. All we have to do is drink.

Confirmation – it isn't just for Eighth Graders

While it is customary to think of Confirmation as the sacrament that is received by students during the year they graduate from elementary school, for one reason or another, Catholics may have reached adulthood without having had the opportunity to celebrate their final Sacrament of Initiation.

The Sacrament of Confirmation is required if you plan to be a sponsor at Baptism or at Confirmation. If you are an older teen or an adult who wishes to be confirmed, please contact Sister Helene at the Parish Office (216-662-8685 x191).

Saint Monica Parish will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation at the 4:00 PM Mass on Saturday, November 20, 2021. Preparation sessions for this sacrament will begin in September.

Congratulations to Fr. Montavon who celebrated his 60th Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood on May 20, 2021. We are going to celebrate this special occasion at St. Monica Church on Sunday, July 18th, at the 10:45 am Mass. Fr. Montavon will be the principal Celebrant of this Mass. After Mass there will be a Social Gathering for all who would like to attend from 12:00 noon until 1:00 pm in the School Cafeteria. All are welcome to attend.

There will be a Divine Mercy Holy Hour this Sunday, July 11 at 2:30 pm in Saint Monica Church. All are welcome!

Trinity High School is looking for van drivers for the 2021-2022 school year. We have openings for mornings and afternoons, for a few days a week or up to 30 hours. For more information, please contact Jenn Newrones at 216-581-5753 or newronesj@ths.org.

Answer to This Week's Religion Question

Where was Moses buried?

Answer: According to the Book of Deuteronomy (34/6) no one knows the exact spot where Moses was buried.

The traditional burial place was in a valley in the land of Moab, east of the Jordan River.

Funeral Liturgy Planning Ministry

St. Monica parish has always been noted for being a caring and hospitable community. One of the ways we can show our care and concern for others is by reaching out to them in a time of need.

Our Funeral Liturgy Planning Ministers contact the family of one who has died and will be celebrating a Mass of Christian Burial at our Parish. Meeting with family members (by phone, internet, or in person), the Planning Minister guides them in choosing appropriate scripture readings, music and other details that will be used during the funeral Mass.

This ministry requires a little bit of training. The training sessions consist of three meetings (approx. one hour each). Sessions are set up with Bob Soeder on a mutually agreed upon basis.

If you would like more information about becoming a Funeral Liturgy Planner, please contact Bob Soeder at the Parish Office.

Paralyzed!

While on retreat a couple of years ago, the Retreat Master invited each of us in the group to write down something that was keeping us from growing closer to God on the half-sheet of paper being distributed. He suggested the words might identify an attitude, an experience, or a fear that blocked us from growing in this relationship. Then, he asked us to fold the paper into four, grasp it tightly in one hand, and make a fist around it while he preached his thirty-minute homily.

About two minutes into the talk, my hand began to ache and slowly grew numb as he continued. Little by little the ache continued up my arm and my clenched fist began to shake. After what seemed like an eternity, but was only ten minutes, the priest asked us to open our hand. I needed to use my free hand to pry open my clenched fist. It was literally 'paralyzed'.

Whatever else the Retreat Master said until his homily ended is really a blur. However, his closing remark remains loud and clear in my brain: "You see, my retreatants, if you hold on to fear, resentment, or anger long enough, you will become paralyzed." Fear, resentment, and anger are basic human emotions and spontaneous emotional responses to injury. But to nurse these emotions is to harden our hearts little by little until we shut ourselves out of joy and the love of God and neighbor.

Let me be clear here. To forgive is not to forget; it is not to excuse, and it is not to condone. To forgive is to recognize the damage someone has done and to move away from revenge and retaliation. It is often one of the most difficult challenges we are asked to accept, and I will never downplay that difficulty.

To forgive does not show weakness but strength and power. However, this is not to suggest that forgiveness is easy. Some hurts are so deep that the path of forgiveness is long, painful, and fraught with twists and turns. Sometimes, forgiveness moves you backwards to the original situation, and slowly brings you forward on a different, but better path for forgiveness.

In my long and scarred path, I have learned that God never asks us to forgive on our own strength. God gives us the strength to forgive by enabling us to understand that we were forgiven first. This is the only secret to learning forgiveness and mercy. Think of a time when you received forgiveness from God for something you believed could not be forgiven. What did it feel like?

Failing to forgive can paralyze us. Is there someone you need to forgive? Ask God for the courage and strength to do it! Is there someone you need to ask for forgiveness? Be the first to foster healing in the relationship. Finally, when the only action you can take in the above situations is to pray for the other, do so. And then, forgive yourself!

Sister Helene -- (an frequent traveler on this path)

Eucharistic Consistency – Bishop’s Discussion in November

Recently in a "pew poll" it was recorded that as many as 69% of American Catholics do not believe in the "Real Presence" of Jesus in the Eucharist. While there may be some doubts about the accuracy of that poll, the results are definitely alarming.

In the month of November, the Bishops of the United States are meeting to discuss a new document which they hope will address this serious problem. They hope to clearly express what the Sacrament of Holy Communion means in our Catholic Church. Not only will they talk about what we believe about the Eucharist, but also the responsibility we undertake when we receive the Body and Blood of Jesus. The mystery of the Eucharist must be lived in our daily lives. This obligation cannot be taken lightly. The bishops hope, through their discussion, to reinvigorate the sense of sacredness in our reception of Holy Communion. They also want to renew the moral "consistency" required to be able to partake of the Eucharist. St. Paul wrote; "Whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will have to answer for the body and blood of the Lord. A person should examine himself, and so eat the bread and drink the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body, eats and drinks judgement upon himself (1Cor 11/ 27-29). A person must be living in the state of grace in order to receive Holy Communion.

Our belief in the Eucharist as the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus is central to our Catholic Faith. Please pray for our Bishops as they prepare to reintroduce this important teaching to our American Catholics.

Sandwich Saturday

June 5 was our last Sandwich Saturday until we meet again in September. This time we were joined by members of a Girl Scout Brownie Troop and a young boy who came with his father to help (and brought donations for SVDP). It truly warms the heart when we see our young generation come to participate. We have been blessed by all those who have helped over the years, and all those who continue to do so. We could not do this without all the “helping hands” who contribute to the success of this ministry. Thank You!

The 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Chant

Gather the People (Journeysongs #768)

Gather the people! Enter the feast! All are invited, the greatest and least.
The banquet is ready, now to be shared. Join in the heavenly feast that God has prepared.

1. Around this table we dine as kin,
beloved family of God.
We share the body of Christ the Lord.
Here we become what we eat.
2. Around this table we tell great tales,
the wondrous stories of grace.
We hold the mem'ry of Christ the Lord.
So we become what we eat.

Offertory Chant:

The Servant Song (Journeysongs #816)

1. Will you let me be your servant,
let me be as Christ to you;
Pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too.
2. We are pilgrims on journey,
we are trav'lers on the road;
We are here to help each other
walk the mile and bear the load.
3. I will hold the Christ-light for you in the nighttime of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear.
4. I will weep when you are weeping,
when you laugh, I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow
'til we see this journey through.
5. When we sing to God in heaven we shall find such harmony, born of all we've know together of Christ's love and agony.

Communion Chant:

Bread for the World (Journeysongs #780)

Bread for the world: a world of hunger. Wine for all peoples: people who thirst.
May we who eat be bread for others. May we who drink pour out our love.

1. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the bread of life, broken to reach and heal the wounds of human pain.
Where we divide your people, you are waiting there on bended knee to wash our feet with endless care.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the wine of peace, poured into hearts once broken and where dryness sleeps.
Where we are tired and weary, you are waiting there to be the way which beckons us beyond despair.
3. Lord Jesus Christ, you call us to your feast, at which the rich and pow'rful have become the least.
Where we survive on others in our human greed, you walk among us begging for your ev'ry need.

Sending Forth:

Companions on the Journey (Journeysongs #835)

We are companions on the journey, breaking bread and sharing life;
and in the love we bear is the hope we share
for we believe in the love of our God, we believe in the love of our God.
No longer strangers to each other; no longer strangers in God's house.
we are fed and we are nourished
by the strength of those who care, by the strength of those who care.

Reading 1 Am 7:12-15

Amaziah, priest of Bethel, said to Amos, "Off with you, visionary, flee to the land of Judah! There earn your bread by prophesying, but never again prophesy in Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal temple."

Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel."

Responsorial Psalm Ps 85:9-10, 11-12, 13-14

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims;
the LORD—for he proclaims peace.
Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him,
glory dwelling in our land. R.

Kindness and truth shall meet;
justice and peace shall kiss.
Truth shall spring out of the earth,
and justice shall look down from heaven. R.

The LORD himself will give his benefits;
our land shall yield its increase.
Justice shall walk before him,
and prepare the way of his steps. R.

Reading 2 Eph 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise of the glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved. In him we have redemption by his blood, the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of his grace that he lavished upon us. In all wisdom and insight, he has made known to us the mystery of his will in accord with his favor that he set forth in him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth.

In him we were also chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will, so that we might exist for the praise of his glory, we who first hoped in Christ. In him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised holy Spirit, which is the first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as God's possession, to the praise of his glory.

Gospel Mk 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic.

He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.
