Dear Parishioners, Friends and Visitors,

The Church celebrates the Feast of the Epiphany or also called Theophany. This year, the feast is celebrated the day after the first of the year. Epiphany brings to completion the preparation began with the season of Advent. The liturgical prayers for the Mass of the day also contain references to two other manifestations or “theophanies”, namely, the Baptism of the Lord and the first miracle of Jesus at the marriage feast of Cana. The unfolding of redemption is presented through the events of Christ’s life seeing as we celebrate, with solemn rite, the unfolding of God’s love for his people. Through the visit of the Magi, Christ is seen as the light to all peoples. From the early times of the Church, the call to evangelize, that is, to spread the message of the Good News of Christ, the Son of God and the Son of Mary to the world, finds its beginnings in the feast of the Epiphany.

The original celebration of the feast on January 6 is often referred to as “little Christmas.” The tradition in the Western Church particularly in Eastern Europe is to bless incense and chalk which is taken to the homes of the faithful. The priest or head of the family then prays a blessing on the home, after which, he marks the top of the main door with the letters: K+M+B+2022. The letters refer to Kasper Melchior and Balthasar, the traditional names given to the Magi. In many parts of the world, today is the day of gift giving.

In the Eastern Christian Church the feast is celebrated as one feast with the Baptism of the Lord which for us in the West will be celebrated next Sunday. The focus on the Baptism of the Lord has placed in their Liturgy, the blessing of water, as a reminder of Christ’s baptism in the Jordan. The faithful then take the blessed water to their homes. The different traditions, in both the Christian East and West, point out the theology that has evolved through the centuries.

For us the days of Christmas will end next Sunday when we will celebrate the Baptism of the Lord. It is important to continue the spirit of the Season, particularly in our words and actions. The added dimension of the call for evangelization and to be truly adult in living our faith completes this segment of the Liturgical Year.

Be well in loving God during these challenging times.

Fr. Marszal

Please keep in your prayers the following members of our Parish Community:

Patricia Votava, Michael Walker, Marianne Toma, Denise Vlassek, Joann Reddinger, Gloria Unger, John Jacob, Anthony Lupica, Madison Jacob, Mike Wyrzykowski, Jan Angus, Larry Piechowiak, Toni Oden, Veronica Mayak, Joan Kaczmarczyk, Carol & Gerald DeLooze, Harrison Justin Shepherd.

The names will remain in the bulletin for two weeks. Please call the parish office if your name or a loved one’s name needs to be added to the list. If you have a special intention you would like remembered in prayer, please call Lillian Neptune (216) 662-5464.

Our sincere sympathy and prayers are extended to the families and friends of: Nicholas Liotta who was recently buried. May he, and all of our dearly departed, rest in peace.

The next Baptism class will be held on Tuesday, January 11, 2022, at 6:30 pm in the Parish Office. If you would like to have your child Baptized, please call Parish Office to register: 216-662-8685

Changing of the Guard

We are happy to announce that Molly Grunau will become our new Director of Liturgy and Music beginning Saturday, January 1, 2022. We look forward to experiencing all of the good things she brings to our Parish. To help with the transition, Bob Soeder will remain on staff through January 31st, after which he will continue to edit our Parish Website and Tuesday updates.

The Miracle of St. Monica's

We stood in darkness
In the mid-December early evening
The last rays of sun barely slivering through stained glass that had earlier welcomed light, the same sun whose warmth now waned before the chill of the night of the season, "waiting in silence, waiting in hope".

We sat in darkness
reading Epistle and Gospel by flashlight
recalling prophets and disciples straining their eyes beside fires.
Flickering candles,
more for security than illumination,
barely lighting the Offertory, Consecration, and minor Elevation,
now clearer in memory than execution,
"no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving"
"waiting in silence, waiting in hope".

We knelt in darkness.
But then, "Behold the Lamb....."
Behold the light!
A blaze of light, not unlike a comet's tail or a Star letting all see the rose vestment of hope by the Lamb's altar,
"waiting in silence, waiting in hope".

Light-only a moment –
Yet surely long enough for hope.
Maranatha.

Religion Question of the Week

What were some of the names that were given to the visitors of the child, Jesus, in Bethlehem?
(Answer on page 4)

Did You Know?

Did you know that in 2022 there will be 155 Bishops and Priests in the Diocese of Cleveland who are 70 years old, or older, many of whom are still serving in Parishes?

Answer to This Week's Religion Question

What are some of the names that have been given over the centuries to the visitors of the child, Jesus, in Bethlehem?

Answer

Kings, Wise Men, and Magi.

Sandwich Saturday

Join us Saturday January 8th, beginning at 9:00 am in the lower level of the Parish Office. At this time, Jelly and round plastic tablecloths are still needed. Any questions, call the Parish Office, 216-662-8685. We have just completed our 6th year! See you on the 8th as we begin our 7th year!

Masks During Communion and Social Distancing

Because of the recent spike in the ongoing Covid Pandemic, Bishop Malesic has mandated that all Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion must wear masks while distributing the Blessed Sacrament. It is still strongly suggested that those in the Assembly wear masks inside the Church building. In addition, we ask you to continue showing care and concern for others by keeping safe distance from those around you while inside the building. Thank you for your ongoing cooperation.

Thank you to our generous donors who participated in WeGiveCatholic day. We raised $1275.00 towards the purchase of a new organ!

The Synod Listening Process

The Synod is an opportunity for people to reflect on faith as part of their life and truly think about its importance. The objective of the Synod is to 'resurrect' the spirit of the Early Church in the living of their faith in discussions that will begin in January. The Synod Listening Process is going on throughout the world-wide Church and what we discuss during the Synod Process will be recorded and sent to Rome.

This Synod process is an opportunity to take people out of the "News of the Church" and bring them into the "Mission of the Church" by discussing strategies to encounter our LORD in Word, Sacrament, and the Community of the Faithful.

Listening sessions will begin in January and be facilitated by Sister Helene. Stay 'tuned' for dates!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

SUE KOLO – 216-536-7680 / 330-467-5972

Happy New Year Everyone! I hope you and your families enjoyed a peace-filled and healthy Christmas, and that the coming year will bring all of you many blessings. Also, I hope everyone enjoyed our traditional Christmas Party and Bunco game last month as much as I did, and were able to take home a few gifts after the last roll of the dice. This month we are going to start the New Year off with something other than our usual January program. Diane will fill you in on all the details, so read on. It sounds like it will be fun, as well as informative. Hope to see you there?

God's Peace,
Sue

PROGRAM

DIANE HOJNOWSKI – 440-232-2962

I hope you all had fun at our December meeting playing Bunco. What a wonderful way to celebrate our Christmas time with all of you. Since January is a time of new beginnings, I am going to change up our usual January meeting at which we sported our pj's and played bingo. For the change, I have invited a special guest speaker – Mayor Matt Burke, to join us at our meeting. He was suggested to me by another Guild member, who enjoyed his singing at another gathering. All are invited to join us on Thursday, January 20th at 6:30 p.m. Please come and enjoy; remember no pajama party or bingo but, I am sure it will be a great meeting.

FASHION SHOW/LUNCHEON

MARLYN PRAZNIK – 216-218-2482

We are looking forward to “Celebrating the Sunshine” at our 36th Annual Fashion Show/Luncheon on April 10, 2022! During this season of gift giving and receiving, please remember us and donate your new or gently used items for the basket raffles. We need “new” gifts, gift cards/gift certificates that will not expire until after April 2022. And we can also use good old cash! Donations can be dropped at the parish office, brought to our membership meeting or call Jan Dinardo (216-577-5622) to make arrangements for pick up or drop off. Jan can also accept items at her hair salon, Complements, 7525 Granger Rd., Valley View, OH. 44125.

SUNSHINE

BARB OKUROWSKI – 216-406-3731

Get Well greetings were sent to members, Marianne Tomo, (who was in the hospital and is currently rehabbing), as well as Bernadette Cermak, who had been under the weather and has since recovered and was wonderful to see her at our December meeting. Congratulatory greetings and best wishes were sent to member, Kristen Medvetz and her family on the birth of their daughter Lillian Rose Marie on Dec. 6th. Please continue to let me know of anyone you think might need a little sunshine sent their way. Stay warm and healthy. Wishing you Peace and joy in the New Year.

TRAVELING MADONNA

RITA STANOWICK 216-662-1513 / ROSEMARY WELICH 216-410-5003

The Traveling Madonna has been visiting with Rita Stanowick for the month of December, and she will stay her visit with Rita through the month of January. She will continue Her travels in February to the home of Janie Dahlhausen. If you would like to schedule a visit to your home, please call Rita Stanowick or Rosemary Welich.

JENNINGS SOCIAL

LAURA MUROWSKY- 216-587-2172

Thanks to Sue Kolo for spreading holiday cheer at the Jennings social. Going forward, we will meet the 3rd Wednesday of each month to play bingo with the residents. They so look forward to us visiting with them! If you are interested in helping, we start at 1:30 p.m. and end at 2:30 p.m. You must be fully vaccinated (2 shots), and must wear a mask. When you arrive, go in the main door where you will need to sign in before joining us in the social room to the left of the main lobby. Just try to be flexible. If we don't know you are coming, we won't be able to let you know if it gets canceled at the last minute because of quarantine. They will let you know when you get there. If you have any questions, please call Laura Murowsky (216)587-2172 or Sue Kolo (216)536-7680. Hoping to see some new faces join us!

SOLEMNITY OF MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD,
The Octave Day of the Nativity of the Lord

FIRST READING Numbers 6:22-27

The LORD said to Moses: "Speak to Aaron and his sons and tell them: This is how you shall bless the Israelites. Say to them: The LORD bless you and keep you! The LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace! So shall they invoke my name upon the Israelites, and I will bless them."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 67:2-3, 5-6, 8

R. May God bless us in his mercy.

May God have pity on us and bless us; may he let his face shine upon us. So may your way be known upon earth; among all nations, your salvation.

May the nations be glad and exult because you rule the peoples in equity; the nations on the earth you guide.

May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you!
May God bless us, and may all the ends of the earth fear him!

SECOND READING Galatians 4:4-7

Brothers and sisters: When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to ransom those under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. As proof that you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father!" So you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son then also an heir, through God.

SOLEMNITY OF MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD,
The Octave Day of the Nativity of the Lord

GOSPEL Luke 2:16-21

The shepherds went in haste to Bethlehem and found Mary and Joseph, and the infant lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child. All who heard it were amazed by what had been told them by the shepherds. And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart. Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told to them.

When eight days were completed for his circumcision, he was named Jesus, the name given him by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

FINAL PSALM OR HYMN 484 O Sanctissima / O Most Holy One

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

FIRST READING Isaiah 60:1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses.

Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 72:1-2, 7-8, 10-13

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

O God, with your judgment endow the king, and with your justice, the king's son; He shall govern your people with justice and your afflicted ones with judgment.

Justice shall flower in his days, and profound peace, till the moon be no more. May he rule from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

The kings of Tarshish and the Isles shall offer gifts; the kings of Arabia and Seba shall bring tribute. All kings shall pay him homage, all nations shall serve him.

For he shall rescue the poor when he cries out, and the afflicted when he has no one to help him. He shall have pity for the lowly and the poor; the lives of the poor he shall save.

SECOND READING Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

GOSPEL Matthew 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.
