The Confession Line

During the Christmas break I met with a good friend, and during conversation, she brought up topic of Confession, and how much she hated waiting in line. When I suggested that she come earlier to be 'first', she countered with, "I don't like standing in line because then people will know I am a sinner." "Duh," I thought, but responded, "We all are sinners. No one passes judgement on you. However, you should be thankful that you didn't live in Jesus' time when making reparation for your sins involved animal sacrifice."

"Couldn't I just find Jesus and ask him to forgive my sins?" she countered. "That's not the way forgiveness of sins worked", I responded. "Jesus chose who he forgave for a specific reason, usually in a healing. Here is how the forgiveness of sins was carried out in Jesus' time."

"Throughout the Old Testament, especially in Exodus, Leviticus, and Numbers, we read many, many passages about sacrifices. Only the 'priests' who were called kohanim and were descendants of Aaron and his sons, were allowed to make sacrifices using what people brought them. – usually grain, animals, or money. In the time of Jesus, all sacrifices for the Jewish people were performed at the Temple in Jerusalem. Just as there was only one God there was only one Temple, so no matter where you lived in Israel, if you were planning to offer a sacrifice for your sins, you needed to come to Jerusalem.

Just imagine this scene. You have sinned (big time sin) and you want forgiveness, so you choose to sacrifice an ox or a goat. You would lead the animal from your town down the main road that leads to Jerusalem. Normally, people did not do that – so everyone along your journey knew you were on your way to Jerusalem to offer sacrifice. And there would be only one reason you were leading that animal."

Once at the Temple, the penitent had the challenge to get the animal up the stairs to the altar, prepare it for sacrifice, place it on the altar, and hope that through the prayers of the priests, God would accept the sacrifice and grant forgiveness. Looking at my friend, I smiled and asked, "Can you imagine yourself engaging in that process?" Chuckling, she shook her head and said, "Definitely not. I guess standing in line is not that bad after all. At least, I am not leading a sacrificial animal."

As human beings, admitting our weaknesses and failures to someone else is not easy, but owning up to what we have done and seeing where we need to improve is freeing. As I teach my little ones as they prepare for their First Confession, the person in the confessional is Jesus even if the face and the voice is different. You are Jesus' beloved child, and He welcomes you at every confession no matter what your age is.

Willing to stand in the Confessional Line --- Sister Helene

Masks During Communion and Social Distancing

Because of the recent spike in the ongoing Covid Pandemic, Bishop Malesic has mandated that all Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion must wear masks while distributing the Blessed Sacrament. It is still strongly suggested that those in the Assembly where masks inside the Church building. In addition, we ask you to continue showing care and concern for others by keeping safe distance from those around you while inside the building. Thank you for your ongoing cooperation.

Answer to This Week's Religion Question

Which of the Ten Commandments concerns the taking of "Oaths" and "Vows"?

Answer

The Second Commandment – "You shall not take the Name of the Lord your God in vain".

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

FIRST READING Isaiah 42:1-5, 9-11

Comfort, give comfort to my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her service is at an end, her guilt is expiated; indeed, she has received from the hand of the LORD double for all her sins. A voice cries out: In the desert prepare the way of the LORD! Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God! Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill shall be made low; the rugged land shall be made a plain, the rough country, a broad valley. Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken. Go up on to a high mountain, Zion, herald of glad tidings; cry out at the top of your voice, Jerusalem, herald of good news! Fear not to cry out and say to the cities of Judah: Here is your God! Here comes with power the Lord GOD, who rules by a strong arm; here is his reward with him, his recompense before him. Like a shepherd he feeds his flock; in his arms he gathers the lambs, carrying them in his bosom, and leading the ewes with care.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 104:1b-4, 24-25, 27-30

R. O bless the Lord, my soul.

O LORD, my God, you are great indeed! you are clothed with majesty and glory, robed in light as with a cloak. You have spread out the heavens like a tent-cloth;

You have constructed your palace upon the waters. You make the clouds your chariot; you travel on the wings of the wind. You make the winds your messengers, and flaming fire your ministers.

How manifold are your works, O LORD! In wisdom you have wrought them all the earth is full of your creatures; the sea also, great and wide, in which are schools without number of living things both small and great.

They look to you to give them food in due time. When you give it to them, they gather it; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

If you take away their breath, they perish and return to the dust. When you send forth your spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.

SECOND READING Titus 2:11-14; 3:4-7

Beloved: The grace of God has appeared, saving all and training us to reject godless ways and worldly desires and to live temperately, justly, and devoutly in this age, as we await the blessed hope, the appearance of the glory of our great God and savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to deliver us from all lawlessness and to cleanse for himself a people as his own, eager to do what is good. When the kindness and generous love of God our savior appeared, not because of any righteous deeds we had done but because of his mercy, He saved us through the bath of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he richly poured out on us through Jesus Christ our savior, so that we might be justified by his grace and become heirs in hope of eternal life.

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

GOSPEL Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

COMMUNION CHANT 729 Pescador de Hombres/Lord, You Have Come

O Lord, with your eyes set upon me, gently smiling, you have spoken my name; all I longed for I have found by the water, at your side, I will seek other shores.

1. Lord, you have come to the seashore, neither searching for the rich nor the wise, desiring only that I should follow.
2. Lord, see my goods, my possessions; in my boat you find no power, no wealth. Will you accept, then, my nets and labor?
3. Lord, take my hands and direct them. Help me spend myself in seeking the lost, returning love for the love you gave me.
4. Lord, as I drift on the waters, be the resting place of my restless heart, my life's companion, my friend and refuge.
