Pastoral Scene

Pope Frances tells us,
"We are called to live our baptism every day,
as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us in trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture. God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life. It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can calm us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

Deacon Stan

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

SUE KOLO - 216-536-7680 / 330-467-5972

The weather was a little unpleasant the evening of our January Membership meeting, but we still had a nice turnout. Twenty-eight members came dressed in their comfy clothes and ready to play BINGO! Our 1st Vice-President, Diane, created some very nice prize bags, and I think I can safely say everyone had a really nice time. I especially enjoyed watching and listening to our inexperienced Bingo players, with puzzled looks on their faces, ask things like "What's a postage stamp"? Fr. John Mullee, our new Pastor, was not able to join us for the January meeting, but I am happy to report that he has accepted our invitation to become the next Ladies Guild Moderator. I look forward to Father attending our February meeting when he can tell us a little bit about himself, and we can share with him what we do and what our plans are for the rest of this year. I pray the weather cooperates and we have a really nice turnout. I wish you all a very Happy Valentine's Day!

God Bless and Stay Safe!

Sue

Mullee joining us. All are welcome to join us on Thursday, February 16, at 6:30 in the St. Benedict School cafeteria.

PARLIAMENTARIAN

JENNINGS SOCIAL

SUE KOLO - 216-536-7680 / 330-467-5972

We had a nice turnout for our Jennings' Social in December. We were asked if we could come a week later than usual because of all the special events that were already going on for the residents before Christmas. We visited on Wednesday, December 28th, and it still felt like Christmas. Twenty-five residents had a wonderful time and won some quarters and some candy. They really enjoy both. Then our January visit was on Wednesday, January 18th, and we were happy to see 21 residents come to play and have an enjoyable time. Our next visit will be on Wednesday, February 15th, when we will celebrate Valentine's Day. If you have never joined up before, come and see what it is all about. You must be vaccinated for COVID-19 and wear a mask during our visit. Hope to see you in February.

The Devil's Arsenal

One evening a priest sat at his desk, struggling to compose a homily that would help his parishioners deal with the social unrest so prevalent in society. He heard a gravely voice behind him say, "Having trouble, Priest? Perhaps taking a trip with me might give you some ideas." Swiveling in his chair, the Priest turned and faced the hooded figure who continued, "I am the Devil, and if you are courageous enough to come with me, I will show you the arsenal that has helped me to defeat men like you." Afraid, but curious, the Priest clenched his rosary tightly and answered, "I accept your offer." In just a twinkling of an eye, the two stood before a rectangular brick building displaying the title 'Armory'.

"Let's go in, Priest. You will learn why I am so powerful. With the snap of his fingers, the Devil opened the door, turned on the lights, and ushered the Priest into the armory hall. Instruments of torture were displayed on the hallway walls, and as the Priest and the Devil proceeded down the hallway, the instruments grew even more horrifying. The Priest murmured, "I never believed that some of the medieval instruments I read about really existed. But they do."

The Devil laughed – a horrifying, low sound that sent shivers down the Priest's spine. "But wait, Priest, as horrific as these instruments are, they are nothing in comparison to my 'secret weapon. When all else fails, this is the tool I use! The Devil and the Priest continued their walk to the end of the long hall, and stood before a tall, cathedral-like door. "This door," the Devil continued, "protects my secret weapon. And, Priest, it has never failed me!" The Devil carefully unlocked the door and pulled it open. The Priest was stunned by what he saw!

There in the center of the room was a four-foot stand with a glass globe on top of its platform. There appeared to be a small white 'something' in the globe, but without walking in closer, the Priest was not able to identify the globe's contents. The Devil chuckled, and proudly stated, "That secret weapon is 'Despair'! It never disappoints me." The priest was suddenly back at his desk, still holding his pencil, with the laughter of the Devil ringing in his ears. "Despair", the priest thought – we will see about that!

At Mass the next morning, Father began his homily with these words: "If we were to admit it personally, there is no one of us who hasn't had the enemy strike hard at us with feelings of despair at one time or other. We fight the devil daily. When that happens, my friends, please pray the following: Father God, the world is becoming so evil and cruel. Please look down on me and my loved ones. Bless us and protect us I pray. Pour out Your unconditional love on us all. Please dispel my despair and fill my heart with Your perfect peace, amazing grace, and courage. Amen."

ENTRANCE CHANT 574 Glory and Praise to Our God

FIRST READING Isajah 58:7-10

Thus says the LORD: Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless; clothe the naked when you see them, and do not turn your back on your own. Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your wound shall quickly be healed; your vindication shall go before you, and the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer, you shall cry for help, and he will say: Here I am! If you remove from your midst oppression, false accusation and malicious speech; if you bestow your bread on the hungry and satisfy the afflicted; then light shall rise for you in the darkness, and the gloom shall become for you like midday.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 112:4-9

R. The just man is a light in darkness to the upright.

Light shines through the darkness for the upright; he is gracious and merciful and just.
Well for the man who is gracious and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice.

R. The just man is a light in darkness to the upright.

He shall never be moved; the just one shall be in everlasting remembrance. An evil report he shall not fear; his heart is firm, trusting in the LORD.

R. The just man is a light in darkness to the upright.

His heart is steadfast; he shall not fear. Lavishly he gives to the poor; His justice shall endure forever; his horn shall be exalted in glory.

R. The just man is a light in darkness to the upright.

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 2:1-5

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, proclaiming the mystery of God, I did not come with sublimity of words or of wisdom. For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. I came to you in weakness and fear and much trembling, and my message and my proclamation were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of Spirit and power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

GOSPEL Matthew 5:13-16

Jesus said to his disciples: "You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

Gathered at the altar of our God and King, we present ourselves. We are wounded sinners in need of grace; you restore our health.
