The Annunciation and the Lunar Eclipse

The solar eclipse on Monday, April 8 2024 drew millions to good viewing spots in the “path of totality”. As you might expect, I was one of them. However, rather than trying to find a spot closer to Lake Erie, I chose a bench at Saint Andrew Abbey as my viewing spot. Why? The Abbey is at the top of one of the highest spots in Cleveland, so I expected a good viewing spot – and it was! As a result, I share with you my thoughts and meditation during this experience.

The solar eclipse on Monday, April 8 2024 drew millions to good viewing spots in the “path of totality”. As you might expect, I was one of them. However, rather than trying to find a spot closer to Lake Erie, I chose a bench at Saint Andrew Abbey as my viewing spot. Why? The Abbey is at the top of one of the highest spots in Cleveland, so I expected a good viewing spot – and it was! April 8 was the designated day for the eclipse and also the Feast of the Annunciation that was transferred from its usual date on March 25 to that Monday because the Annunciation could not be celebrated during Holy Week.

In the Book of Revelation, Mary is represented with the moon at her feet and clothed with the sun (12:1). The moon is often used as a symbol for the Blessed Mother – it has no light of its own but reflects the light of the sun (or should I say ‘her Son’). At night the moon is a friendly light which one can look at directly, and it gently reminds us that it is the sun’s reflected light that makes the moon shine. The new fact I learned was that the moon is far more than just a decorative symbol – its gravitational pull keeps the earth in balance.

As I felt the cold wind and watched the darkening of the sky, I thought about the Feast of the Annunciation itself. In many ways it reflected the visit of the Archangel Gabriel to Mary and her “Yes” freely given to Gabriel’s invitation. The Incarnation (the conception of the Son) depended upon the free consent of a most holy and favored girl’s “light”. The Sun for that fleeting moment depended upon the moon!

Mary never eclipses Jesus, but Jesus was the light of Mary’s holiness and life. Mary’s “Yes” gave permission for the light of her Son to breakthrough the darkness of a sinful world.

When darkness was upon the earth, God said Fiat lux (let there be light) and Mary’s reply fiat mihi (be it done unto me) made it possible for the Son to be among us!

St. Monica
Holy Name Society

HOLY NAME SOCIETY NEWS

President Dave Kolo

St. Monica Holy Name Society had 8 members attend the Annual Diocesan convention on Feb. 17 at St. Brendan Parish. Fr. Damien Ference from the Diocese of Cleveland had a very inspirational talk about the "Biblical Foundation of the Eucharist". It was very fitting as the Cleveland Diocese is focusing on the Eucharist this year. Our Holy Name Society had 7 men marching in the St. Patrick's Day parade in downtown Cleveland. Dave Kolo, Joe Vishey, Jeff Kovach, Frank Leone, Bill Skladany, Jim Joyce and Paul Lysobey braved the cool and blustery weather that day

While the Christmas Manger scene was on display, a number of our members helped to clean out the old choir loft in the church. The manger scene statues are stored there, but there was also the remnants of 2 restrooms, and misc. items no longer needed. After a good cleaning, the Holy Name men put away the manger statues, and now Sue and George Medvetz have resumed putting up the very beautiful and inspirational outdoor scenes each month

Quite a few of our members helped out at the annual fish fry here at St. Monica. It was a great parish project, and it was very successful! Our Holy Name Society held it's annual French Toast Breakfast in February, covered all the expenses and donated the $1000.00 in proceeds to our parish. Special thanks to Will Skladany and the many members who helped with setup, cooking, serving, cleanup, and split raffle.

Expenses of $1000.00 were paid for by our society for light bulbs, sink and plumbing repairs, and the repair and new battery for the lift used in the church for high level work. We are planning to clean and seal the statues and stone at the Mary shrine as soon as the weather permits.

New members are always welcome and even if you can't make the meetings please join and attend Mass with us on the second Sunday of the month at the 9am Mass.

Symbolism of the Carnation Flower -

Ancient Roman Legend-According to legend, the Carnation Flower appeared after the Crucifixion of Christ. When mother Mary wept at the death of her Son, her tears fell to the earth. Carnations sprang forth from each spot where Mary's tears stained the earth. This legend lends credence to the theory that the carnation earned its name from incarnation.

Entrance Chant 443 Come, Holy Ghost (LAMBILLOTTE)

First Reading Acts of the Apostles 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, "Get up. I myself am also a human being."

Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him."

While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?" He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

The Responsorial Psalm Psalm 98:1-4

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Sing to the LORD a new song,
for he has done wondrous deeds;
His right hand has won victory for him,
his holy arm.

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

The LORD has made his salvation known:
in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice.
He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation by our God.
Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands;
break into song; sing praise.

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Second Reading 1 John 4:7-10

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

READINGS & SONGS

Gospel    John 15:9-17

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

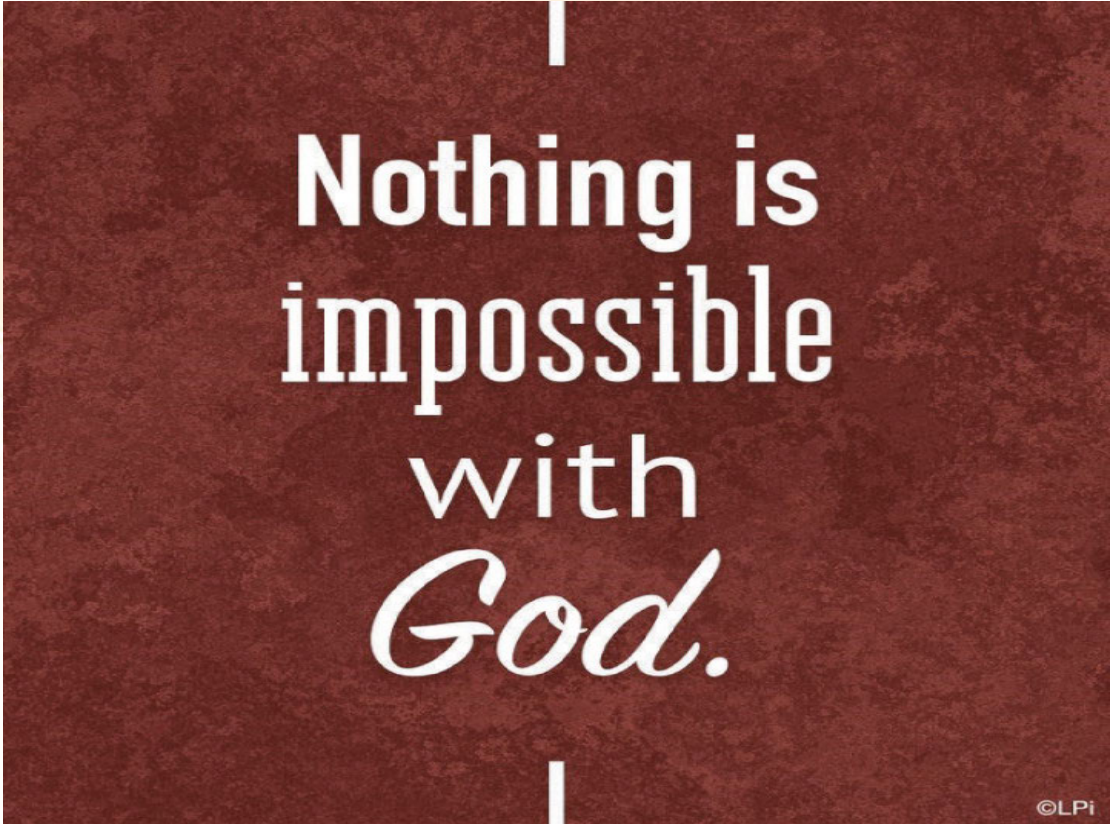

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."
