Pastoral Scene

Sometimes Moments of Darkness are Not Passing

No, this is NOT going to be a sad story, but this “Sharing” will look at passing moments of darkness and confusion in my life (and maybe in yours), and how to rise above them.

Each morning, I drive by a billboard that states, “Passing moments of Darkness are not always passing.” Most of the time I nod my head, but there are those days where the full extent of what that billboard says hits home. Even though I am generally a joyful person, darkness and confusion do rear their ugly heads in my life, and I feel as if the Lord is taking me on a journey “through a dark moonless and starless sea” to find Him once again.”

Sound familiar? This ‘voyage’ usually pushes itself into my life at the end of the Easter Season -- mirroring the empty tomb experience that integrated me into the transformation celebrated in the Easter Vigil ceremonies themselves. The ancient Holy Saturday liturgy recalls Jesus’s descent to the dead, where he preaches the good news of his triumph over sin and death, releasing all those bound since the time of Adam and Eve. Those moments of darkness and confusion were the reality that Mary Magdalene experienced after the death of Jesus, and her visit to his tomb. Once Mary Magdalene heard Jesus speak her name, however, her life changed!

Like Mary, Jesus takes me at times through the mysterious cloud of the Paschal Mystery where I discover once again what it means to convert, leave myself behind, and accompany Jesus in his travels from Galilee to the foot of the cross in Jerusalem, and to share my renewed joy wherever I am scheduled to work that day..

Jesus may have left me waiting for him on that silent Sabbath of darkness and confused at the empty tomb when I began my journey to work, but he also rewards me with the gift of himself through deeper faith, hope, and love. I hear His voice in my heart, and THAT in itself, makes all the difference.

Always smiling (or trying to)
Sister Helene

We Need Your Help!

As we are preparing for our Annual Homecoming Picnic and Raffle on August 25th, we are looking for help from people who would be willing to sponsor one of the baskets for our Chinese Raffle Baskets. All you need to do is purchase items of a certain theme, gift cards or even provide a total basket of goods. Maybe ask a friend to help sponsor a basket. We are trying to make each basket worth between $75.00 - $100.00 each. We would like to have at least 20 - 25 baskets for this raffle so as many people can win one of these great prizes.

Suggested themes for these baskets are:

Rainy Day Games • Gardening • Great Outdoors • Pets • Christmas • Baking Road Trip • Car Care • Beauty / Spa • Back to School • Or Something YOU Like

If You would like to participate, please contact the parish office.

Homecoming Picnic and Raffle Tickets

Don't forget about returning your tickets for our Special Raffle baskets. You should have received these in the mail in early June. If you did not receive these, or need more, please contact the parish office. Each of these baskets contains $250.00 in cash, a bottle of wine, Malley's Chocolate and a few other goodies all would enjoy! Our goal this year is $20,000.00 in ticket sales.

ALL monies raised from this raffle help support our Parish

\ Please note that due to a unexplained reason from the mailing house, some of our parishioners received 2 envelopes with the letter and tickets in them. We apologize for the inconvenience and will work to make sure it does not happen again.*

Homecoming Picnic and Raffle Sponsorships

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat." "For thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'" And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

and you give them their food in due season;
you open your hand

The LORD is just in all his ways and holy in all his works.

Gospel John 6:1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.
