This Week's Mass Schedule & Events

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

EASTER: The oldest and greatest Christian feast. It is the annual celebration of Christ's resurrection from the dead. The etymology of the name Easter is uncertain. According to St. Bede the Venerable (d. 735), it was derived from Eastre, a Teutonic goddess of spring. The feast is also called the "Pasch," or Pascha (from the Hebrew for "Passover"). Among Christ's titles are the "Pasch Lamb" and "Lamb of God." Since apostolic times, Christians have gathered for "the breaking of the bread," the celebration of the Eucharist, on Sundays because each is seen as a "little Easter." In the early Church, catechumens were baptized, confirmed, and given First Holy Communion during the Easter Vigil, a practice that has been revived in recent times. Unlike Christmas, which has a set date, Easter is a movable feast. In the Catholic and Protestant churches, it is celebrated on the first Sunday after the vernal equinox. The Orthodox base the date on the Julian or a modified Gregorian calendar rather than the Gregorian calendar.

EASTER CANDLE: a tall candle blessed and lighted during the Easter Vigil as a symbol of the risen Christ. Typically, the candle is highly ornamented and must have, in the form of a cross, five imbedded or mounted grains of incense representing Christ's wounds.

EASTER WATER: holy water blessed during the Easter Vigil. It is used for the renewal of baptismal vows at Mass on Easter day, and baptisms throughout the Easter Season.
