GOSPEL MEDITATION

January 9, 2022

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

Calling ALL Dedicated Catholic Men

Fraternus is an organization which is dedicated to mentoring boys into virtuous Catholic men. It is a Catholic brotherhood for all ages. For over a decade, Fraternus has been recovering the lost art of mentoring, harnessing the power of brotherly men and fathers, and teaching the virtues rooted in Christ as the path to authentic manliness. If you are a Catholic man - and especially a father - and this sounds like something that you would like to be a part of, come to an interest meeting Thursday, January 13th from 7:00 - 8:30pm at Holy Spirit in the parish hall as we consider starting a chapter here in the Montgomery area. For more information contact Fr. Den Irwin 334-567-0047 frirwin@ologchurch.org or Doug Davis 334-354-1131 gdougDavis@gmail.com. Check out Fraternus.net

Children's Books Needed

Sister Beth Henken, M.S.B.T. would like to open a lending library for children at St. Joseph's Church in Fort Mitchell, Alabama, where she operates Mother Boniface Family Literacy Center. She is in need of books for ages toddler on up in English and Spanish. Donation may be left with Karen in the parish office.

Respect Life

"When we encounter Christ, experience his love and deepen our relationship with him, we become more aware of our own worth and that of others. His love for each person is cause for great joy and growing understanding of this priceless treasure motivates us to share his love with others. Our lives are often changed by the witness of other, so too, others' lives may be changed by our witness and authentic friendship with them."

~ USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities - "How to build a Culture of Life"

We pray for all Christians that they may live out their baptismal call to proclaim the Gospel of God's love and the dignity of every human life.
