INVITE PARISHIONERS TO REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:
Moses taught the Israelites that God would send prophets to assist them in knowing His will. Why do you think people so often reject the prophetic message?

Second Reading:
Paul speaks of the inevitability of anxiety in life. How does your faith assist you in handling what makes you anxious?

Gospel:
In the story of the healing of a demon-possessed man, Mark reports how the demons knew Jesus' true identity as "the Holy One of God." What does this reveal about the unseen order?

HOMELESS FAMILY DUE TO FIRE

You may have read about a family in Lafayette Township who lost their entire home in a fire on January 10*. A parishioner of ours knows the family through her work at Kohl's in Medina. If anyone in our parish would like to help the family financially at this time, donations can be sent to:

Hall Family Fund
c/o Kohl's
4095 Pearl Road
Medina, OH 44256

Make checks payable to: Shannon Hall. Thank you.

A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear People of God,

I am saddened to learn that on January 22nd, the anniversary of the Supreme Court's legalization of abortion, our Catholic president stated his administration's support of a parent's right to end the life of their unborn child. The Unites States Conference of Catholic Bishops gave an immediate written response affirming the Church's condemnation to abortion and opposition toward any president supporting such an action against human life.

Catholics cannot support abortion. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states:

> "Since the first century the Church has affirmed the moral evil of every procured abortion. This teaching has not changed and remains unchangeable" (CCC ¶2271).

And in Canon Law "a person who procures a completed abortion incurs excommunication latae sententiae", that is, by the very act of having an abortion (#1398, #1314).

Pope Francis has often condemned the growing practice in predominately Catholic countries as part of a "throwaway culture".

"The Church does not thereby intend to restrict the scope of mercy. Rather, she makes clear the gravity of the crime committed, the irreparable harm done to the innocent who is put to death, as well as to the parents and the whole of society" (CCC ¶2272).

According to an article by the Catholic News Agency, the President's statement did not mention abortion by name, but used euphemisms to 'reproductive health' for women. The article continued that Archbishop Gomez of Los Angeles, the president of the Bishop's Conference, stated that there are areas of agreement and disagreement between the bishops and President Biden. He is praying for the President.

Personally, I believe prayer is powerful, and that hearts and minds can be changed. With the current Supreme Court there is hope that cases may now come before the Justices that can overturn the errant 1973 Court Ruling, Roe v. Wade. It would not be the first time when decades after a ruling a case comes to the court that, in practice, reverses an earlier decision. I'm thinking here of Plessy v. Ferguson in 1896.

Like the Bishops, let us pray for the President in the hope that he will work with the Court and not be an obstacle to future decisions.

May God help us to bring an end to this practice, while living up to other important life issues of our Catholic faith. There is a group of people in this parish concerned about this issue, if you would like to join them, I would like to see us become more attentive to the needs of the unborn and our support of expectant parents in our parish and area. Even during this pandemic we have collected funds and baby supplies for local agencies, like the Oaks in Brunswick. Together we can make a difference. Let me know what else can be done to promote God's gift of human life to the most vulnerable. And, in the meantime, offer a prayer for your Mom and Dad – no matter what, by God's grace and their choice – you are here today!

ON ANOTHER NOTE or TWO

Please welcome back Fr. Josh Cochrac, Parochial Vicar at St. Charles Borromeo Parish in Parma. A few years ago, he assisted you when Fr. Stec was the Administrator. Father will be here for the Saturday 5:00pm Mass and then again next weekend for the 10:30am Mass on Sunday, February 7th. I am grateful for his assistance and the opportunity for you to hear the Gospel preached by someone else.

There will be no Daily Mass celebrated here the next few weeks. Please visit another local church or participate online. Daily Mass will resume February 17th, Ash Wednesday at 8:30am.

Individual blessing of throats will not be given during the pandemic. The traditional Blessing of St. Blasé usually given on his feast day will be given as the final blessing at all the Masses on February 6th and 7th. May God protect us!

We received the Word Among Us booklets for the Lenten Season that begins February 17th. These booklets contain the Daily Mass Readings and a brief Lenten Reflection. If you would like a personal copy, please see an Usher or me after Mass the next few weekends. Booklets are limited, so obtain a copy before we run out.

This is the final weekend to pick up your 2021 Church Envelopes AFTER Mass in the Conference Room. You can still pick up your offertory envelopes during the extended Parish Office Hours:

Monday – Wednesday 9am – 4pm
Thursday and Friday 9am – 2pm

Please see the notice in today's bulletin about COVID-19 Vaccination distribution sites. Stay safe and be well. Fr. Dan

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Embracing Change in Christ

It's officially one month since we popped the champagne, toasted 2021 and wrote down a list of resolutions. This is usually the time when we start to take a good, hard look in the mirror to assess what we have done — or have not done — with the first month of this brand-new year.

New years can be scary, can't they? Full of promise, sure, but also full of room for failure. Full of space for our old baggage, old fears and the continuation of old mistakes.

The same can be said of Christ, and the new life he offers us, if we are brave enough to accept it. Opportunities like that can be intimidating. In that moment, we might find ourselves like the man with the unclean spirit crying out: "What have you to do with me, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us?"

Jesus is a comforter of the afflicted; he is a consoling figure, but he is also a challenging one. Sometimes we have grown attached to our afflictions. The idea of correcting bad habits or forming new ones is frankly terrifying to us. We have a voice deep inside who sees Christ and his invitation to repentance, and it cries out in fear: "I know who you are!"

When we live in the present, disavowing the baggage of the past or fear of the future, we submit ourselves to the promise of redemption. Let us be brave everyday stewards and invite Christ's healing power into our lives. We won't regret it — I'm sure the demoniac never did.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: I get annoyed with myself when I am distracted while I pray. Is it a sin? How can I be more attentive?

Answer:

The mind is a marvelous and complex thing, producing amazing thoughts, images, wisdom and inspiration. Yet at times it is like a two-year-old: it does not follow directions, does what it wants and loves to tell us "no!" This is probably the oldest and most common problem in the spiritual life-dealing with distraction. It comes in all forms: good intentions forgotten, wandering thoughts at Mass, daydreaming, etc. A little poem says it all: When the soul begins to pray, the brain always wants to play!

There are many ways to handle distractions. If we are distracted by thoughts about our families or friends, we should pray for them. If we lose our focus, we need to just "re-collect" ourselves. If some worry or concern just won't leave our mind, then we deal with it and come back to prayer or make it part of our prayer. And when words just won't come, the only prayer we might offer is our presence, our suffering, and our desire to be close to the Lord. Most importantly, we need to be patient with ourselves. These things are not sinful, but reminders of our human frailty. Our weaknesses and good efforts are all acceptable to God, who reads the love in our hearts and the good intentions of our minds.

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 31, 2021 ~ 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Most of us are quiet people who desire to live a good and holy life, promote the values and mission of the Gospel as best we can and desire to one day inherit the surprise of life eternal God promises to us. We are not trail blazers. We are simple people who want to do the simple things of life well. But there are others who left a more profound impact along the way of the paths they walked. Folks like Dorothy Day, Martin Luther King, Thomas Merton, Gandhi, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and many others left lasting impacts and legacies. Like Moses, they show us by word and deed who God is and what integrity and a purpose driven life look like. They show us how to be holy. We need Moses people like these to give us inspiration, hope and an example of holy living.

We do not need to do what they did or even mirror their relationship with God. Each one of us is God's special creation, with a purpose and soul known only to us. We need to learn how to open up and bring, without compromise, our soul-ness to life. We know when someone is authentic and centered because they always point to truth, even though they struggle and sin themselves, and they embody an unspoken timeless wisdom that just sounds and feels right. Jesus taught with this same type of authority and it astonished many who listened. We do not need to move mountains, advance a cause, write books or become notable. All we have to do is become credible witnesses of the faith we profess. Moses people can teach us how to do this.

St. Oscar Romero was an amazing man and a Moses figure for sure. He saw God in the burning bush and brought the flame of Gospel faith to the poorest of the poor, challenging the evils of the society in which he lived. He was tireless and persistent. He must have gotten very close to the problem because it cost him his life. He suspected it would. St. Romero said, "When we leave Mass, we ought to go out the way Moses descended Mt Sinai: with his face shining, with his heart brave and strong to face the world's difficulties." We can learn from this wisdom. If we allow the power of the Mass to truly transform us, we will leave that holy encounter changed. Our face will shine, and we will have courage. We can then bring what we have received to life's challenges. That sounds doable, doesn't it? Because of the example of our simple holiness, people will be amazed.

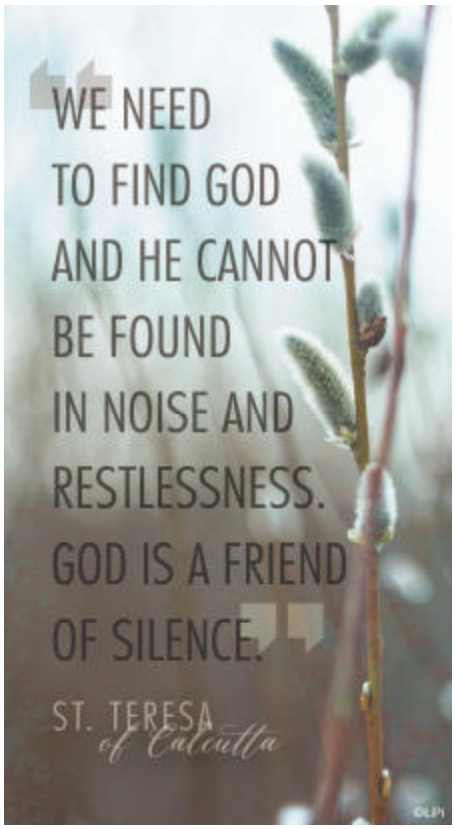
INSPIRATION



LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Most of us are not trail blazers. Throughout history though, there have been many folks who tirelessly and persistently pursued the promptings of their hearts without giving any care to what others thought or trends dictated. Jesus is one of them. St. Teresa of Calcutta and St. Francis of Assisi are examples of others. The rest of us are people who take a more measured look at things, want to test the waters, and take our time choosing what path or person to follow. We need credible witnesses of faith. We need the Moses people in our lives to show us by word and deed who God is and what integrity and a purpose-driven life looks like. They are the pointers to truth, who even though they struggle themselves, seem to embody an unspoken timeless wisdom that just sounds and feels right. Jesus taught with this same type of authority and caught the attention of the greatest of skeptics. They were astonished. Even though we need our human prophets we can also be somewhat prophetic ourselves by putting integrity and conviction behind our embrace of the Gospel. Perhaps much to our surprise, we all have the power to be a credible witness. Are you willing to give it a try?
