CARD MAKING CLASS

St. Martin's will be hosting another card making class with Brenda Scheiman on Saturday, January 29 from 9:30—11:30 a.m. in the Parish Center meeting room. Come together with fellow Parishioners and learn how to create your own personal and beautiful Get Well, Thinking of You, Birthday and Sympathy cards. Please call the Parish office to sign up and if you have any questions, 330-483-3808. We are looking forward to seeing everyone!

OFFERTORY ENVELOPES

Offertory envelopes are now available in the Parish Hallway. You can either pick them up after Mass or pick them up in the Parish Office from 9:00 a.m.—4:00 p.m. Monday thru Thursday and 9:00 a.m.—2:00 p.m. Friday. Any questions please call the office during office hours.

A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

At a wedding in Cana of Galilee Jesus gave the world his first sign that he was more than an itinerant preacher. The Blessed Mother informed him of the wedding couple's situation. And as we hear in this Sunday's gospel from St. John, Jesus responded to their need overwhelmingly by changing gallons of water into gallons of fine wine. May the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, intercede for our parish community. May an overabundance of God's grace and mercy be granted to us in this coming year.

On January 18 at 6:30pm, in the Parish Center, we'll show a DVD presentation by Bishop Robert Barron entitled: "Michelangelo, the Artist". Bishop Barron gives an excellent summary of Michelangelo's life and works, including the famous ceiling of the Sistine Chapel in the Vatican. This DVD presentation is free and open to anyone.

As some of you may know there will be a life-size exhibit of Michelangelo's work in the Great Lakes Mall in Mentor. We offer you the chance to join us on Sunday, February 6, to view the exhibit. Colene Conley is getting us 40 tickets at the 'group' price and arranging for a round-trip bus ride from the parish to the exhibit. Price is $55 per person or $100 per couple. PLEASE CONTACT THE PARISH OFFICE TO ADD YOUR NAME TO THE LIST ASAP; exhibit and bus tickets are non-refundable. The exhibit will be open from January 21st through February 20th.

Maybe you have heard: there has been an increase of scammers preying on people, particularly the elderly, here in Medina County. Information on their fraudulent schemes and tactics can help prevent an increase of victims among your loved ones or even on you.

On Wednesday, January 26 at 7:00pm we welcome Detective John Girard of the Medina County Sheriff Office and Officer Mummert of the Brunswick Police Department. They will provide information on this matter. Due to the content of their presentation, and the methods to prevent being victimized, they request that this event be open to adults only. If any qualified childcare providers are able to assist, we would be happy to provide that service. (Contact the office, first)

Our in-person religious formation for youth, Levels 1-8, resumes today over in the school building. Also, High School candidates for Confirmation will resume their preparations over in the parish hall. Parents are welcome to attend, but are not required.

Monday is a federal holiday in honor of the American Civil Rights Leader, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Mass that day will be at 9:00am, not its regular time of five o'clock. But the parish office will be open on Monday.

I want to thank the seven volunteers who provided food to the clients in Operation HOMES for seven straight nights. It is quite a sacrifice to feed, along with your own family, 7-8 more people and then delivered the meals to those being housed in a motel elsewhere. It is a Corporal Work of Mercy to 'feed the hungry'. I firmly believe that God will bless you in some way. As is said, 'what goes around, comes around'. Or as Jesus said, 'as often as you did it for them, you did it for me'. On behalf of Patty (Kurt) Ostrander who does the online sign-up, and those who were served by our parish – THANKS!

This Wednesday begins the annual time of prayer for Christian Unity, January 18 – 25th. Let us pray for our brothers and sisters in Christ who by our common baptism and love for the Lord may one day fulfill Jesus' prayer that all may be one following but one Shepherd. The Buckeye Area Ministers Association has played a large part in this effort.

Blessings, Fr. Dan

PARISH NEWS AND STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It Takes All Kinds

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 16, 2022 ~ 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus. ©LPi
