Grow In Faith—Gospel Meditation

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

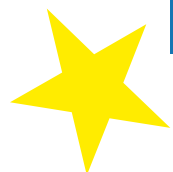

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

10 x 10 Colts Challenge

Pray a decade of the rosary

Donate at least $10

Ask 10 or more friends to participate

Challenge runs until December 31st

SAINT ANN CATHOLIC SCHOOL

www.sascolts.org

The purpose of this year's 10 x 10 Colts Challenge is SCHOOL SAFETY.

We need to better secure the school's fifteen entry/exit points. The school building covers a large area, which means lots of entry/exit points. Many of these entry/exit points have the original fixtures, which need to be repaired or replaced with newer, more secure locking mechanisms for improved school safety.

Our 10 x 10 Colts Challenge goal is $10,000.
