“I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.” - Jn 13:34

Sacraments

Baptisms

Baptisms are scheduled as needed. Parishioners are encouraged to schedule baptisms one month in advance. Parents much attend a class prior to the baptism of their child.

Sacrament of Matrimony

We congratulate you on your engagement and extend best wishes! Baptized Catholics are required to marry according to the laws of the Catholic Church and it is essential to contact a priest as soon as the engagement is final. The time for formal preparation for Matrimony established by the Diocese of Memphis is 6 months; however, couples are encouraged to begin 9 months prior to the celebration.

Anointing of the Sick

This sacrament gives strength and support to the sick and can be administered to anyone struggling with an illness, prior to surgery or when hospitalization occurs. A priest or extraordinary minister visit can be arranged.

Funerals

The clergy and staff wish to support you before, during and after the loss of a loved one. Please stop by the office to pick up A Guide to Funeral Planning. This informative booklet will assist you in the preparations for a funeral service.

Grow In Faith—Gospel Meditation

“It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God.” Many folks really work very hard to circumvent difficult situations. We prefer the easier way around something, rather than risk inconvenience, hurt or prolonged suffering. It’s no wonder euthanasia is rapidly becoming acceptable around the world. Through purely human eyes, there is no issue bypassing the inevitable, taking control and bringing things more swiftly to a place of peace. If this is the way God sees things, then why does Jesus make such a big deal helping us understand the experience of suffering and embrace it? God’s wisdom clearly takes us in another direction.

Imagine if we were able to eradicate ALL hardship and suffering. Where would we be? As we look at our own journeys, many of our solid more growth producing life lessons have been born of suffering, disappointment, inconvenience, darkness, and despair. There is something sacred about all of these experiences as God uses them to create something new. Envisioning a life without hardship and suffering brings us to a vision where everything is flat-lined and dull. As much as hardship and suffering are difficult crosses to bear, not taking them up runs the risk of us becoming shallow, empty, and lifeless. Helen Keller remarks that, “a happy life consists not in the absence but in the mastery of hardships.” What an incredibly wise insight! Many really successful people and saints were brought to their station in life because they suffered. Suffering teaches us about what’s important and propels us to search the depths of our souls for resources and strength we never would have known before.

This is especially true when we love as Jesus asks us to love. Love, perhaps above any other experience, can cause us great hardship, pain, and suffering especially when it’s authentic and unconditional. While it can thrust us into an incredible experience of God and life on one hand, it can bruise and wound us deeply on the other. Mastering the art of love is the secret to living life well, walking in the presence of God and investing in the joy of the Gospel. Love and suffering walk hand in hand. Compromising one will compromise the other. Maybe that’s why Jesus spent so much time convincing us to accept both.

Fishers of Men

The Fishers of Men is more than just a group. We have become a band of brothers. Men striving to live the best life we can by being there for each other and holding each other accountable. We are truly finding out what it means to live as a community of faith led men with one common goal: getting each other and our families to heaven. Our group works to live all aspects of our faith through our four pillar structure: FORMATION - WORSHIP - SERVICE - FELLOWSHIP.

If you are looking for something that's been missing in your life then join us. It doesn't matter if you come only to fellowship, or to worship, to formation, or to serve. There's no grade for perfect attendance. There is only our desire to meet you and to know you on whatever terms you have. We promise that if you come be with us you can come as you are. Join us anytime you can make it. Questions? Bryan Watson 901-596-3496.

After you've cared for your family in your will, we ask that you also remember your parish family at Saint Ann. Bequeathing your gift of financial assets or personal property leaves a very special and eternal legacy. Unrestricted gifts – large or small – help to sustain the growth of our parish. Every gift is welcome, and every gift is a blessing for future generations. Thank you!
