PSALM 33:12

Sacraments

Baptisms

Baptisms are scheduled as needed. Parishioners are encouraged to schedule baptisms one month in advance. Parents much attend a class prior to the baptism of their child.

Sacrament of Matrimony

We congratulate you on your engagement and extend best wishes! Baptized Catholics are required to marry according to the laws of the Catholic Church and it is essential to contact a priest as soon as the engagement is final. The time for formal preparation for Matrimony established by the Diocese of Memphis is 6 months; however, couples are encouraged to begin 9 months prior to the celebration.

Anointing of the Sick

This sacrament gives strength and support to the sick and can be administered to anyone struggling with an illness, prior to surgery or when hospitalization occurs. A priest or extraordinary minister visit can be arranged.

Funerals

The clergy and staff wish to support you before, during and after the loss of a loved one. Please stop by the office to pick up A Guide to Funeral Planning. This informative booklet will assist you in the preparations for a funeral service.

Faith Formation

Parish Religious Education (PRE)

Committed to forming strong, young disciples and nurturing and supporting the faith instilled at home, our PRE ministry serves children and families 4K through Confirmation. Classes meet in the school building at 9:45am on most Sunday mornings during the school year.

First Eucharist + First Reconciliation

Two years of preparation needed. Join our PRE classes or school for Eucharist 1 & 11 to begin. Baptism is necessary before receiving these.

Confirmation

Two years of preparation are needed. Join our PRE classes or school for Confirmation 1 & 11 to prepare. Also, prior reception of Baptism, Reconciliation and Eucharist are necessary.

Missed Sacraments

If you and/or your child(ren) are past the traditional age for receiving sacraments, we will be glad to develop a formation plan for you.

Adult Faith Formation

Join the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) classes to learn more about our Catholic faith, prepare to receive Sacraments of Initiation and renew your knowledge of our faith.

Grow In Faith—Gospel Meditation

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, “the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited.” That same dictionary defines liberty as, “the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to.” Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and simply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that “the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ.” There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one’s soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one’s character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. “I am sending you like lambs among wolves,” Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That’s what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.

Saint Ann Church is in need of ministers for Ministry to the Sick. We welcome people who demonstrate compassion, care, and concern for the sick and elderly. This ministry takes the Eucharist and visits the people in the Parish and those in rehab and assisted living who are ill and unable to come to church. It is an extension of our mission as a parish community to reflect the compassion and healing power of Jesus. If interested, this ministry provides training and the new minister is also mentored by an experienced Eucharistic Minister to the Sick and Homebound.

Fishers of Men

The Fishers of Men is more than just a group.

We have become a band of brothers. Men striving to live the best life we can by being there for each other and holding each other accountable. We are truly finding out what it means to live as a community of faith led men with one common goal: getting each other and our families to heaven. Our group works to live all aspects of our faith through our four pillar structure: FORMATION - WORSHIP - SERVICE - FELLOWSHIP.

If you are looking for something that's been missing in your life then join us. It doesn't matter if you come only to fellowship, or to worship, to formation, or to serve. There's no grade for perfect attendance. There is only our desire to meet you and to know you on whatever terms you have. We promise that if you come be with us you can come as you are. Join us anytime you can make it.
