The Baptism of the Lord

Jesus who is God, is baptized like any other follower of Christ. Yet others recognized that something unusual happened at the baptism of Jesus and that there was some unusual but identifiable presence of the divine at the baptism. Like any manifestation of the divine, some were able to recognize it and others could not.

What we can hear today is that you and I receive our faith from others. We cannot make it up by ourselves. That is why it is important to stay within Scripture and Tradition in our understanding of Scripture says. When new traditions are introduced because of some modern understanding of Scripture, we must be very cautious. Even the early Church recognized that there are ways to understand the divine reality that are new and revolutionary. That is why we hear about a Council of the leaders in the Acts of the Apostles.

The Baptism of Jesus is telling us that what Jesus touches becomes holy by His touch. What Jesus proclaims is holy because Jesus is Lord. When changes are desired or seen as necessary, we can never proclaim them on our own. We can talk about them and even discuss them, but the authority to understand the Word of God and the tradition handed down to us is a gift to the Church as a whole and to the leaders within the Church.

Jesus' humanity is manifested at His Baptism. The divinity of Jesus shines through in His Baptism. In His Baptism, Jesus embraces the suffering of his humanity so that divinity can shine through. Today it is in the Church that we find the divinity of Jesus hidden in His humanity. We are tempted to run away from the humanity of Jesus.

As Jesus accepting completing the suffering of the human condition in His Baptism, so also must we today accept the suffering of His Church as we open our hearts to His divinity within the Church. Lord, help us see!

We are invited to believe in Jesus as the one, unique and only God. And He has come to save us. If we are baptized in Him, let us share His mercy and walk with faith. Let us steadfastly order our lives to be better able to receive His mercy. For if you desire to receive the Lord, then be prepared to change.

JESUS, I Trust In You!!

Yours in Prayer,
David Caraway
