Sunday, January 16, 2022 Second Sunday of Ordinary Time

This Second Sunday of Ordinary Time brings us the first great miracle of Jesus: the wedding feast of Cana. On the bidding of his mother, Mary, Jesus gifts the wedding party with delectable wine that far exceeds the earlier offering wine. We could say that Jesus gifts his early disciples, too, giving them a keener insight as to who He is. His disciples would ultimately establish His Church with ever abundant gifts from the Holy Spirit. We can understand that the gifts that Jesus has are always for building up the community, for drawing others to God, for manifesting the great Works of God so that people may believe. This is done to fulfill the promise of the Lord that He will restore His people and vindicate them once again, embrace them lovingly like a bridegroom embraces his bride.

God never abandons His people. The Jewish Scriptures have so many stories of God being tempted to forsake His people, yet always in the end, God's merciful love triumphs and God once again seeks ways to renew His people and to draw their love to Him so that they can be saved. This draw can be found in our modern experience. Pope Francis in a recent homily put it this way for Christians seeking to renew love in their lives: "Never give up Never give up on people who love you. Never give up on happiness, for life is an incredible show."

We might also say that the signs of Jesus are both proof of who Jesus is and divine light for those who walk in darkness. It is God who fulfills every good hope and leads us into the intimate bond of life with the Holy Trinity.

May the Lord Jesus embrace our lives as we embrace Him. May our lives be transformed by the shower of gifts, most importantly listening to the Word of God, so that we are able to radiate the gifts of the Holy Spirit and build up our Christian communities in love.

JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU!!

Yours in Prayer,
David Caraway

Remember in Your Prayers
 ALL THOSE AFFECTED BY THE CORONAVIRUS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

Compassionate and Loving Father,
 In the face of confusion and concern
 impart to us the calm of Your presence.
 In You allow us to find hope and healing.
 Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.
 Be with those who lead and give them
 Your spirit of wisdom.
 Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.
 Wrap Your arms around our world
 and hold us in Your love.
 Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love
 to all we meet.
 We ask this in Your Name.
Amen
