THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother, John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. - Mt 17:1-2

Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord

Today we celebrate the Transfiguration rather than the 18th Sunday of Ordinary Time. Normally the Transfiguration is a Feast and occurs during the week and many people don't even know that the Feast has been celebrated. But when this Feast falls on a Sunday, it takes precedence over the Sunday of Ordinary Time.

This Feast of the Transfiguration invites us to look at the mystery of Jesus Christ, living among us. This Jesus is truly God and yet truly human. At the time of His baptism and then at the time of the Transfiguration, the Divine breaks through and a voice is heard: "This is my beloved Son." The Baptism of Jesus is the beginning of His public ministry, but it is also a baptism into death, a baptism into our human condition, a baptism into the will of the Father. The Transfiguration echoes that baptism: it is a preparation for the death of the Lord, a preparation to see Him die in our human condition, a preparation for his complete accepting of the will of His father.

The first reading today comes from the Book of Daniel. We are given a vision of heaven that is full of imagination and images and symbols. Daniel is one of those who could see the Son of Man and know that a Savior was coming. The Prophets in general were able to see that God's love for His people would require a Savior to come. What that would mean was not yet clear. What was clear was the sinfulness of humanity and the love of the Father. Just as in the Transfiguration, we have the divinity of Jesus breaking through into our human situation, so also the Prophets could see that God must once again break into our human condition to draw us to Himself.

The second reading comes from the Second Letter of Peter and teaches us that the Transfiguration is given to us so that we can know the power and the majesty of the Lord Jesus. The declaration from the Father, "This is my son," is unique and helps all believe that truly, Jesus is God and has come to save us.

Today's Gospel is from Saint Matthew. We should note that the Transfiguration was experienced by Peter, James and John—not by the other Apostles or disciples or followers of Jesus—not even by Mary His Mother. Peter will be placed by Jesus as the head of His followers. James is the first to die for Jesus. John is the disciple that Jesus loved. Jesus does not always share with us his reasoning about why He does things and so we are invited to wonder—as surely did the other followers of Jesus. And even though Jesus tells these three not to share the vision with anyone until He, Jesus, has been raised from the dead, surely the others were aware that something had happened. We can try to imagine what answer these three would have given when the others asked: what happened up there?

For us, the Transfiguration draws us deeper into the mystery of Jesus. Our faith and the practice of our faith must rest on our belief that Jesus, fully human, is God. God breaks through into our human history once more in Jesus Christ. The Incarnation is not that God sent another Prophet or another Anointed one. It is that, yes, but this Prophet, this Anointed One, is God Himself, present in our human condition, One like us in all things but sin. God loves us!

Jesus I Trust in You!

Yours in Prayer, David Caraway

Stories Waiting To Be Told: Perpetual Adoration

My name is Michael Hebert and I am the coordinator for the Perpetual Adoration Chapel which has been open for 26 years. I want to share some interesting facts about our previous and newly constructed chapels.

The first chapel opened on January 14, 1996 under the Pastorship of Monsignor John Phuc. We approached Father Phuc in 1994 about the possibility of opening a chapel. At first, he was hesitant as there were many logistical issues associated with a chapel opening such as: Construction Finance, Location (cemetery? in front of the old convent? by the early childhood center?). Fr. John was not sure we had enough parishioners to sustain perpetual adoration. Finally, it was decided to convert the previous cry room in the church into the chapel. Fr. John liked the idea because people would use the restroom located in the cry room during mass which was disruptive since there was no outside access.

Work began on the chapel with mostly parishioner volunteers. Pews were removed, along with the restroom. A hole was cut in the wall. A door and steps were added for outside access to the chapel. The chapel walls were carpeted for sound proofing. The silver-back insulation installed on the cry room windows resulted in a mirror-like effect on the wall above the Baptismal Font in the church. The crucifix on the chapel wall was originally in the church sacristy. The monstrance and sanctuary light that is in the current chapel were a carryover from the original chapel. The chapel was completed for the nominal cost of $5,000. Father Joseph DeLuca of the Missionary Servants of the Blessed Sacrament made a formal presentation and solicitation of our parishioners. Sadly, Father DeLuca passed away in January, 2014.

There were 641 adorers at the chapel opening. We are currently at 200 full time adorers. Our current Adoration Chapel was opened on March 28, 2020 under the Pastorship of Fr. Dominic "Mixie" Arcuri and consecrated by Archbishop Gregory Aymond. John Campo was the architect for the chapel design. I dare say that St. Charles Borromeo Adoration Chapel is the most beautiful chapel in the archdiocese. Many of our loved ones, family and friends who were adorers in the chapel are no longer with us. They were dedicated and kept our chapel open for all of these years. Truly amazing! We feel our chapel has secured many graces and blessings for our parish. There are other Adoration Chapels in the 153 parishes of our archdiocese, but there are only 16 Perpetual Adoration Chapels and St Charles Borromeo is one of them. Lastly, we thank all of our dedicated adorers for their commitment and affirmation that Christ reigns here at St. Charles Borromeo. If not for you, the chapel would not remain open. New Adorers are always welcomed as the lifeline of Perpetual Adoration. We encourage you to prayerfully consider committing to this devout ministry.

One of our goals for ACTS is to be of Service to our parish, community and Catholic Faith. SCB is missioning the ACTS Retreat on behalf of ACTS Missions in San Antonio to other parishes in the Archdiocese of New Orleans. So far, we have over eight (8) parishes to add members to this movement of our Faith! Over 500 people have attended one of these retreats in our Archdiocese and are now active within their parishes in all ministries!

If you have attended an ACTS retreat in the past and would like to be added to our list to help with our missioning efforts, please contact us at actsofscb@gmail.com. If you need to update your previous information with ACTS, please send an email to actsofscb@gmail.com.

We would also like to welcome Dennis Naquin, Debbie LeGrange, Darleen Reynolds, Bobby Kelly, Paul Braunger and Sharon Duffy to our St. Charles Borromeo ACTS Parish CORE! Congratulations! It is the responsibility of this group to keep all the essentials, integrity, and success of ACTS within our parish community and to assist the evangelization of this mission as needed.

Many thanks to Dan Stumper, Mary Engler, Ellie Rodrigue, Melissa Calongne and Joe Bourgeois who have previously served on CORE. Your dedication and service is most appreciated.

The ACTS Retreat, an acronym for Adoration, Community, Theology, and Service, began in the 1980's in San Antonio, TX. Presented by lay Catholics with the support of a Spiritual Companion and Clergy, the goals are to strengthen our faith, renew ourselves spiritually, and to build community within our church parish. SCB has been part of ACTS since 2016.
