LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

It was the best of times and it was the worst of times. Our families can bring out the best and the worst in us. This is true of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our church, our society, and the like. In all of our family experiences, what stands out as our most challenging memory? Everything human can be found on the pages of family life. But there is also a Divine story to be discovered as well. When life gets difficult and perplexing, today's Feast of the Holy Family stands to remind us that it is not just by human effort that we tread treacherous waters. We have to remember and learn from the Divine effort too. We need this perspective if our love lessons are going to be learned completely and well. We are all works in progress and we all come from homes that are broken by imperfection. In whatever life brings us and in whatever family we find ourselves, may the promptings we feel toward faith and hope lead us to greater love.

ST. STEPHEN

FEAST DAY
DECEMBER 26

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of St. Stephen, the first Christian martyr. A man filled with grace and power, he worked great wonders among the people. Some Jews debated with St. Stephen but could not match his wisdom and spirit. Eventually, a charge of blasphemy was brought up against him, and the local population demanded that he be tried and sentenced. He was seized and carried before the Sanhedrin.

Despite the danger he faced, in front of the Sanhedrin and his accusers, St. Stephen gave a long speech about the history of Israel and the blessings that God had given upon His chosen people. He talked about how Israel had become disobedient despite God's abundant mercy. This enraged his accusers, and eventually the crowd dragged him out of the city and stoned him to death.

Even in his final moments, St. Stephen displayed great forgiveness and even asked God not to hold the sins of his attackers against them. Hundreds of years after his death, he is still a role model for us to follow.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

"I prayed for this child, and the LORD granted my request. Now I, in turn, give him to the LORD; as long as he lives, he shall be dedicated to the LORD."
(1 Sm 1:27-28)

PSALM

Blessed are they who dwell in your house, O Lord. (Ps 84)

SECOND READING

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. And so we are. (1 Jn 3:1)

GOSPEL

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. (Lk 2:46)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

ST. JOSEPH ALTAR

Thank you to these men who labored generously to make the stand for our St. Joseph statue. We recently closed the year for St. Joseph with placing the original statue in its original designed place. St. Joseph, pray for us

Prayer To St. Joseph

*To you, O blessed Joseph,
do we come in our tribulation,
and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse,
we confidently invoke your patronage also.*

*Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love
with which you embraced the Child Jesus,
we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance
which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.*

*O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family,
defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ;
O most loving father, ward off from us
every contagion of error and corrupting influence;
O our most mighty protector, be kind to us
and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.*

*As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril,
so now protect God's Holy Church
from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity;
shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection,
so that, supported by your example and your aid,
we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness,
and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven.
Amen.*

Faculty Spotlight Glenda Serio, CGS Catechist

I was born and raised on a sugar cane plantation in Lakeland, La. where my dad served as the field manager. This environment provided many days of raising Brahman calves, riding horses, and just enjoying the outdoors with my two brothers! It was a great place to grow up! I feel blessed that God planted me there!

I attended and graduated from the Academy in New Roads, La., where I met my husband, Mike Serio and then pursued my education degree specializing in kindergarten from LSU in Baton Rouge. I always knew that God was calling me to be a teacher. You see my mom was a teacher for 52 years, so I spent many days helping her in her classroom!! After graduation, I had the privilege of teaching at the Academy before moving to New Orleans, then back home, and finally, to the BEST place on earth, Broussard, La. During those transfers, due to Mike's job, I taught at several nursery schools including Montessori Children's House of Acadiana in Broussard. I can remember driving by SCS when we first moved here thinking, I would love to teach at that school! And then, my dream came true in August of 1988!! I was hired as one of the first grade teachers, to be followed by three years of teaching kindergarten, nineteen years as the school's Religion Administrator and four years as a CGS catechist. During all of those years, I was blessed to take several years off when my children and grandchildren were born. I feel as though SCS is my second home! I LOVE this place! Our family has been part of this wonderful place for thirty three years! All three of our children (Blaine, Christopher and Andre') attended elementary school here, and it goes without saying that when it came time for two of our grandchildren to come to SCS, I was over the top excited. We are blessed with seven grandchildren (Aidan, Finley, Falon, Farrah, Gunner, Cruz, Ainsley) and one great grandchild (Lilah)!

When asked to share my favorite Bible verse, this one has always been very comforting to me: "Trust in the LORD with all your heart, on your own intelligence rely not; in all your ways be mindful of HIM, and HE will make straight your paths." Proverbs 3:5-6

WHAT IS RCIA?

What is RCIA?

RCIA is the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, in which adults become members of the Catholic Church. Catechumens (or candidates) attend regularly scheduled meetings with an RCIA Team to discuss teachings and beliefs of the Catholic Church. They are taught the importance of having a strong prayer life, the role of the Virgin Mother Mary, the many facets of the Mass, the Saints, and how we worship Jesus Christ. Catechumens are encouraged to study the Gospel to strengthen their relationship with God and profess their faith in Jesus Christ. Once all meetings are held, catechumens begin preparing for the Easter Vigil where they receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Communion, and Confirmation.

Who can go through the RCIA Program?

- A Catholic individual who was baptized, but never received First Communion and Confirmation.
- A Catholic individual who was baptized and received First Communion and Confirmation but wants to learn more about their faith.
- A non-Catholic who has never been baptized.
- A non-Catholic individual who wants to convert to Catholicism.
- A non-Catholic individual who was baptized in another Christian denomination but wants to become a member of the Catholic Church.
- A Catholic or non-Catholic with reservations.

JAN 1 MASS TIMES

January 1 is the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God. On this day we traditionally celebrate the motherhood of Mary. This year it is not a Holy Day of Obligation since it falls on a Saturday. We will have our regular first Saturday Mass at 8:30 a.m., as well as 3:30 confessions and 5:00 Mass.

HOLIDAY HOURS

The parish office will be closed on Friday, December 24, 2021 and Monday, December 27th in observance of Christmas.

The parish office will be closed on Friday, December 31, 2021 and Monday, January 3, 2022 in observance of New Years.
