Registration:

Everyone in the parish should be properly registered. New parishioners, as well as those moving out of the parish, should contact the Parish Office as soon as possible.

Funerals:

Arrangements are made with the Parish Office through the funeral director before publication in the newspaper.

Today, we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. The Baptism of Jesus is also an epiphany in the sense that God makes Himself known through Jesus. As Jesus is baptized by John, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are revealed to us. The Holy Spirit descends in the form of a dove, and the Father speaks, "This is My Beloved Son in whom I am well pleased."

This feast is a good time for us to reflect on our own Baptism and what our relationship with God has to do with our daily life. At Baptism, we begin a relationship with God, a relationship that is meant to grow and develop throughout our lives. Baptism is not an end in itself, but a beginning of our life in God. When parents ask to have their child baptized, they are saying that their relationship with God is something important to them and they want to share it with their child. It really makes no sense for parents who do not practice their Catholic faith to present their child for Baptism. Often, when a child is born it can be an awakening in the parents that maybe they need to take their own faith seriously if they are really going to share it with their child.

At the Baptism of a child, the parents make a solemn promise to God and the Church that they will live their own faith and share it with their child. The only way they can be faithful to that promise is through prayer and frequent reception of the sacraments. This means going to Mass every Sunday which is the basic requirement for anyone who calls himself a Catholic. So, when we miss Mass through our own fault, we must go to confession before we receive Holy Communion or we commit an even more serious sin by receiving Holy Communion in the state of mortal sin. This only makes sense because we cannot say to God one Sunday that we do not have time for Him and the next Sunday show up and act like nothing happened. There needs to be reconciliation when we have made a deliberate choice that separates us from God and the Church.

Baptism in some way defines our vocation because we are called by God to be one with Him now and in the world to come. We are made to be with God for all eternity. This is our calling or vocation. How we respond to this call constitutes our vocation in life, which is one of three possibilities: married, single, or religious life. These three basic vocations call us all to the end for which we were created and that is to know, love, and serve God in this life and be happy with Him in the next.

At the end of January we will celebrate Catholic Schools Week. This is a week observed across the country to highlight the importance of a Catholic education. Our parish community is truly supportive of Sacred Heart School in every way and has been since the school first opened in 1949. There are many who are willing to volunteer and donate time, talent, and treasure for the good of the parish and school. We have so many reasons to be proud of our school. Our principal, John Czaplicki and the loving and faithful faculty and staff provides a very Catholic environment where the love of Jesus is very present to anyone who walks through the halls. The Pre-K and Kindergarten Open House is Sunday, January 23, from 11:30am to 1:30 PM and the full-school open house the following week on Sunday, January 30, beginning after the 10:30 AM Mass. Please encourage friends and neighbors to give Sacred Heart School a look when they are deciding on a school for their children. More information can be found in the bulletin and on both the school and parish websites.

MARCH FOR LIFE: Due to the ever-changing landscape of the pandemic, and out of concern for the health of our parishioners, we made the difficult decision to cancel our parish's trip to Washington D.C. to participate in the March for Life. All those who reserved tickets will be refunded immediately. We are currently discussing alternative local events so that we can prayerfully intercede on behalf of the unborn and give witness to God's great gift of life to His people.

Baptism of the Lord

The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."
