I have just experienced the Christmas that almost wasn't. I have never experienced anything like it before and I hope I never will again, but that really is not up to me. The Birth of Jesus is a reality for all of us each day of our life; it is not just about celebrating an historic event that happened some 2,000 years ago. This reality was made very clear to me this year. Christmas is not just about a single day, but it really is about being aware of the coming of Jesus into our lives, every day of our lives. This happens through prayer, the sacraments, and the Word of God. I think this has been the main lesson I have been reflecting on having gone through the events of the past month.

I do hope that everyone had a very joyful and blessed Christmas Season. I hope that you were all able to spend time with family and friends to renew and deepen the bonds of love and friendship. I pray that everyone was able to make the time to grow in awareness of the coming of Jesus into our lives and the world in such a way that the presence of Jesus becomes more and more of a reality in each of our lives.

I am doing okay these days, trying to get stronger in every way. I finally returned to the rectory on Saturday, January 8. It was truly a great gift from God to just be home again. I am extremely grateful to our parish staff, especially Fr. Pat, for how they were able to make sure that everything happened as it should have. The parish staff all worked together by the grace of God to carry out all of their ministries, which speaks so lovingly about all that God does for us and what we are called to do for all our brothers and sisters. I could not be more blessed in the parish staff, the school faculty and staff, and every area of our parish family. Everyone continued to work together to take care of any additional needs and concerns. We are blessed with so many good and dedicated people who are ready to do whatever is needed in order to make sure the mission and ministry of Jesus and His Church continues. So thank you to everyone for all your hard work and great devotion to our parish family. May God bless every one of you and your families.

Most of all, thank you for all the prayers that were offered up on my behalf. Your prayers are very powerful and helped me in ways I could not describe. I know that you were praying for me and that gave me great strength to get through it all. I did not always feel the strength as I would have liked to, but I know that I would not be as I am today without those prayers and your care and concerns for me. May God continue to bless our parish family, helping us to grow in our awareness of how close He is to us and how much He loves us.

I am also very grateful for the get well cards, Christmas gifts and cards, as well as all the kind thoughts and gestures done for me this Christmas Season. I am very sorry that I will not be able to respond personally to all the cards and gifts, but I do want everyone to know how grateful I am for your thoughtfulness and kindness this Christmas and for all the times throughout the year that you send cards and notes and prayers my way. I am most grateful.

Saturday, January 22, is the 49 Anniversary of the Supreme Court decision of Roe vs Wade. This is a day of prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. The right to life is the most basic right of every human being as stated in the Declaration of Independence. Please continue to pray for a greater respect for all human life, from the moment of conception to natural death.

We have now begun Ordinary Time in our liturgical calendar as we begin to look forward to the Holy Season of Lent which begins with Ash Wednesday on March 2. The period of Ordinary Time from now to Ash Wednesday is hardly ordinary because it is a time of growth, as the green vestments indicate to us, it is a season of hope when we can better focus on God's love for us and show that love to our brothers and sisters. This is a challenge for all of us and it is far from ordinary. We must strive to make this time a very real and deliberate part of our lives. Living out the love of God is much more than going to Mass every Sunday and saying our prayers, but if we can do these two things and show others to do the same we are truly doing the work of Jesus. That is who we are and that is what we need to be doing.

Second Sunday In Ordinary Time

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.
