January 22 was the 49th anniversary of the Supreme Court decision Roe v. Wade which made abortion legal in United States. Since that day there have been over 60 million innocent children killed before they even had a chance to live. The Supreme Court supposedly decided that somewhere in the Constitution there is the guarantee of a “right” to an abortion. I cannot even imagine this most sacred document giving anyone the “right” to kill another human being. There is nothing in the Constitution that gives anyone such a right. Our country was founded on what the Declaration of Independence states that we are given certain rights by God and these are the “right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.”

After all these years there is a real possibility of overturning Roe v. Wade with a case the Supreme Court heard on December 1, 2021, Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization. The State of Mississippi passed a law making it illegal for any abortion to be performed after 15 weeks of pregnancy. This, of course, was challenged by abortion providers in Mississippi and the case has gone to the Supreme Court. It will be most interesting to see the outcome of the case in early summer of this year. The pro-life groups are very hopeful and the pro-choice groups are very worried that this could be the end of Roe v. Wade, which will mean that each state will decide for itself its laws governing abortion. This issue has been debated for many years by courts and politicians across the country. I would guess that it will be continued to be debated. As far as I am concerned, led by the Word of God, there really is nothing to talk about. How do we debate as to who lives and who dies. God has made it very clear in the Fifth Commandment, “You shall not kill.” God made us all and He made us to be holy like Himself. Every one of us is a unique person made in the image and likeness of God and each of us is meant to live on this earth until God calls us to Himself.

There have been many words spoken on both sides of this very important and sacred issue, but it still comes down to the simple fact that only God can create life and only God can call that life back to Himself. We cannot use man made laws to contradict the law of God. This is what is happening in many areas of our lives. We must all pray that we can be faithful to God’s Word in every aspect of human life.

If you would like a better insight into Roe v. Wade, you may want to watch the movie by the same title which came out last year. You can rent the movie, Roe v. Wade, from Amazon Prime video. Undoubtedly, there will be those who will simply brand the movie as propaganda from Pro-Life groups. I can tell you from years of experience that the truth about life is very present in this movie.

Let’s make a renewed effort to pray for courage to stand up for the gift of LIFE. It is sacred and given to us by God, our loving Father and Creator.

Catholic Schools Week: Next week January 30 – February 5 we will celebrate Catholic Schools Week. The theme is “Catholic Schools: Faith - Excellence - Service.” We are so fortunate to have a wonderful teaching staff at Sacred Heart School. The children learn about their faith by listening to the Word of God and putting that Word into practice in all that they do. The teachers encourage students to achieve their goals to their highest level. Students throughout the year are involved in service projects that benefit the Parish, community, and those in need.

Let us pray for all Catholic Schools, especially our own Sacred Heart School, that all of our students, teachers, staff, and parents may live each day to share their Faith- Excellence - Service.

Thank you for all your prayers and support of our school over the years. We still need your prayers, your time, treasure, and talent so that Sacred Heart School may continue to grow and share the message of the Gospel with all our brothers and sisters. God bless you and your loved ones for your generosity and sacrifice.

Third Sunday In Ordinary Time

Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received. Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all. He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

SCRIPTURE READING REFLECTIONS OF THE WEEK – January 23, 2022

To Be A Godparent/Sponsor: You must be registered at a parish and a practicing Catholic at least 16 years old and have received the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist as well as being in a valid marriage, if married. Those Catholics who have joined another religion may not act as Godparent or Christian Witness or who no longer attend Mass weekly.

Crisis Pregnancies: Don't panic. Help of ALL KIND is available. If unsure of what to do, call Embrace Clinic and Care Center (330-825-1900). You will find lots of support for you and your unborn child. Every human life is sacred and a gift from God.
