This week is Catholic Schools Week. The theme for the National Catholic Schools Week 2022 is “Catholic Schools: Faith, Excellence, Service.” The annual observance starts today, January 30, and runs all week. Schools typically celebrate Catholic Schools Week with Masses, open houses, and other activities for students, families, parishioners, and the community at large. The theme for this year goes to the core of Sacred Heart School or any Catholic school. I often tell parents whom I interview when they wish to enroll their children in our school that Sacred Heart School exists to teach the Catholic Faith and this is done by sharing our Faith as Catholics, sharing the knowledge of the world around us, and instilling in the children what it means to serve others in the Name of Jesus. We are concerned and committed to educating the whole person and not just the things that will help them score well on certain tests and other measurements of academic knowledge. Our teachers and staff are concerned about the whole person and what it means to be a child of God. We try to help our students to know God and themselves so that they can better follow the plan that God has for them in this life.

We strive to stress the vocation of every person, the vocation to be what God has created them to be: loving children of the loving God who has revealed Himself to us in many ways, but most of all in the Person of Jesus Christ. The example of Jesus can teach us all that we need to know. He teaches us what it means to have faith, faith in God, and complete trust in the Word of God to show us the way that leads to eternal life. Knowledge of Jesus will help our children to answer all the questions that life can throw at them. Jesus is THE answer to all that we seek in our daily lives. Jesus teaches us what it means to serve others because He came into the world to serve us by dying on the cross and rising from the dead. He laid down His life for us and shows us what love really means. When we serve others out of love for Jesus we are truly being His disciples.

Sacred Heart School is a very important part of our parish community and has been for many years. We hope that it will always be the vital part of our faith community that it has become over the years. The greatness and effectiveness of our parish school is the result of the dedication and hard work of this faith community and the many people who have given of themselves in all the ways imaginable to make it so. We cannot point to one certain time in the parish’s history or to one certain group of people to account for the excellence our school has achieved. Our school is excellent because our faith community is truly dedicated to Catholic education and sharing our faith with our children.

I hope that many of you will take advantage of this year’s celebration of Catholic Schools Week to learn more about our parish school and all that it has to offer. Even if your children are grown up, it is still good for you to know all that Sacred Heart School has to offer so that you can talk about it with people you know who do have school age children. Sacred Heart School has so much to offer. I am always amazed at what people who visit our school have to say about it. It seems that many of these people find the atmosphere of Sacred Heart School to be welcoming and filled with a spirit of genuine care and concern for children. They find it to be a safe place for their children where they can grow in faith, knowledge, and service. I invite everyone to take advantage of the many opportunities of Catholic Schools Week to take a closer look at Sacred Heart School and spread the word. Please keep our school, teachers, students, parents, and benefactors in your prayers. Ask God to bless all our efforts so that we may please Him in all that we do.

From time to time I like to remind everyone of the important work that our Altar and Rosary Society does for our parish family. The Altar and Rosary Society is dedicated to raising funds for care and upkeep of the items used in the church for the celebration of the Holy Mass and other liturgical services. Just take a look around the church and take notice of all items necessary for the worship of God here at Sacred Heart; the candles, the bread and wine, the vestments worn by the priests, deacons, and altar servers, the decorations, and the care given to the sanctuary. This work has been done by the ladies of our parish for generations and I pray this good work will continue to be done by those who are so dedicated to the good works of the Altar and Rosary Society. Thank you for the support that you have shown over the years to their work. Please continue this generous support in the future. May God continue to bless the kind and generous ladies of the Altar and Rosary Society and may their work help all of us to worship God in the best way that we can.

Fourth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" He said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb, 'Physician, cure yourself,' and say, 'Do here in your native place the things that we heard were done in Capernaum.'" And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. Indeed, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah when the sky was closed for three and a half years and a severe famine spread over the entire land. It was to none of these that Elijah was sent, but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon. Again, there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.
