Registration:

Everyone in the parish should be properly registered. New parishioners, as well as those moving out of the parish, should contact the Parish Office as soon as possible.

Funerals:

Arrangements are made with the Parish Office through the funeral director before publication in the newspaper.

As you may have noticed, we have been working on the bell tower of the church. This has turned into a bigger project than we originally thought, but it is work that must be done before we can proceed with the renovations we are planning for the lower level of the church. The good news is that the work will be completed soon. Actually, it may be completed by the time you read this in the bulletin. We will soon be able to begin the renovations on the lower level beginning with the Andes Room, then McMahon Hall, and then the Conry Room. The majority of the work will be updating the rooms and redecorating them. It has been over 20 years since we first redid the lower level. They have held up pretty well but need some work. Fortunately, there is nothing structural that needs to be done, at least nothing of which we are presently aware of. We do plan to reconfigure the Conry Room into two smaller rooms that might serve the parish better. The work itself should not take very long to do. We hope it will be complete around the beginning of the new school year or shortly afterwards. That is what we hope to do, but we all know how things can happen and our plans get changed.

We have received many generous donations for this work, but it is always good to have a little more than we actually need. Whatever we do not use for this project will be placed in the Capital Improvement Fund so we are ready to deal with whatever may come up. As always, your kindness and generosity are greatly appreciated. We will keep everyone posted on the progress of the work.

FLIX PICK: SOUND OF FREEDOM: I have not seen this movie yet, but from all that I have heard it is very good. Below is a review from Our Sunday Visitor.

NEW YORK (OSV News) – “God’s children are not for sale.” Such is the motto of Tim Ballard, the indefatigably determined real-life crimefighter portrayed by Jim Caviezel in the fact-based drama “Sound of Freedom” (Angel Studios). The story of Ballard’s battle against the sexual enslavement of kids — a horrifying form of depravity that’s disturbingly widespread — makes for a valuable and ultimately uplifting experience. But that payoff comes at an emotional cost.

Initially, viewers are taken on a heartrending descent into an underworld of utterly vicious cruelty and exploitation via the tale of two young Honduran siblings kidnapped by a ring of traffickers. While working as a U.S. Homeland Security agent, Ballard becomes passionately dedicated to resolving the pair’s case and to bringing down their abductors. Thus, the mood lightens as Ballard first devises and then leads a clever sting operation. He’s aided by Vampiro (Bill Camp), a colorful reformed gang member, and by Paul (Eduardo Verástegui), a wealthy businessman with an amateur’s interest in detective work. Ballard is also consistently cheered on by his supportive wife, Katherine (Mira Sorvino).

Ballard’s indefatigable determination — which not only drives him to imperil his career for altruistic reasons but subsequently to undertake a perilous rescue mission as well — is admirably heroic. And, as suggested by the quotation above, director and co-writer Alejandro Monteverde’s script, penned with Rod Barr, is tinged with references to faith. Yet Ballard’s bravery is inextricably linked to the revolting evil he confronts. As a result, while moving and well-crafted, “Sound of Freedom” is also undeniably challenging. Parents may nonetheless feel that the movie’s educational impact will be sufficient to make it acceptable fare for older adolescents.

The film contains stylized violence, mature themes, a couple of mild oaths and a smattering of crude and crass language. The OSV News classification is A-III — adults. The Motion Picture Association rating is PG-13 — parents strongly cautioned. Some material may be inappropriate for children under 13.

John Mulderig is media reviewer for OSV News.

Please continue to pray concerning Issue One on August 8. This is especially important. There are many pros and cons concerning this issue, but the bottom line right now is that by voting “yes” on August 8 the lives of many unborn children will be saved as well as allowing parents to keep their parental rights and duties concerning their children making sure that the children receive the proper guidance and direction concerning their own sexuality. These are very trying times for all of us, and the devil is working overtime scattering the seeds of destruction of human lives. Please pray and vote on August 8 in a way that will truly reflect the love and mercy of God.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth. "Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes." And he replied, "Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

Altar & Rosary News

Thank you to 80 women who paid dues for 2023! Thank you also to those parishioners who made donations to the Altar & Rosary Society for the purchase of altar supplies including hosts, wine, candles, flowers, altar linens, refinishing chalices and patens, Easter palms, oplatki, 7 swinging torches, and the washing, ironing and dry cleaning of priest and altar servers albs, cassocks, and surplices which we purchased last year. The A&R Society was able to contribute $10,000 towards these expenses in 2023, including the stipend for our Sacristan, Margaret Connor, who donates her own time, treasure, and talent to Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish. We also wish to thank Nancy and her Funeral Ministry teams who have served 17 funeral meals since we resumed after the pandemic. A thank you to Ann and the Prayer Shawl Ministry who have distributed a total of 1,382 prayer shawls and holy blankets, and to Debbie who has mailed hundreds of cards for the Sunshine Ministry.

Altar & Rosary continues to purchase 2 Masses each month for the intentions of our living members and deceased members. While we have continued to support our active ministries, we have limited our social gatherings as a result of health concerns during the years of the pandemic. We continue to encourage members to pray the daily rosary and to participate in the Patriotic Rosary and the monthly rosary at the shrine in front of Sacred Heart School. Jean organized the Mother/Daughter Tea this spring which was smaller than pre-pandemic teas, but very profitable, with proceeds donated to the Embrace Pregnancy Center in Barberton. We will hopefully be able to have a Christmas luncheon this year and will determine interest levels in future social gatherings by assessing attendance levels. Our next board meeting will be September 12, at 10am, in the picnic pavilion. All members are welcome to attend board meetings to offer ideas and support.

God Bless you, Linda Peebles
