welcome

It is always good to see people coming to church. We have had many visitors in recent weeks just as we have had many of our regulars returning for Mass.

Welcome to all.

We continue to try to make the church a safe place for people to come and worship. We seek respect for all and unity that allows diversity.

If you are looking for a church to call your own, please continue to check us out. We want to walk the journey of faith with you.

Again, welcome!

FATHER'S DAY AND A BLESSING

In the rite of Baptism of Children there is a special blessing for mothers, followed by a blessing for fathers. The translation has recently changed, but the previous wording for the father's blessing went like this:

"God is the giver of all life, human and divine. May God bless the father of this child. He and his wife will be the first teachers of their child in the ways of faith. May they be also the best of teachers, bearing witness to the faith by what they say and do, in Christ Jesus our Lord."

A sincere thank you to all dads who have put these words of blessing into action

our community

Pastor's Note: AN OPEN LETTER

On Saturday, June 26, two men will be ordained to the priesthood at our cathedral. They are Deacon Albert Beltz and Deacon Joseph Mominee. Although I hardly know either one, I am happy to welcome them into the priesthood. Here are my thoughts I wish to share with them.

Fr. Albert and Fr. Joseph (anticipating by a few days your new title), welcome to the most astounding and unique ministry I can imagine. No matter how much you have prepared yourself, there really is no way to be ready for all that will happen in your life in the years ahead. So please continue to learn, be open to the movement of the Spirit, and cherish the opportunity to serve God's people.

More than anything else, remember that before you were called to the priesthood, you were called to be Christian. Through Baptism, you share with the people you serve the wonders of being God's own. Minister from within the Christian community, not from outside looking in. In other words, do not set yourself apart from the People of God, regardless of how many others try to put you on a pedestal.

Secondly, be ready to learn and not be afraid of making mistakes. We all make them...even when we have the best intentions. Do not think you have to be perfect, for you won't be. Learn from your mistakes. Laugh at yourself. Take advice cheerfully. Be serious about priesthood and your vocation but don't take yourself overly seriously.

And finally, please remember you are called to serve but not save. We have a savior already, and the Lord's message is there for us to convey to others. Serve Him and serve those you come to know and love in each assignment. Invest yourself, but know your limitations. Love deeply the poor and the ones who struggle even when you can't fix everything.

Again, welcome to this wonderful adventure that we call priesthood!

GIVING DIRECTLY

It's very easy for parishioners to elect to give electronically, transmitting funds from their accounts to the church, using our ACH service. You control the amount and the time of the month for the transmission of funds. There are forms at the Connection Center desk that you can use. Please submit a completed form with a voided check, for routing purposes, to the parish office. Thank you.

WE WELCOME THROUGH BAPTISM

Welcome to the newest member of this parish: Eloise Elizabeth Riley, daughter of Andrew and Erin. May God help this child grow in love and grace!

HELP NEEDED

The High School Students serving on our Mission Trip this year are in need of some help from the Parish. We are in need of dinner for our students on Friday, June 25. If you would like to be part of a Parishioner-Donated meal, or other ways you can serve our students during the mission, please contact Bobby Moren at bmoren@stjohn23.org.

SACRIFICIAL COMMITMENT

Our Sacrificial Commitment for last week was $24,430. Thank you for your on-going support of your parish.

Some people said it felt good that we 'passed the basket' at Mass again. It's not about money so much as helping people realize that their offerings are being presented, along with their own hopes and concerns, before the Lord at the offertory of the Mass.

Our fiscal year concludes at the end of June. Thanks to you, we will close our books in the black.

SIGN OF PEACE RETURNS WITH JOY!

I took great delight in inviting people to 'exchange a sign of peace' at Masses the last two weekends. Although I didn't watch closely, I suspect that some people were very confident in reaching out while others wanted to remain cautious. That is all GOOD.

The Sign of Peace actually is our way of showing peace and reconciliation with others before receiving the Eucharist (Matthew 5:23-24). We want to work on forgiveness, both giving and receiving, as we come to the Lord.

Also the use of both species for Communion (that is, the use of the cup) is allowed once again. Most pastors, including me, have chosen not to re-introduce this at this time. A time will come when it is appropriate. – Fr. H

WANT MORE SPACE?

If you desire to have more distance between yourself and others as you attend Mass, we continue to block off every other pew in the two sections to the left and to the right of the altar platform. The chapel is also available for those seeking a bit more distance. Thank you.

MID-WEEK MEDITATION

For nearly 16 years Fr. Herb has produced a short (usually no more than four brief paragraphs) meditation that arrives on your electronic device on Wednesday morning. The purpose is to help people tune in to some aspect of faith in the middle of the week while also learning to notice how God is at work on a daily basis.

You can receive this meditation (MWM) in your inbox by simply going to 23.church and signing up.

Sr. Anne Mary Molyet, SND 40th Jubilee

What a joy to celebrate 40 years of religious consecration with my immediate family, close friends and parish family! Your expressions of love fill my heart with gratitude.

As I reflect on my life as a Sister of Notre Dame, I recognize that initially it was my response to God's initiative. I eventually followed the nudging of the Holy Spirit after ignoring the tug in my heart for some time. Now, I frequently thank God for gracing me with courage to say, "Yes" to His persistent urgings and to not marry "George"! These nudges are not just "one and done", rather paying attention to the nudges has become a lifestyle of response to the Holy Spirit.

Over the years, God and my community called me to a variety of ministries: junior high teacher, high school guidance counselor, leadership in the community of SNDs, and now ten years at St. John XXIII. I have always lived in community and cherish my Sisters' witness of prayerful lives and love for people in their ministries. The bantering and competitive games add a nice spice to life, too! (I am one of the quieter ones.) 😊

I am ready for 40 more years! Let's continue the journey together in love and support. May you know God's presence in a special way today and every day.

With gratitude and prayer,
