The Lord is Near

The readings for this Sunday direct our attention resolutely towards the mystery of the Messiah, born of the line of David (first reading), in accordance with the Scriptures and for their fullness (second reading), from the womb of Mary, the great believer (gospel).

The Lord is near but you have to know where to look for him in order to find him. Today's message is: look for him near Bethlehem, near Scripture, near Mary. You will see how it is born in you, in your home, in your life.

History as a Childbirth

The words of Micah announce great things to the small village of Judah: "from you will come the chief of Israel." But the process is not magical: there is a way to go, described here with two well-understood metaphors: abandonment and childbirth.

Israel feels abandoned by God; for them that is a fact. And what the prophet does is take that dense and overwhelming feeling, and open it to hope and put a limit on it: there is a child to be born, a child who will be a blessing for all. So, in a certain sense, the pain of childbirth is not just the pain of that woman whose identity remains in the shadow of mystery: the birth belongs to the whole town. The story turns into a giving birth.

Seen in this way, present pain becomes the beginning of future joy, and everyone can somehow feel that what will be born for all is born.

Christ Comes to Earth

There are at least two ways of approaching the second reading, and both teach us many things. We can take those words that the Letter to the Hebrews puts in the mouth of Christ to see the profile of a spirituality of the Incarnation: prompt obedience, worship in one's own life and with one's own life, absolute generosity.

Now, it can be too anthropomorphic to imagine Christ expressing a will with words when entering this world. According to this, it is possible to understand the application made by the Letter to the Hebrews not as a biographical note of the beginning of the life of Christ but as his discovery of his profound vocation. It is like understanding in a moment of life what all life is for.

The beauty of this second perspective is that it allows us to give ourselves the opportunity to do the same exercise ourselves: we too, in contact with the Word of God, eventually come to discover that our life has a deep purpose. To reach that founding word is to find a very vigorous light, a certain and fruitful path.

Jesus arrives, and with Him Joy

The gospel brings us even closer to the arrival of Christ in our world. Soon her little body will be palpable in the fertile womb of the Beautiful Virgin! But there is one who, without touching, is as if touching. His name is John the Baptist, and he has leaped for joy in the proximity of the Messiah. What a joyous day!

The figure of John has accompanied us in this Advent. He has preached conversion to us. His steely word has been a sharp sickle that wants to make the field ready for the new sowing, the sowing of grace that Christ Jesus will do. But before his words, it is this dance of hers on Elizabeth's womb that invites us to have the right attitude towards the Messiah. Regardless of our thoughts, studies, conclusions or resolutions, Christ is the Good News, and good news is received with gratitude, with joy, with dance, with an explosion of praise.

And let us highlight the word that the Holy Spirit puts in Elizabeth's mouth: "Happy is she who has believed." It is like the great "human" definition of Mary, since the celestial definition of Her is "Kejaritomene, Full of Grace." Let us bless the faith of Mary, and with that faith in our hearts let us dance before the Child who is already arriving.

ST. MARY PARISH COUNCIL NOMINATIONS

St. Mary is in need of 6 new members for the St. Mary Pastoral Council. You can nominate yourself or a registered parishioner that you feel can serve our parish in this capacity. The Pastoral Council meets approximately 6 times per year.

We will be taking nominations all during the month of December. Nomination forms are located on the table in the vestibule of the Church. The requirements for these positions and the responsibilities of council members are listed on the forms. Please note that the minimum requirement is that a candidate must be 18 years of age or older, a Catholic in good standing and a registered member of St. Mary Parish.

Please prayerfully consider our need and your ability to serve your parish. Thank You.

ST. MARY OPEN HOUSE

Come enjoy the beauty of Christmas at St. Mary Church at our annual Open House, Sunday, Dec.26, 3pm-6pm and Monday, Dec.27, 3pm-6pm. Bring your cameras and bring your friends!

CHOIR NOTES

Charles John Vincent, Jr.,
Composer of "There Were Shepherds"

English Musician and Composer
Born: September 19, 1852
Houghton-le-Spring, Durham,
England

Died: February 28, 1934, Monte Carlo

Buried: Monaco

The composition There Were Shepherds was first published in 1886 in Novello's Octavo Anthems no.324. This sacred hymn has been a very long tradition at St. Mary's. It was first brought to St. Mary's by Joseph P. Geiger--St. Mary organist and director for 40 years--about 80 years ago and has been sung almost every year at Christmas Eve Midnight Mass. There are no known recordings of this piece, nor can the music be found in print. The St. Mary Choir is likely the only choir that sings this beautiful Christmas hymn. This rare and stunning organ and choral composition is perfectly suited to St. Mary's sanctuary acoustics and its Austin pipe organ. Each year over the past 80 years, a soprano receives the privilege of singing the part of the Angel Gabriel, praising God and saying... Glory to God, Glory!

This Christmas Hymn was composed by Charles Vincent, son of an organist, organ builder, and music seller. Vincent was educated at Durham as a chorister of the Cathedral, and studied organ under Philip Armes in 1864. He became an organist at the very young age of 16 at Monkwearmouth Parish Church from 1869 to 1876. He then traveled to Leipzig, Germany, for two years. Starting in 1867, he studied at Leipzig Conservatory. After two years, he returned as organist at Tavistock Parish Church.

He earned his Doctor of Music from Oxford in 1885 and was the organist at Christ Church in Hampstead, London, from 1883-1891. Afterward, he examined for Trinity College, London.

He founded and was the editor of The Organist and Choirmaster in 1893 and began a very successful music publishing business. He was the editor and publisher of The Hymnal Companion to the Book of Common Prayer of the Anglican Church. Charles also founded the firm of Rogers Pianoforte makers.

He taught at Trinity College of Music in London. As examiner for Trinity College, he visited South Africa in 1893 and Australia in 1897. He wrote works for voices and instruments, as well as, text books for piano, organ, choir, and orchestral scoring.

After retiring in the late 1920's, he lived at Hendon.

Please join us for Christmas Eve Mass at St. Mary's to experience this organ and choral masterpiece—which will be sung at Offertory.

RELIGIOUS RETIREMENT COLLECTION

Elderly religious need your help. Thousands of senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests served for years in Catholic schools, hospitals, and parishes—often for little to no pay. Now, many religious communities do not have enough retirement savings and struggle to provide for aging members. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious collection helps provide medications, nursing care, and more. Please be generous.

If you missed the collection last weekend, please use the envelopes provided in the pews to donate.

CONSEJO PARROQUIAL DE SANTA MARÍA NOMINACIONES

St. Mary necesita 6 nuevos miembros para el Consejo Pastoral de St. Mary. Puede nominarse a sí mismo o a un feligrés registrado que crea que puede servir a nuestra parroquia en esta capacidad. El Consejo Pastoral se reúne aproximadamente 6 veces al año.

Recibiremos nominaciones durante todo el mes de diciembre. Los formularios de nominación se encuentran en la mesa del vestíbulo de la Iglesia. Los requisitos para estos puestos y las responsabilidades de los miembros del consejo se enumeran en los formularios. Tenga en cuenta que el requisito mínimo es que el candidato debe tener 18 años de edad o más, ser católico en buen estado y miembro registrado de la parroquia St. Mary.

Por favor considere con espíritu de oración nuestra necesidad y su capacidad para servir a su parroquia. Gracias.

COLECCIÓN DE JUBILACIÓN RELIGIOSA

Los religiosos ancianos necesitan tu ayuda. Miles de hermanas, hermanos y sacerdotes de órdenes religiosas mayores sirvieron durante años en escuelas, hospitales y parroquias católicas, a menudo por poco o nada. Ahora, muchas comunidades religiosas no tienen suficientes ahorros para la jubilación y luchan por mantener a los miembros de edad avanzada. Su donación a la colección del Fondo de Retiro para Religiosos ayuda a proporcionar medicamentos, atención de enfermería y más. Por favor sea generoso.

Si no asistió a la colecta el fin de semana pasado, use los sobres provistos en los bancos para donar.

Las oficinas de la parroquia de St. Mary estarán cerradas desde el 24 de diciembre hasta la semana después de Navidad. Las oficinas reabrirán el lunes 3 de enero de 2022.

El Señor está Cerca

Las lecturas de este domingo dirigen nuestra atención con resolución hacia el misterio del Mesías, nacido de la estirpe de David (primera lectura), en acuerdo con las Escrituras y para plenitud de ellas (segunda lectura), del vientre de María, la gran creyente (evangelio).

El Señor está cerca pero hay que saber dónde buscarlo para poder encontrarlo. El mensaje de hoy es: búscalo cerca de Belén, cerca de la Escritura, cerca de María. Verás cómo nace en ti, en tu casa, en tu vida.

La Historia como un Parto

Las palabras de Miqueas anuncian cosas grandes a la pequeña aldea de Judá: "de ti saldrá el jefe de Israel." Mas el proceso no es mágico: hay un camino que recorrer, descrito aquí con dos metáforas bien entendibles: el abandono y el parto.

4th Sunday of Advent – 4to domingo de Adviento

Israel se siente abandonado de Dios; para ellos eso es un hecho. Y el profeta lo que hace es tomar ese sentimiento denso y agobiante, y abrirlo hacia una esperanza y ponerle un límite: hay un niño por nacer, un niño que será bendición para todos. De modo que, en cierto sentido, el dolor del parto no es sólo el dolor de esa mujer cuya identidad queda en la penumbra del misterio: el parto es de todo el pueblo. La historia se convierte en un dar a luz.

Así visto, el dolor presente se convierte en el comienzo de la alegría futura, y todos pueden de algún modo sentir que el que habrá de nacer para todos nace.

Cristo Llega a la Tierra

Hay dos modos, por lo menos, de enfocar la segunda lectura, y ambos nos enseñan muchas cosas. Podemos tomar esas palabras que la Carta a los Hebreos pone en boca de Cristo para ver el perfil de una espiritualidad de la Encarnación: obediencia pronta, culto en la propia vida y con la propia vida, generosidad absoluta.

Ahora bien, puede ser demasiado antropomorfismo imaginar a Cristo expresando un querer con palabras al entrar a este mundo. Según esto, es posible entender la aplicación que hace la Carta a los Hebreos no como un apunte biográfico del inicio de la vida de Cristo sino como su descubrimiento de su vocación profunda. Es como entender en un momento de la vida para qué es toda la vida.

Lo hermoso de esta segunda perspectiva es que nos permite darnos la oportunidad de hacer el mismo ejercicio nosotros mismos: también nosotros, en contacto con la Palabra de Dios, llegamos eventualmente a descubrir que nuestra vida tiene un propósito profundo. Alcanzar esa palabra fundante es encontrar una luz muy vigorosa, una ruta cierta y fecunda.

Llega Jesús, y con Él la Alegría

El evangelio nos acerca aún más al arribo de Cristo a nuestro mundo. ¡Ya pronto se podrá palpar su cuerpecito en el vientre fecundo de la Virgen Bella! Mas hay uno que, sin tocar es como si tocara. Se llama Juan Bautista, y ha saltado de gozo en la proximidad del Mesías. ¡Qué día gozoso!

la figura de Juan nos ha acompañado en este Adviento. Nos ha predicado conversión. Su palabra acerada ha sido una hoz afilada que quiere dejar listo el campo para la nueva siembra, la siembra de gracia que hará Cristo Jesús. Pero antes que sus palabras, es esta danza suya en el vientre de Isabel la que nos invita a tener la actitud justa frente al Mesías. Más allá de nuestros pensamientos, estudios, conclusiones o resoluciones, Cristo es la Buena Nueva, y una buena nueva se recibe con gratitud, con gozo, con danza, con explosión de alabanza.

Y destaquemos la palabra que el Espíritu Santo pone en boca de Isabel: "feliz la que ha creído." Es como la gran definición "humana" de María, ya que la definición celeste de Ella es "Kejaritomene, Llena de Gracia." Bendigamos la fe de María, y con esa fe en nuestro corazón dancemos ante el Niño que ya llega.
