THE ONE CHRIST

Receiving the full Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ

On this Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), it is a good opportunity to address an occasionally asked question. The question is “why don’t we get to receive the Blood of Christ”. (Sadly though, the question is usually worded, “Father, when are we going to drink the wine again?”). Well, if you think that it’s still wine at that point, then you should not be receiving Communion anyway.) But this is a good occasion to remind us of the doctrine of the Eucharist and why it is NOT necessary to receive both species—from the Host and from the Chalice—in order to receive the whole Christ. The priest offering the Mass and any concelebrating priests must receive both species for the Sacrifice of the Mass to be complete. But nobody else needs to. Why is that so?

It is the doctrine of concomitance which states that the whole Christ is contained in either species and not only that but even in the tiniest fragment of the sacred Host or the tiniest drop from the chalice, He is fully and substantially present. This was dogmatically defined by the Council of Trent in its Decree on the Sacrament of the Most Holy Eucharist.

This means that even if you receive half of a host, you are not receiving half of Christ, you are receiving all of Him. So, the answer to the question “why don’t we get to receive the Blood of Christ?” is “but you do”. The sick and the dying usually are only able to receive a tiny fragment, are they not receiving all of Jesus? At my last parish, one of our young altar servers could not swallow solid food. I would administer Holy Communion to her in a spoon from the chalice. Is she only receiving the blood and not the body? No! Even if you only receive the Host, you are receiving ALL of Our Lord. How do we know this? Because He is risen! He is alive! If the blood is separated from the body, that means that He is dead! Christ is not dead! We receive the risen Christ in Holy Communion. Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

Therefore, it is not necessary to receive both species. In fact, in most of the world, only the Sacred Host is distributed. If you go to Mass at St. Peter’s Basilica, you will only receive the Sacred Host. In some dioceses in the United States, ours included, the Bishop does grant permission, at the discretion of pastors, to distribute both species (but not at weddings, funerals, or “school Masses”) which is why both species are distributed at some local parishes.

Rest assured, whether you receive only the Sacred Host, only from the chalice, or even a tiny fragment of the Host, you are still receiving the full and risen Christ...body, blood, soul, and divinity.

“...IN THIS WORLD I CANNOT SEE
THE MOST HIGH SON OF GOD WITH MY OWN EYES, EXCEPT FOR HIS MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD.”

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

NOTICE THAT
WHEN JESUS FED
THE MULTITUDES, HE GAVE THE BREAD TO
HIS DISCIPLES
TO DISTRIBUTE RATHER THAN DOING IT
HIMSELF...

REMEMBER
THAT, THE NEXT

ST. IRENAEUS

Can you imagine sitting at the feast of the Apostles? St. Irenaeus was born in Asia Minor -- now Turkey -- and was tutored in Christianity by St. Polycarp, himself a disciple of St. John the Evangelist. Irenaeus caught the missionary zeal and became a priest sent to Gaul (modern day France). Following a persecution by the pagan Roman emperor Marcus Aurelius, Irenaeus replaced the martyred bishop in the region. His trials were not over, however. The heretical sect of Gnosticism spread to Gaul. Gnostics proclaimed a secret, spiritual knowledge available only to a few. Irenaeus researched the Gnostic texts and exposed the falsehoods they taught, such as denying the divinity of Christ. His book Against Heresies is still being published today, over 1800 years after his death. May St. Irenaeus intercede for our own quests for greater understanding!

DEVOTIONS

Marian Consecration, Explained

Marian consecration, the act of consecrating oneself to Jesus through the intercession of his Blessed Mother, is actually rooted in the words of Jesus himself when he beseeched the Apostle John to look upon Mary as his mother (John 19:27) and to “take her into his own home.” He was actually instructing us all to do likewise — to “behold your mother” and take Mary into our hearts, for wherever she is beloved, Christ is known and praised.

St. Maximilian Kolbe described Mary as “the stairway to Heaven.” Marian consecration, therefore, could be likened to climbing the stairs. Different formulas exist for spiritual development in preparation for the consecration, based on the writings of saints like St. Louis de Montfort, and there are different prayers for the act of consecration. However, there is no “right” way to consecrate oneself to Jesus through Mary, so long as the ultimate goal is closeness to Christ and the glorification of God.
