From the Pastor's Desk

My dear parish family:

I hope you enjoyed our “guest columnist” last week here in the bulletin – Father Mark Groeger. Let’s be sure to keep him in our prayers as he begins his first priestly assignment as administrator of Prince of Peace Parish in Northern Cambria, PA, the former towns of Barnesboro and Spangler.

Last week the diocese honored Saint Joseph during the weekend masses as our nation celebrated Father’s Day. As this wonderful Year of Saint Joseph continues allow me to offer some more reflection on Joseph of Nazareth – the simple and humble carpenter from Nazareth who said “yes” to God’s call to guard, protect, and love His Only Begotten Son. In addition, when you are in church take some time to look at, reflect upon and pray with Saint Joseph near the three images of him: the statue above the presider’s chair, the stained glass window on the confessional side, and the statue in the Gathering Space – all places of silent prayer with this holy and simple saint.

Saint Joseph, the Patron of this church and the Universal Church – the Husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary – as the Italians say il padre terrestre di Gesù – Jesus’ Earthy Father – who when he was frightened of his future the angel declared in today’s gospel, “Do not be afraid!” – Joseph of Nazareth in all of the scripture – says not one single solitary word. Why? He didn’t have to, his faith in God sufficed. His prayer that was constantly resounding in his heart was loud enough.

Seven years ago, Pope Francis asked two questions about Saint Joseph. First, “How does Joseph exercise his role as protector?” The answer: “Discreetly, humbly and silently, but with an unfailing presence and utter fidelity, even when he finds it hard to understand.” The second question is: “How does Joseph respond to his calling to be the protector of Mary, Jesus and the Church?” Francis’ call to us: “By being constantly attentive to God, open to the signs of God’s presence and receptive to God’s plans, and not simply to his own.” They are beautiful, concrete, Joseph-like ways on how we can become better Christians here at home.

How can we protect, like Joseph did two thousand years ago in Nazareth, and continues to do today for the Church throughout the world? Pope Francis again to give us the answer – the direction – the way to find Christ as we write together. Each day, new pages of Church history:

“The vocation of being a ‘protector’, however, is not just something involving us Christians alone; it also has a prior dimension which is simply human, involving everyone. It means protecting all creation, the beauty of the created world, as the Book of Genesis tells us and as Saint Francis of Assisi showed us. It means respecting each of God’s creatures and respecting the environment in which we live. It means protecting people, showing loving concern for each and every person, especially children, the elderly, those in need, who are often the last we think about. It means caring for one another in our families: husbands and wives first protect one another, and then, as parents, they care for their children, and children themselves, in time, protect their parents. It means building sincere friendships in which we protect one another in trust, respect, and goodness. In the end, everything has been entrusted to our protection, and all of us are responsible for it. Be protectors of God’s gifts!”

SAINT JOSEPH – PRAY FOR US!

Father Justin

Miraculous Medal

Question: What is the “Miraculous Medal” and why is it called that?

Answer:

The medal of the Immaculate Conception that has come to be called simply the “Miraculous Medal” dates back to an apparition of Mary to Saint Catherine Laboure, who was then a novice sister with the Daughters of Charity. On November 27, 1830, Our Lady appeared to her standing on a globe, with shafts of light streaming from her hands and the words, “O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee,” surrounding the image. In the same vision, Catherine saw a capital “M” with a cross above it and below two hearts. Catherine seemed to hear a voice telling her to have what she saw struck as a medal and a promise that those who wore the medal would have the protection and intercession of the Mother of God. The first 1,500 of medals were distributed in 1832. Many miraculous favors were attributed to the use of the medal.

Saint Catherine’s “Miraculous Medal” is among the recognizable and popular symbols of modern Catholicism. Reflecting on its widespread use, the 2001 Vatican document, “Directory on Popular Piety and Liturgy,” observes that the medal “recalls the mystery of Redemption, the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and of the Sorrowful Heart of Mary. It signifies the mediatory role of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mystery of the Church, the relationship between Heaven and earth, this life and eternal life.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Touching the Cloak of Christ

Look to today’s Gospel and you’ll find one of the most arresting images in all of Scripture. Christ in a crowd, everyone clamoring for his attention, pressing against him. Several feet away, is a chronically ill woman, weak and desperate for help. She knows she doesn’t have a chance of getting his attention. She has no connections. She has no strength. All she can do is lift up her hand.

So that’s what she does. She reaches out.

There comes a time, or maybe several times, in each of our lives when we become this woman. We’re tired and we’re sick. Is it with sin? With fear? With anger? It doesn’t matter. Whatever it is, it’s made us weak, and we feel like we’ve run out of options. We’ve looked for help and come up empty. We’ve consulted friends and gotten nowhere. We’re lost in the crowd of life, unable to stick our heads above the pressing throng to wave for help.

And there is Christ, always passing by us. The hem of his cloak is never far from our grasp. We have no hope of a big miracle like the synagogue leader. We don’t even bother asking for that. But that cloak ... we can touch that cloak. That’s something we can do.

Do we do it, though? Do we have the confidence of that sick, beaten-down woman who knew so totally that healing was there for the taking? Or do we retreat back into the crowd, stumbling back home with our pain and our sinfulness? Reach out, friends. However, whatever, whenever — reach out. Christ will not fail you.

Prayer to Saint Joseph by Pope Leo XIII

To be recited after praying the Holy Rosary

To thee, O Blessed Joseph, we fly in our tribulation and after imploring the help of thy holy Spouse, with confidence we ask also for thy intercession. By the affection which united thee to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God, and by the paternal love with which thou didst embrace the Child Jesus, we beseech thee to look kindly upon the inheritance which Jesus Christ acquired by His Precious Blood, and with thy powerful aid to help us in our needs.

Protect, most careful guardian of the Holy Family, the chosen people of Jesus Christ. Keep us, loving father, from all pestilence of error and corruption. From thy place in heaven be thou mercifully with us, most powerful protector, in this warfare with the powers of darkness and, as thou didst once rescue the Child Jesus from imminent danger of death, so now defend the Holy Church of God from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity. Guard each of us by thy constant patronage, so that, sustained by thy example and help, we may live a holy life, die a holy death, and obtain the everlasting happiness of heaven.

Amen

Marriage Moment -

What does it mean to have equality in marriage? It's more than just being fair, divvying up tasks, and respecting each other. Scripture reminds us that our "abundance should supply other's needs and that their abundance may also supply your needs." (2 Cor. 8:14) Does one of you need more than the other today? If not, as a couple, supply a neighbor's need today.
