VOLUNTEER

JOIN OUR OFFERTORY COUNTER TEAMS!

Our offertory counters are some of our unsung parish heroes! You don't see them, but they are responsible for counting and reporting the Sunday offertory collection! We need more volunteers to join our teams! Your commitment to this vital parish service would only entail assisting on a counting team every 7th week. If you are interested or need more information, please call 703-590-0030.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Well, we have arrived at the end of our Liturgical Year and Advent starts next Sunday. We are also getting ready for Thanksgiving, which will be a little different as we are still in the throws of the pandemic. In celebrating the Feast of Christ the King, we proclaim Jesus as King of the entire universe and all of creation, not just Earth, this place we call home. How are we preparing for that time when Jesus will come again? Are we a sheep or a goat? Do we give of ourselves or do we just take? I know that things are challenging right now and everyone is tired of the limitations placed on us, but if we are sheep, we do what is necessary to ensure that we are not the cause of someone getting this virus, or starving, or getting evicted. The opposite is true if we are goats and are only concerned with ourselves and have the attitude of 'no one can tell me what to do.' My friends, as we get ready for this holiday season of Advent and Christmas, we need to be counted among the sheep, for only then can we be ready for the Second Coming of Jesus. We will be publishing the Christmas schedule soon. It will be a sign-up and first come first serve process since we will be limited in how many people can be in the building at one time. It is important you sign up for Flocknote, as that is the vehicle we will use to sign people up for the Christmas Masses.

Fr. Mike

GOSPEL MEDITATION
A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 22, 2020

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Many Americans are fascinated with England's monarchy. For many different reasons, we are drawn to the regal pageantry and all of the protocols associated with royal lifestyles. What's most amazing is that for all of the media attention focused on the comings and goings of English royalty, they really have very little effect on the day to day dealings of their country. Thoughts and images of kings and queens are often centered on this story book understanding of who and what they are. We associate protocols, etiquette, and proper words and actions to how we approach members of a royal family. These tools serve the necessary purpose of keeping them isolated, enthroned, and at a distance. There is something attractive about being an observer of ritual, pomp, and circumstance. It's almost theatrical.

Is this how we see Jesus Christ, too? We often behave as if Christ is an isolated, enthroned, royal, and even ineffective king. Jesus wants nothing to do with having the status of an earthly king. Jesus also does not want to be watched, observed, or set apart. He wants to get down and dirty with the very stuff of life especially the poor, marginalized, confused, hurting, lost, broken, imprisoned, and forgotten ones. Jesus is the king who turns the tables on us and wants not only our attention but our engagement and conversion. He wants us to get dirty too.

How we treat other people is at the heart of Christ's kingdom. "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me." At different times in our lives we are all counted among the "least" ones. We may not be physically poor, but we can easily become emotionally and spiritually poor. We may not be marginalized as many physically are, cast aside because they have too many needs or don't quite fit in. But who hasn't experienced isolation, loneliness, inner turmoil, angst, heartache, or loss? Almost every human being has experienced brokenness at one point or another, or will most definitely at some future point, facing discouragement, fear, insecurity. People are thirsty for more than water. We are imprisoned by our prejudices, misconceived notions and ideas, self-focused obsessions and ideologies. There is a lot of pain and many least ones around us. Stop, look and listen. This is what Christ the King is asking us to do. Look deeply into the eyes and soul of your sisters and brothers, all of them, and see Christ himself. Being a spectator and observing all of the pageantry isn't enough. Jesus wants us to inherit the kingdom and live the kingdom. It is built on the blocks of love, mercy, compassion, hope, faith, and blessing. It engages those who want it, changes and informs minds, inspires and transforms hearts, converts and renews souls, and sets things right. There is such a great need around us. Are you ready and willing to do whatever you can to serve in God's kingdom?

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION ON LECTIONARY READINGS

Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

There is Much to be Done

Growing up Catholic means I must have heard a million times the passage in Matthew's Gospel about how doing things for the "least of these" means you have done them for Jesus. Okay, that is an exaggeration to make a point. But it has been a slogan for so many social justice activities, from clothing and canned food drives, to letter writing campaigns and peaceful protests. Growing up I only knew how to help the least of these through the school and church activities of the time. Today, YouTube and GodTube are filled with videos of creative ways people reach out to one another. Have you seen the one about the pizza party for the homeless? How about the fake lottery ticket or the house bought from online donations for a poor man? There are even videos of people paying for the car behind them at the drive-through! The awesome thing about this is that it serves as a witness to others. It is not boasting but instead sharing the Good News. Giving and good stewardship can be contagious! Our pastor has several times over the years handed out $10 bills to confirmation candidates and asked them to "pay it forward." They can keep the money or use it to make a difference in someone else's life. One teen planted a garden for an elderly woman. One bought ingredients for brownies and sold them to give even more than $10 to charity. The teens not only learned something about good stewardship in the process, but also served as great examples to the parish community. As always, there is much to be done. The King is coming soon! Let's spread the news and some love at the same time!

VIVA CHRISTO REY ORGAN CONCERT

Please join us Sunday, November 22nd at 5 p.m. at St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church in Clifton. St. Andrew's proudly presents "Viva Christo Rey", the first in a series of organ concerts featuring our new Peragallo organ, OPUS 762. The featured organist will be Carlos "Chuckie" Alberto Ibay. Chuckie has stunned audiences all over the world with his talent as a brilliant classical pianist and heroic tenor who crosses musical genres. Deprived of sight since birth, Chuckie has broken every obstacle in his life and has come to appreciate the gift that God has given him by sharing his talent with others. His motto is "Let God's work show forth." Tickets are $100/person, $150/couple ($500 max/ family) and must be purchased in advance. Visit www.st-andrew.org/organ for ticket information and sponsorship opportunities.

#SHOUTYOURADOPTION

November is National Adoption Month! We invite you to #ShoutYourAdoption!!!! Send in a 200-400 word blog, a photo with a few sentences for social media post or a 1-3 minute video. Questions to Consider: Were you called to adopt? Were you called to place your child? How did you hear that call and what led you to answer? Why did YOU choose to work with a faith based agency? How has your faith played a role in your adoption journey? How is your faith connected to your identity as a person or family? How does your faith shape how you view adoption? How has the agency's faith practices or approach impacted your journey, if at all? Please send all submissions to Meaghan.lane@ccda.net so we can share them on our various platforms throughout Virginia.
