PASTOR'S MESSAGE

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus, praise be Jesus Christ now & forever! The month of July bids us to remember a man named St. Gaspar del Bufalo, who from Italy in 1815, founded a band of mission preachers dedicated to the most Blood of Jesus. During Mass, the priest says "This is the chalice of my blood of the new and eternal covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the remission of sin. Do this in memory of me!" Unfortunately today, only 30% of Catholics believe in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ; body, blood, soul & divinity. This is a scandal in and of itself. Moses told the Jews to put blood on their doorposts from the Passover Lamb. Read Rev. 12:11, "without the shedding of blood, there is no forgiveness of sin!" Do we cover ourselves in the Blood of Jesus? (Also see Hebrews 9:11 -12, Rev. 7:14 and c.c.c. #2260.) Please consider in your own devotion a simple prayer to the Blood of Jesus Christ, "Father in heaven, may we all be cleansed by the saving blood of Jesus Christ, may our consciences be purged of dead works! May the water and blood that gushed from the side of Jesus create a protecting fountain of grace, one which flows directly from the throne of God to us. Come Lord and fill us with your Holy Spirit!" Please consider Adoration, the chaplet of Divine Mercy and the rosary. Also, St. Catherine of Sienna, St. John Chrysostom, St. Mary Magdalene de'Pazzi, St. Maximillian Kolbe, St. Augustine & St. Gaspar del Bufalo, pray for us!

Fr. Holmes

GOSPEL MEDITATION
A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 11, 2021

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel — and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the "road less traveled." Imagine those first disciples going out and into people's homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. If we are really interested in seeing God's vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence.

If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That's a risk God asks us to take.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION ON LECTIONARY READINGS

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

What We Carry From Town to Town

In my experience, there are two kinds of people: the folks who kick off their shoes the second they walk through the door, and the ones who don't.

People can feel strongly about this on both sides. The main thrust of the Shoes-Off Brigade seems to be this: we track a lot of weird stuff on the soles of our feet. Little reminders of all the places we've been — whether it's a private home or a public bathroom — cling to our shoes long after we leave.

This same theory applies to our spiritual lives. As human beings and as disciples, we visit a lot of figurative towns and pick up a lot of figurative dust. Sinfulness. Shame. Defeat. Anger. Fear. Doubt. No matter how hard we try to keep free of it, these things have a way of attaching themselves to us, sometimes without us even noticing. We need to take a good look at what unhelpful and unconstructive baggage from our past we're tracking into our present and future encounters.

What is the "town" God is asking you to visit today in His name? Is it a tough conversation with a friend, a brief witness to a stranger in the checkout line, a call to be present to someone in your family? Before you go, remember, shake off the dust. Don't let a past disappointment constrain you. Don't allow yesterday's failures or burdens to keep you from the joy of today's witness, whatever form it might take.
