BE NOT AFRAID

Bob Dufford, SJ

Verse 1

1. You shall cross the bar-ren des-ert, but you shall not die of
 1. thirst. You shall wan-der far in safe-ty though you do not know the
 1. way. You shall speak your words in for-eign lands and all will un-der-
 1. stand. You shall see the face of God and live. to Refrain

Refrain

Be not a-fraid. I go be-fore you al-ways. Come fol-low me, and I will give you rest. 1, 2 to Vss 2, 3 Final 2

Verse 2

2. If you pass through rag-ing wa-ters in the sea, you shall not
 2. drown. If you walk a-mid the burn-ing flames, you shall not be
 2. harmed. If you stand be-fore the pow'r of hell and death is at your
 2. side, know that I am with you through it all. to Refrain

Verse 3

3. Bless-ed are your poor, for the king-dom shall be theirs. Blest are you that
 3. weep and mourn, for one day you shall laugh. And if wick-ed tongues in-sult and
 3. hate you all be-cause of me, bless-ed, bless-ed are you! to Refrain

Glory to God in the highest,
 And on earth peace to people of goodwill.

We praise you,
 we bless you,
 we adore you,
 we glorify you,
 we give you thanks
 for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ,
 Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God,
 Son of the Father,
 you take away the sins
 of the world,
 have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins
 of the world,
 receive our prayer;
 you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.

For you alone are
 the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father,
 Amen.

1st Reading - Ezekiel 2:2-5

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel

As the LORD spoke to me, the spirit entered into me and set me on my feet,
and I heard the one who was speaking say to me:
Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, rebels who have rebelled against me;
they and their ancestors have revolted against me to this very day.

Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you.
But you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD GOD!
And whether they heed or resist—for they are a rebellious house—
they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial—Psalm 27:1, 4, 13-14

Music: Scott Soper © 1993 OCP.

The Lord is my light, the Lord is my rock, my salvation.

*The Lord is my refuge, guarding my life;
of whom should I be afraid?*

*Only one thing I ask:
may I live in the house of my Lord.
I shall gaze on God's goodness all of my days;
I shall live in the shelter of God.*

*I believe I shall see the goodness of God in the land of the living.
Be strong, wait for the Lord.*

2nd Reading - 2 Corinthians 12:7-10

A Reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters:

That I, Paul, might not become too elated, because of the abundance of the revelations,
a thorn in the flesh was given to me, an angel of Satan,
to beat me, to keep me from being too elated.

Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it might leave me,

but he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you,
for power is made perfect in weakness."

I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me.

Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints,
for the sake of Christ;

for when I am weak, then I am strong.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Music: Owen Alstott © 1977, 1990 OCP.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, for he sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor.

Gospel - Mark 6:1-6a

The Lord be with you. And with your Spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples.

When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished.

They said, "Where did this man get all this?

What kind of wisdom has been given him?

What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!

Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon?

And are not his sisters here with us?"

And they took offense at him.

Jesus said to them,

"A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house."

So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them.

He was amazed at their lack of faith.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, (bow) who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

from the Pastor

Fr. John J. Mullee

As we celebrate Independence Day, let us never forget all that made this day possible. Please say a special prayer for those who have fought for our freedom, especially the freedom to live out our faith.

This year, Monday is the day designated by the government for companies to award their workers a paid holiday for the 4th of July. The Parish Office will be closed on Monday, July 5th.

May you have a restful and peaceful time of prayer with your families.

Please keep the Stegmaier family in your prayers - we celebrated the funeral Mass for Carol last Thursday- Rest in Peace Carol!

"As we've walked with the apostles in the Gospels in recent weeks, we've witnessed Jesus command the wind and sea, and order a little girl to arise from the dead.

But he seems to meet his match in his hometown of Nazareth. Today's Gospel is blunt: "He was not able to perform any mighty deed there."

Why not? Because of the people's lack of faith...

Jesus will work no mighty deeds in our lives unless we abandon ourselves to him in faith. Blessed then are those who take no offense in him (see Luke 7:23). Instead, we must look upon him with the eyes of servants — knowing that the son of Mary is also the Lord enthroned in the heavens" (Dr Scott Hahn)

Matthew 25

Then they will answer and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?' He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.'

Exhuming Our Standards from the Dirt

An article about the benefits of swearing in the workplace was posted on LinkedIn recently. Many who read the piece applauded its message: that foul language can sharpen important points and is actually a sign of intelligence.

But people of faith might argue that cussing in the workplace is simply surrender—and a sign of larger problems in the corporate culture. That surrender to our base instincts once inspired New York City to adopt what its citizens once knew as "Broken Windows Policing." This is a criminological theory stating that small but visible signs of crime, anti-social behavior, and civil disorder in a neighborhood, create an environment that encourages further crime and disorder, including serious crimes. In this Sunday's first reading from Ezekiel, it's clear, that attitude of surrender was at the root of this prophet's mission: Are we called to be 21st century prophets? Just because we live many centuries after the Bible's prophets doesn't mean God doesn't call for them anymore. But the price of standing up as one of them these days can be just as painful, as Paul testifies. It can inflict the pain of being an outsider—of being on the receiving end of verbally-tossed stones. Nevertheless, under the right conditions, we can hear the Spirit speaking as clearly to us today as Paul describes it: He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." Both Paul and his 21st century brothers and sisters have the same role model: Jesus. When Jesus stood up against what was popular in the eyes of man but ugly to God's eyes, the attitude of the ungodly was equally universal: "Who are you to tell us what's right or wrong?" They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands! Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." What was true in the fields of Jerusalem 2000 years ago is true of the 21st century soil on which the world relies for sustenance: If you start sowing weeds among the seed, eventually there won't be room for anything nourishing to grow.
