1st Reading - 1 Kings 17:10-16

A Reading from the first Book of Kings

In those days, Elijah the prophet went to Zarephath. As he arrived at the entrance of the city, a widow was gathering sticks there; he called out to her, "Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink." She left to get it, and he called out after her, "Please bring along a bit of bread." She answered, "As the LORD, your God, lives, I have nothing baked; there is only a handful of flour in my jar and a little oil in my jug. Just now I was collecting a couple of sticks, to go in and prepare something for myself and my son; when we have eaten it, we shall die."

Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid. Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me.

Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son. For the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth.'" She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well; the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the LORD had foretold through Elijah.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial: Psalm 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

Music © 1977, 1990 Owen Alstott

*The LORD keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed,
gives food to the hungry.
The LORD sets captives free.*

*The LORD gives sight to the blind.
The LORD raises up those who were bowed down;
the LORD loves the just.
The LORD protects strangers.*

*The fatherless and the widow he sustains,
but the way of the wicked he thwarts.
The LORD shall reign forever;
your God, O Zion, through all generations.
Alleluia.*

2nd Reading - Hebrews 9:24-28

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands, a copy of the true one, but heaven itself, that he might now appear before God on our behalf. Not that he might offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters each year into the sanctuary with blood that is not his own; if that were so, he would have had to suffer repeatedly from the foundation of the world. But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice. Just as it is appointed that human beings die once, and after this the judgment, so also Christ, offered once to take away the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to take away sin but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel - Mark 12:38-44

The Lord be with you. And with your Spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Glory to you, O Lord.

In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds,
"Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues,

and places of honor at banquets.

They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers.

They will receive a very severe condemnation."

He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury.

Many rich people put in large sums.

A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents.

Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them,
"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury.

For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had,
her whole livelihood."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, (bow) who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

Fr. John J. Mullee

Dear friends in Christ- Please pray for the Wenzel family. Tom Wenzel passed away from Covid. He was the North American marketing director for EWTN for over twenty years. I enjoyed our conversations when I would see him at various events around the country when he was manning the EWTN booth.

Mary Healy (professor of Sacred Scripture and a member of the Pontifical Biblical Commission) offers a profound reflection on the poor widow: "Jesus' comments on the destitute widow are an example of the divine logic that overturns human ways of thinking...Who contributes most to the flourishing of the Church today? Perhaps it is those who are overlooked and insignificant in human terms. This point brings to mind the story of the 3rd- century martyr Saint Lawrence, who was archdeacon of Rome and distributor of the Church's alms. In 258, by decree of the emperor, the pope and six deacons were beheaded, leaving Lawrence the ranking Church official in Rome. The city prefect summoned Lawrence and demanded that he hand over the treasures of the Church. Lawrence responded that the Church was indeed very rich, and asked for a little time to gather its treasures. He then went all over the city seeking out the poor and infirm. On the third day, he gathered together a great crown of orphans, widows, and people who were lame, blind, maimed, or suffering various diseases, and invited the prefect to come and see "the wondrous riches of our God.""

MINISTRY TO THE SICK & HOMEBOUND

For visits to Parishioners in Hospitals, Nursing facilities or homebound, please let us know if you or someone you know is receiving some medical care and would like a pastoral visit. We want to be with you during these challenging times. Please call the rectory and leave a message for Sr. Betty.

Have you ever thought about becoming Catholic? Have you been attending Mass with your spouse, a friend, or family member and would like to learn more about joining the faith and sharing in the full sacramental life of the Church?

R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is the process by which non-Catholics journey towards sacramental initiation within the Catholic Church.

RCIA is a learning and loving process in which one walks with members of our faith community towards a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and His Body, the Church.

Contact Fr. John in the Parish Office for more information.

Remembering all of our beloved deceased especially all those remembered in our Book of Life.

Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.
Amen.

Freeing Ourselves from Fear's Lies

One thing that hasn't changed in this world since Jesus walked among us is humanity's mastery of untruths (also known as B.S. artistry in the worlds of politics and marketing). A recent article by a business-to-business writer defines such an artist as "someone intentionally or unintentionally, consciously or unconsciously, communicating something with little regard for the truth, genuine evidence or established knowledge."

Many have more faith in their own lies than in matters of substance—like the truth of Jesus. In fact some believe devoutly that Jesus was King of the Liars. They love challenging his truths, as Pontius Pilate did at Jesus's trial.

So imagine Jesus facing Pilate before being sentenced to death for, as witnesses testified, claiming to be a King. In his effort to detect a lie, Pilate asks: "Are you a King?" Jesus turns the tables. "YOU say I am a king." Then he explains HIS concept of kingship: to testify to the truth. This confuses Pilate, because he couldn't conceive of this as a purpose fit for a king. Like the phony politician he was, Pilate lacked any meaningful connection to truth and asks, "What is truth?"

Jesus doesn't answer in words, but for the first time, Pilate gets his answer via the truth of Jesus' royal bearing. He then testifies to the accusing crowd, "I find no guilt in him."

Why didn't Jesus need words to define truth for Pilate? Because like our Teacher, his students ARE God's living words. Jesus told his disciples he was the way, the truth and the life, and that whoever believes in him will do the works he does—and even greater ones.

That truth seems like lies to a world so steeped in its own lies that, like Pilate, it can't tell the truth. But the truth Jesus teaches is a faith-based light our lives project so others wandering in darkness can find their way along our shared earthly journey—without concern for how or when that path will end.

Sunday's readings offer examples of lives that shine the light of divine truth.

The gospel (Mk 12:38-44) finds Jesus seated across from the treasury—the place where people paid funds entrusted to the priests for distribution to the community's needy. He sees a poor widow deposit two small coins, worth a few cents. This is one of those rare moments when one of the people he's here to save amazes him and inspires a moment of truth.

"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

This fearless woman was among those whom such contributions were meant to help. But her faith was invested in the truth of God's greatest commandments (love of God and neighbor), and for Jesus, it made her stand out from among the B.S.s he called hypocrites—much as the poor widow of Sunday's first reading (1 Kgs 17:10-16) did in the prophet Elijah's time. She ended up sharing the last scraps of everything she had with that prophet. Her fearlessness was fed by the faith Elijah offered her that "The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth."

Liars live in fear of drought and death. By doing and saying anything and everything to escape their mortality, they die a thousand times. Those who live by the faith Paul describes in Sunday's letter to the Hebrews realize we only die once (Heb 9:24-28). So while waiting to see what comes after that, we might as well live the truth that sets us free in this life.
