HYMN Alleluia! Raise the Gospel

Bernadette Farrell

Alleluia! Alleluia! Raise the Gospel over the earth!!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Peace and justice bringing to birth.

Blessed those whose hearts are gentle.
Blessed those whose spirits are strong.
Blessed those who choose to bring forth right where there is wrong. (Refrain)

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Acts 9:26-31

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, “Get up. I myself am also a human being.” Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, “In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him.”

While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, “Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?” He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 98:1, 2-3, 3-4

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done wondrous deeds;
His right hand has won victory for him, his holy arm.

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

The LORD has made his salvation known:
in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice.
He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation by our God.
Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands; break into song; sing praise.

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

SECOND READING: 1 John 4:7-10

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have not loved God, but that he loved us and sent his son as expiation for our sins.

GOSPEL: John 15:9-17

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete.

This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I now longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord

(all bow at the following words)

Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
Born of the Virgin Mary,

Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried:
He descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty;
From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

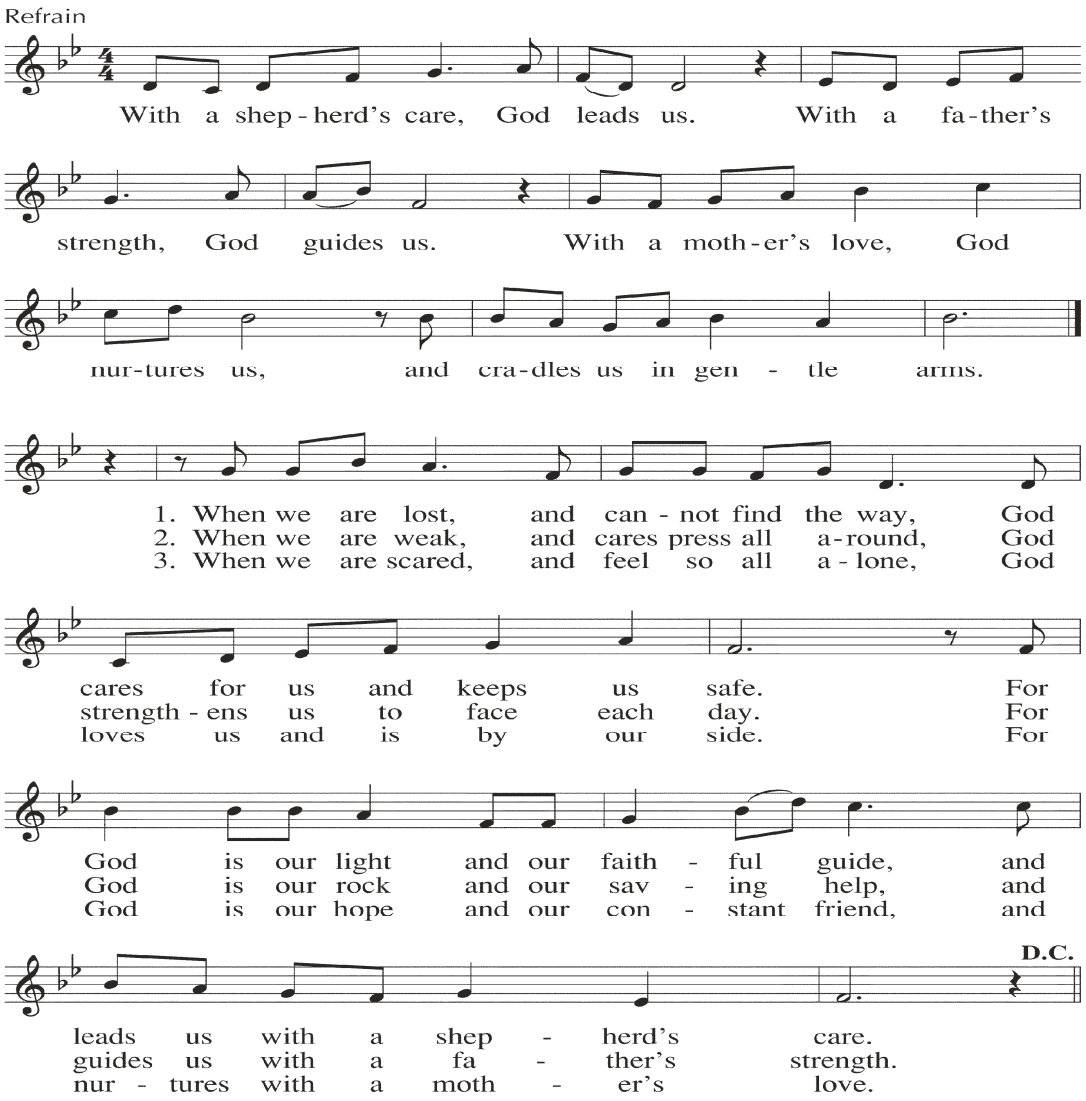
COMMUNION

With a Shepherd's Care

James Chepponis



MOTHER'S DAY BLESSING

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan,and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

O glorious prince St. Michael,
chief and commander of the heavenly hosts,
guardian of souls, vanquisher of rebel spirits,
servant in the house of the Divine King
and our admirable conductor,
you who shine with excellence and superhuman virtue deliver us from all evil, who turn to you with confidence and enable us by your gracious protection to serve God more and more faithfully every day.

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Great feast that Easter is, one day (even three days) is insufficient to celebrate the fullness of the mystery of the resurrection. So, as Christians, we keep a fifty-day-long festival, punctuated by the Solemnity of the Ascension of our Lord - the fortieth day of Easter. The feast of the Ascension, like a prism, helps us focus the wondrous colors of the Easter spectrum.

These images from the Ascension liturgy give us a sense of the hope and joy that color this feast: “Christ’s ascension is our glory and hope.” “The joy of the resurrection and the ascension renews the whole world.” “Where Christ has gone, we hope to follow.” “Christ has passed beyond our sight, not to abandon us, but to be our hope.” “Christ was taken up to heaven to claim for us a share in His divine life.”

If we have been united with Christ through baptism into His death and resurrection, we are surely united with Him in the transformation and redemption of His humanity. What we celebrate, however, is not only a past or future event. We are given glimpses of our glorious destiny even now. So, feet firmly planted on earth, the community gathers to rejoice in the life we share with the risen Lord.

On this fortieth day of Easter, we are told to stop gazing at the clouds and start spreading the good news. The resurrection of Christ didn’t end with the Lord Jesus. All creation is ascending into glory. All the universe is becoming divine.

ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL RETREAT

The Annual High School Winter Retreat, themed “Thrive”, has been rescheduled and will take place on May 22, 2021 from 9:00 AM-9:00 PM at the Laurelville Retreat Center (941 Laurelville Lane, Mt. Pleasant, PA.) The retreat is open to all 9th through 12th grade students and provides an opportunity for our young people to take time out of their busy lives to slow down and be with God for one faith-filled day.

Prior registration and waiver signatures are required. Contact Sara Octave for more information.

YOUNG WOMEN’S RETREAT

The Diocese of Greensburg Office of Faith, Family, and Discipleship invites young women in grades 8-12 to participate in this virtual retreat on Sunday, May 29, from 7:00 PM-10:00 PM.

“BELOVED” is a time for young women of God to stop, put down the craziness of their lives, be reminded of their belovedness, and be refreshed in the Lord.

Contact Sara Octave for more information.

May 8 - Feast of the Apparition of the Archangel Michael

Today we celebrate an ancient feast that commemorates the appearance of the Archangel Michael in Mount Gargano, Italy. There a shrine was built on the site which welcomes thousands of pilgrims every year, who seek to honor the great Archangel.

Around the grounds of Mount Saint Peter Parish, there are several works of art. But the statue of St. Michael the Archangel, which has now been added, takes on particular importance, in its location as well as the meaning it expresses. Located above the grotto and overlooking the city of New Kensington, we invoke St. Michael's intercession to deliver us from all violence, injustice, and the current pandemic.

In fact it is not just a celebratory work but an invitation to reflection and prayer.

Michael — which means "Who is like God" — is the champion of the primacy of God, of His transcendence and power. Michael struggles to restore divine justice and defends the People of God from His enemies, above all from the enemy par excellence, the devil. St. Michael wins because in him, there is the God who acts.

This sculpture reminds us then that evil is overcome, and the sword can be sheathed, because salvation was accomplished once and for all in the blood of Christ. Though the devil always tries to disfigure the face of the Archangel and that of humanity, God is stronger. It is His victory and His salvation that is offered to all. We are not alone on the journey or in the trials of life, we are accompanied and supported by the Angels of God, who offer, so to speak, their wings to help us overcome so many dangers, in order to fly high compared to those realities that can weigh down our lives or drag us down.

Since the Middle Ages, St. Michael has also been invoked as a ready helper in times of need, especially when various plagues and diseases took the lives of so many throughout Europe. We ask his intercession now, to help defeat the COVID-19 virus that has claimed the lives of so many throughout the world.

May our devotion to St. Michael help to make us stronger and more courageous in making space for God in our lives to always defeat evil with good. We ask him to protect and take care of us, so that a life of grace grows stronger in each of us every day.

Starting this week, we will pray the Prayer to St. Michael after Mass to ask his intercession in our struggle against the evils of our own time and place.

In June, we will dedicate the statue of St. Michael the Archangel in honor of all First Responders, asking God to protect them and keep them safe in their important work, and in memory of Erik Mangieri, Derek Kotecki, and Brian Shaw who lost their lives in the line of duty.

Parish Advisory Committee

NKCC Mission

As members of the Roman Catholic community of the New Kensington area, we are responsible for and committed to living and sharing our faith as we form disciples through strong and vibrant worship, lifelong faith formation, community outreach, and faithful stewardship.

To advance the mission of Jesus Christ we will honor the traditions of Mt. St. Peter, St. Joseph and St. Mary Parishes and work together as one community of faith.
