St. Hilary of Poitiers

Born a pagan, St. Hilary (c. 315-c. 317) studied philosophy and the meaning of life, eventually making his way through the bible. He became a convert and was appointed bishop of Poitiers in 353.

Sometimes referred to as the Hammer of the Ariens, St. Hilary defended the Nicene Creed against a popular heresy, Arianism. He was exiled to Phrygia for opposing Roman emperor Constantius II, who preferred the heresy which denied Christ's divinity. From Phrygia, St. Hilary fought with his pen, zealously writing against the heresy.

Eventually he was allowed to return to Poitiers, but did so by a circuitous route, preaching against Arianism all the way. St. Hilary was likely the first writer of hymns in the West, his writings on the Trinity, Psalms and Gospel of Matthew survive today. St. Hilary was created Doctor of the Church, a title given to those who provided important contributions to theology and doctrine, in 1851 by Pope Pius IX.

Father Ken's Notes...

As we start the new year of 2022, I am reminded of Psalm 91:4. Carry this Psalm verse with you throughout this year and after, it will help you get through whatever trials and struggles you face this new year.

"HE WILL COVER YOU WITH HIS FEATHERS, AND UNDER HIS WINGS YOU WILL FIND REFUGE." Psalm 91:4

In the year 2018 after a forest fire in Yellowstone National Park, forest rangers began their trek up a mountain to assess the inferno's damage. One ranger found a bird literally petrified in ashes, perched statuesquely on the ground at the base of a tree. Somewhat sickened by the eerie sight, he knocked over the bird with a stick.

When he gently struck it, three tiny chicks scurried from under their dead mother's wings. The loving mother, keenly aware of impending disaster, had carried her offspring to the base of the tree and gathered them under her wings, instinctively knowing that the toxic smoke would rise. She could have flown to safety but had refused to abandon her babies.

Then the blaze had arrived, the heat had scorched her small body, the mother had remained steadfast...because she had been willing to die, so those under the cover of her wings would live.

"He will cover you with His feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge." Psalm 91:4

Father Ken

MAILBOX MINISTRY

Express Yourself!

Mailbox Ministry is returning on Monday, January 10 from 6:30 PM-9:00 PM in the MSP Disciples' Center, and is open to everyone. No skills are required except to have a love of creating/crafting to make beautiful cards to send to parishioners, especially to those residing in nursing facilities. This is a fun way to blend faith and fellowship for the benefit of others.

HARVEST FOR HAITI COLLECTION

Our monthly collection for our sisters and brothers in Haiti will be taken after all Masses this weekend.

Proceeds benefit Rich in Mercy used for educational scholarships to children from Haiti. Please be generous.

FISH FRY MEETING

A meeting in regards to the 2022 MSP Fish Fry will be held on Wednesday,

January 12 at 7:00 PM in Peter's Table in the MSP Disciples' Center.

FAMILY PHOTOS

Family photos that were on display during the month of November are available for pickup in the Parish Office.

2021 TAX STATEMENTS

Annual statements of contributions will be mailed to all parishioners by the end of the month. Thank you for your generous support during 2021.

THANK YOU FRUIT BASKET VOLUNTEERS

"On a chilly and rainy Saturday in December, we had an excellent turn-out of volunteers to help deliver Christmas fruit baskets to our elderly and homebound parishioners. With this being the first year delivering to members from all three parishes, it was a huge task. We were in awe of how many of you showed up that morning, eager to bring cheer to those in need.

Thank you again and may God bless you in this new year."

Nancy Matteuzzi and the St. Anthony Guild

Thoughts for the New Year

THINK (Look before you leap!) Do I think before I react:

- when I read an email or newspaper or magazine or book?
- when I listen to somebody else in person or through the internet or on the radio or TV?
- when I watch a movie or video or play?
- when I chat, gossip, criticize, praise, or advocate?
- when I go to a rally or sporting event or assembly or religious service?

THINK CRITICALLY (Does it make sense?)

- Is what I see or hear fact or fiction?
- Does it make sense based on what I have experienced or know or believe or have been taught?
- Does it stand up to testing? What would happen if it were put into practice?

THINK FREELY (What am I afraid of?)

- Do I just echo or relay other people's ideas or words?
- Do I trust my own judgements?
- Do I know enough about what I'm talking about?
- Do I have the courage to face the consequences of what I say or do?
- Am I afraid of disagreement or negative reaction or criticism or dismissal?

THINK REALISTICALLY ("Beautiful dreamer, wake unto me")

- Do I confuse the impossible ideal with the real?
- Do I remember that living in the flawed human situation includes me, too?
- Do I remember that it's "better to light one candle than to curse the darkness"?
- Does practice make perfect or just make us better or neither?

THINK OUTSIDE THE BOX

- Do I realize that there never has been, is, or will be a person exactly, 100 percent, like me?
- Do I realize that I may have to face or deal with a situation that in some ways is different from everybody else's knowledge or experience?
- Do I realize that no one, short of God, knows all the right answers?
- Do I realize that just because something never happened before doesn't mean it cannot happen now?
- When I come up with a new idea, recommendation or proposal for a solution to a problem, do I carefully explore its consequences and test it out before I decide if it's right or good?
- Can I live without other people's recognition or approval or esteem or applause?
- Can I live with other people's criticism or misunderstanding or rejection or condemnation or ostracization?

THINK HUMBLLY

- Do I realize or sometimes forget that I am a creation?
- Do I remember to seek to discern the designs and will of my creator?
- Do I have a fixed set of values? If so, what is their source?
- How do my thoughts, word, and deeds stand up in relation to my fundamental values?
- Do I remember that even those who explain, teach, or preach about the designs and will of God have their limitations and imperfections?
