FROM FATHER POGGEMEYER

Dear Parishioners, +JMJ

We are blessed to have Bishop Daniel Thomas visit us this weekend to confirm our eighth graders at the 11am Sunday Mass. Bishop Thomas has not ceased to work tirelessly for our Diocese, even from the very day of his installation back in October of 2014. It is an honor to have him with us!

Congratulations to our youth who are being confirmed by Bishop Daniel Thomas this weekend at the Sunday, 11:00 AM Mass! May all of our newly confirmed truly strive to allow the Holy Spirit to inspire them in all of their decisions! You remember the four intellectual gifts connected to Confirmation, right? Understanding, counsel, wisdom, knowledge. Without getting too specific about each gift, I'll simply say that these gifts allow the Christian to consider speculatively the things of heaven and the things of earth, and then apply that thought practically to concrete life situations. The Holy Spirit truly makes a difference in our lives! Then the other three gifts associated with Confirmation are piety, fortitude and fear of the Lord. Piety has to do with our devotion to the Lord, but traditionally it also was understood to support our loyalty to family. Fortitude allows us to "choose the good", especially when faced with some opposition. Finally, fear of the Lord helps us to reverence the Lord appropriately and avoid sins that displease Him.

On another topic, we had another brainstorming session with a large group of people interested in the future of St Wendelin's festival. One of the first questions raised was, "What now will be the mission of the festival, since we don't have schools to support?" Well, now it seems the mission is primarily to build community among ourselves, and then to reach out to the local community. If we make a little bit of money as well, that would be a fine thing. In fact, after the meeting, somebody suggested that any money raised above and beyond the costs of sponsoring the event could go to our parish support of the Catholic schools our children now attend. I really liked that idea.

After discussing the various options that had been suggested since this past fall, it seemed everybody was most supportive of having St Wendelin's Parish add a brats-beer-band component to the Farmer's Market and Heritage Day that is planned in Fostoria for Saturday, August 21st, from 11:00 AM until perhaps 10:00 PM or 11:00 PM that night. Our part would be set up downtown where the Latino festival used to happen. The brats would be cooked back behind the parish rectory, however. Perhaps parents and schoolchildren from Tiffin Calvert and Fremont Bishop Hoffman could also each add something, such as selling drinks and desserts? In our pastoral team meeting this past week, we discussed planning an evangelistic speaker the weekend after the mini-fest; and at the mini-fest we could hand out fliers for that evangelistic event. We could also hand out bulletins, along with a social media summary page that tells people how to stay in touch with us. (I also came up with the idea of tucking a wallet-sized confession pamphlet under the bun with each brat we sell :) That would enhance the mission aspect of the event. Perhaps this small event will evolve into something a bit larger that is even centered on our own campus? That, very briefly, is what we are now exploring as a possibility. With our staff now significantly reduced from what it used to be, we cannot run this even out of the parish office. The most important thing that now has to happen is for volunteers to step forward to run the event. Is there a couple that would chair the whole event? (Remember it is only for one day. It is greatly reduced from the huge festivals of the past.)

In addition to the overall chairpersons, we would need the following chairs: Set-up Crew; Sound System; ID Booth; Ticket Booth; Clean-up Crew; Mission Shaping Crew (touches that help us reach out through this event with the Faith). We already have people who have volunteered to chair: Electrical Crew; Beer Tent; Brat Cooking Team; Brat Serving. In order to make a decision about the feasibility of this event, we do need people to step forward ASAP. In casual conversations, and out of this meeting, it seems we have enough people to volunteer for the day itself; but we need a handful of people to volunteer for these chairs. IS THE LORD CALLING YOU??!! Please contact Tami Honse at the office to say "YES!"

Have a blessed week!

In cordibus Iesu, Mariae, et Josephus,

Father Poggemeyer

CATECHISM CORNER

"Through the power of the Holy Spirit we take part in Christ's Passion by dying to sin, and in his Resurrection by being born to a new life; we are members of his Body which is the Church, branches grafted onto the vine which is himself: '[God] gave himself to us through his Spirit. By the participation of the Spirit, we become communicants in the divine nature. . . . For this reason, those in whom the Spirit dwells are divinized.'" (CCC 1988)

"THE WAY WE KNOW THAT HE REMAINS IN US IS FROM THE SPIRIT HE GAVE US." (1 JOHN 3:24)

This Sunday, Bishop Daniel Thomas will confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on 13 of our young parishioners. What a beautiful Sunday to reflect on the incredible gift of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit that was first given to us at our baptism and is strengthened through Confirmation! We hear from the first letter of St. John that we know that God remains in us because of the gift of the Spirit He has given to us. We can know for certain that God is present with us because we are confident that He has kept His promise to send us the Spirit of Truth and remain with us until the end of the age. But how will others know that God is with us, that His Spirit lives within us?

When we welcome, unpack, and submit to the gift of the Holy Spirit in our lives, we will live in the fruits of the Holy Spirit: love (charity), joy, peace, patience, faithfulness, and gentleness, to name a few. We see these fruits throughout our readings this weekend. We see that the working of the Holy Spirit in the Acts of the Apostles (through the Apostles themselves) produces peace and faithfulness, and leads many to turn towards Christ and be converted. Jesus reminds us in the Gospel that we can bear fruit only when we remain in Him, and we remain in Him through His Spirit.

We pray this weekend in a particular way for the 13 young people who will receive a greater outpouring of the Holy Spirit, that they might produce abundant fruit through the working of the Holy Spirit in their lives, but please consider also taking time this weekend to reflect on the gift of the Holy Spirit that has also been granted to you, personally. Have you welcomed, unpacked, and submitted fully to the working of the Spirit in your own life? Has your life produced the fruits of the Spirit? Are those you come in contact with each day able to witness the working of the Holy Spirit in your life? Together we pray, Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and enkindle in us the fire of Your love! Send forth Your Spirit, and we shall be created, and You shall renew the face of the earth!

"Why Be Catholic" Event featuring Bishop Thomas and Jason Evert

In an era of opinions parading as truth, polarizing politics, and disheartening stories of failures in the Church, can the Truth be found? Does it even exist? This ache we all feel DOES indeed have an answer. Whether you're 14, or 114, a strong Catholic, anti-Catholic, agnostic, or atheist, if you're searching for more, the Truth is waiting for you to take the first step. Join us for a soul awakening event. Doors open at 6:30 PM.

Any 8th-12th graders who would like to attend with a group from our parish, please contact Jessica Pehmoeller by Friday, May 14th at 4:00 PM!

"My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?" becomes "I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people." What a difference a few days can make! Our responsorial psalm this weekend is Psalm 22, which we also heard five short weeks ago on Palm Sunday. This psalm is divided into four stanzas: the first two are lament and the second two are thanksgiving. On Palm Sunday, we heard verses from the lament stanzas, which begin with the psalmist's cry of feeling abandoned and rejected in verses 2-12. Then after a very poignant description of the psalmist's sufferings in verses 13-22, on this Fifth Sunday of Easter, we hear from the thanksgiving stanzas (23-32). This praise and thanksgiving begins with the psalmist's own community, then moves to all God's people, and finally widens to all the ends of the earth including those who have already died and generations yet unborn (vss. 30-32).

Even in intense suffering, the psalmist proclaims and believes that God will deliver the one who cries to him. In this season of Easter, we recognize that without the cross, there can be no resurrection. Perhaps we have felt or said at various low times: "My God, why have you abandoned me?" only to realize later he had a resurrection moment planned the whole time. We pray that when we experience crosses, we have the faith and confidence of the psalmist.

This weekend's readings show moments of resurrection after the pain of the cross. Saul (now Paul), who had been persecuting the Church, is finally welcomed by the community. In the Gospel, Jesus says that his Father takes away every branch on the Vine which does not bear fruit and prunes the others to bear more. Pruning can be painful for us because we usually do not want to let go of whatever is not bearing fruit. Letting God cut away these dying or dead branches of us can certainly be "cross" moments, but the confidence in new life and greater fruit are always worth the suffering. My God, my God, thank you for your faithfulness and love!

ANTIPHONS FOR THIS WEEK

Entrance: cf. Psalm 98:1-2
O sing a new song to the Lord
for he has worked wonders;
in the sight of the nations
he has shown his deliverance, alleluia.

Communion: cf. John 15:1, 5
I am the true vine
and you are the branches, says the Lord.
Whoever remains in me, and I in him,
bears fruit in plenty, alleluia.
