SAINTS ON THE EUCHARIST

"How can this come about?" Mary asked. "The Holy Spirit will come upon you," the angel answered, "and the power of the Most High will cover you with its shadow." And now you are the one who puts the question: "How can bread become Christ and wine His Blood?" I answer: "The power of the Holy Spirit will be at work to give us a marvel which surpasses understanding." ~ St. John Damascene

FROM FATHER POGGEMEYER

Dear Parishioners, +JMJ

Please note on our social media and in recent bulletins the various summer evangelistic, catechetical and fun opportunities for families – even for children – which Jessica Pehmoeller has scheduled. Summer Family Days will happen on Tuesdays, beginning at 9 AM, with Eucharistic adoration, and then food, fun and games – outside if weather permits. At 11 AM on Tuesdays, there will be ALPHA for youth, grades 7–9. This is a great program to help them discuss some pretty deep topics of life and faith at their own level. Then you will see The Search advertised. This is a very fine series of video presentations prepared by the Augustine Institute. They help people explore deep topics of life and faith. This is a great tool for inviting somebody you know who could use a boost in the Faith life, or even outright evangelization, because they have lost the faith. (BTW, I too still need some evangelization!) Who is the Lord asking you to invite? Who do you know who needs greater Faith, Hope and Love in their life?

On another note, I met last week with our Hispanic Life Team. Now that we are able to have Masses with no restrictions, we are going to bring back the Spanish Mass. However, we are only bringing it back once each month. We are basically going to follow the same model that I had for the past six years at my last parish. There was no Hispanic outreach when I arrived. There we had one Mass a month, especially to serve migrants who were working on the various farms. We always had a dinner after that Mass; and we will do the same here. The Spanish Mass will be at 12:30 PM on the fourth Sunday of the month.

For the other Sundays, however, I hope that we can still add a couple of things that will make Spanish language speakers feel more comfortable, even at our English Mass. As soon as I can arrange it, we will have bilingual missalettes at the back of the church for anybody who would like to use one. Then, if I see in the congregation somebody who I know could benefit from a summary of my homily in Spanish, I will add a couple paragraphs of summary in Spanish, right at the end of my English homily. Those are a couple very simple changes that I know were very helpful in my last parish. They kept Spanish language speakers connected to us, knowing they have a home in our parish.

Obviously, there will be people in the congregation who do not know what I am saying for those two minutes in Spanish. But, I beg everybody's patience. At my last parish, the Hispanics added so much to us, that I couldn't imagine not having them around! I couldn't imagine making this tiny effort to make them feel more at home! Also, there were quite a number of people in the congregation who would come up to me and tell me that the Spanish helped them remember something they had studied years ago. Plus, I know that most of our high school kids who are going to college take some Spanish classes. This can be a great exercise for them, trying to understand what I say… And, with the benefit of having heard the whole thing in English first! It's sort of like having a real life experience, rather than just a classroom experience of Spanish.

Here is why I am doing the Spanish Mass only once per month: Given the number of funerals we have, often on Saturdays, the Spanish Mass often will be the fifth Mass of the weekend for me. That is plenty of Masses for one priest on a weekend! Even four is plenty! Somebody might ask, “Can't we call substitute priests in for the other weekends?” Diocesan guidelines expect the pastor to schedule only the Masses that he can handle at his parish. With the shortage of priests in the Diocese (and given the numbers in attendance at our Spanish Masses in these last number of years), it's simply not fair to tie up a substitute priest every weekend at our parish, even if there are some priests out there who can celebrate the Mass in Spanish.

There is a bit of a fond homecoming for me in the Hispanic life of Fostoria. I think you remember that I was a seminarian here during my pastoral year some 27 years ago. Well, I actually spent a fair amount of time with the Hispanic community in those days. (Most of my effort otherwise went into the high school classes I taught.) And I was part of many migrant farm visits, and many Hispanic home gatherings, which included prayer and music. After leaving this parish, returning to seminary for my last couple of years, I also got very involved in Hispanic outreach. For my pastoral assignment in those last couple of years, I served the first Hispanic community of the Diocese of Columbus, at Santa Cruz Parish. This involved me in a very intense international conference held by the Josephinum seminary on the phenomenon of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Put all of that seminary experience together, including my time in Fostoria with Hispanic ministry, and I ended up devoting my priesthood specifically to Our Lady of Guadalupe. If you go to Our Lady of Lourdes Parish in Genoa, Ohio, my home parish, you will still see at the foot of the statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe the prayer I wrote dedicating my life to her. I am sure it was a member of St. Wendelin Parish who corrected my Spanish mistakes as I wrote that prayer! And, the Spanish community of St. Wendelin gave me for my ordination an authentic, signed copy of the tilma of Guadalupe, which still hangs by my bedside, as it has ever since my ordination. It's here now in my rectory, just around the corner from where I am writing this letter. All this is to say that there is a bit of a homecoming here, and I really believe that the Lord can strengthen still more the Hispanic life of our parish, even with this limited priest as a guide. I am very happy with the willingness I already sense in the members of the Hispanic Life Team! Have a blessed week!

In cordibus Iesu, Mariae, et Josephus,

Father Poggemeyer

CATECHISM CORNER

The mode of Christ's presence under the Eucharistic species is unique. It raises the Eucharist above all the sacraments as "the perfection of the spiritual life and the end to which all the sacraments tend." In the most blessed sacrament of the Eucharist "the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained."

"This presence is called 'real' - by which is not intended to exclude the other types of presence as if they could not be 'real' too, but because it is presence in the fullest sense: that is to say, it is a substantial presence by which Christ, God and man, makes himself wholly and entirely present." (CCC 1374)

"WHOEVER EATS THIS BREAD WILL LIVE FOREVER." (JOHN 6:51)

What is the "source and summit" of your life?

If your life is a river, what is its source? What gets you out of bed in the morning? What motivates you? Where do you go to receive strength and the energy to keep going, especially when things are difficult?

Is it Jesus? Is it grace? Is it the Blood and Water that flowed from His pierced side on the Cross? If so, run to the Eucharist - as often as possible. There is nothing more powerful. The Eucharist alone will satisfy our hunger and strengthen us in our weakness.

If your life is a mountain, what is its peak? Towards what goal are you focusing the majority of your energy? What is your "end in mind" for all of your endeavors - for your life as a whole?

Is it heaven? Is it union with Jesus? This is what our souls were created for! Run to the Eucharist - as often as possible. The Eucharist is the foretaste of heaven here on earth, the closest union we can have with Jesus during this life.

The Search is an incredible video series designed for those who are seeking deeper purpose, understanding, and truth - no matter where they are in the journey of life or faith! Participants may choose between a morning or evening session. Bring a friend! Contact Jessica Pehmoeller at the Parish Office to sign up or for more information!

Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity: Christ truly and wholly present under the appearance of bread and wine. The has Church has believed this mystery from its earliest days. Today we joyfully celebrate in a more profound way the mystery made present at each Mass. But, if we celebrate it at each Mass, why is there a special day set aside for it? While we celebrate the institution of the Eucharist on Holy Thursday, it is impossible to celebrate it joyfully given the somber nature of the evening which takes place in the shadow of his coming crucifixion.

The origin of today's feast:
In the early 1200s, Saint Juliana of Liège, had a vision of a full moon, but there was a dark spot in it. Christ showed her in a vision that the dark spot symbolized the fact there was no feast in the liturgical year to specifically honor him in the Blessed Sacrament. She told her bishop, who established a feast in his diocese in 1246. Fifteen years later, that same bishop was elected Pope Urban IV. In 1264, six years after Saint Juliana's death, Pope Urban IV established the feast of Corpus Christi for the universal Church. He appointed Saint Thomas Aquinas to compose the texts for the Mass and Divine Office of the new feast day. Pope Benedict XVI said of these texts: "They are masterpieces, still in use in the Church today, in which theology and poetry are fused. These texts pluck at the heartstrings in an expression of praise and gratitude to the Most Holy Sacrament, while the mind, penetrating the mystery with wonder, recognizes in the Eucharist the Living and Real Presence of Jesus." Let us worship our living Lord in the Eucharistic feast!

Sequence for Corpus Christi - Praise, O Zion, Voices Raising

1. Praise, O Zion, voices raising,
   Glorify your Shepherd-King;
   Let unworthy yet impassioned
   Thankful hymns of homage ring!
   Join your humble acclamations
   To the psalm which angels sing.
2. Here recalling Christ's own Passion,
   Come, disciples, as his friends;
   Blessing, breaking, pouring, sharing--
   By these actions, Christ still sends
   To the world his Blood and Body,
   Covenant which never ends.
3. Christ, the Paschal Lamb obedient,
   Gave himself as God had planned;
   Now replacing former off'rings,
   In self-giving here he stands,
   Prays again in consecration;
   "Eat and drink!" his great command.
4. As we keep this wondrous myst'ry,
   Heart and mind in faith combine.
   Here we eat the bread, his Body,
   Drink his precious Blood in wine;
   This, the deathless Victim's table
   Set in sacramental sign.
5. Though a multitude receives him,
   Christ, in many parts, is one;
   Shared alike by saints and sinners,
   He remains God's only Son.
   This, the choice and gift of heaven:
   Saving grace withheld from none.
6. Though the bread has now been broken,
   Though the wine has now been poured,
   Christ, here present in these symbols,
   Still is whole, is truly Lord.
   Through one meal one Church is nourished,
   Leading to one life restored.
7. Bread of Angels! for God's children
   Pilgrims' strength along the way;
   God provides in love, as always,
   Holy manna ev'ry day.
   Christ, as Isaac on the altar,
   Sill our debt to God will pay.
8. Living bread, Good Shepherd, feed us,
   Endless mercy offering;
   With your hallowed saints unite us,
   To your heav'nly banquet bring;
   There will we, forever feasting,
   "Amen! Alleluia!" sing!
