THANK YOU TO ALL WHO DONATED TO HELP MAKE OUR WORSHIP SPACE AS BEAUTIFUL AS THE MIRACLE OF CHRISTMAS!

FROM FATHER POGGEMEYER

Dear Parishioners,

+JMJ

Back in my seminary years, one of my priest mentors advised me regularly to read poetry, in order to maintain a contemplative gaze upon reality, and to see beauty. One modern poet he recommended is a Carmelite nun named Sister Miriam of the Holy Spirit. Her pen name was Jessica Powers (1905-1988). Here is a poem Sister Miriam wrote about the Blessed Virgin Mary. She named the poem, “The Pool of God,” because Mary reflects God so powerfully, as a body of water on earth reflects the sky above it. [One note for understanding: The word “enisled” in the second stanza, second line, I take to mean “surrounded like an island.” It is evidently a word Sister Miriam coined for this verse.] May each one of us in this new year imitate the Blessed Virgin Mary, full of blueness and fire.

“The Pool of God”

There was nothing in the Virgin's soul that belonged to the Virgin –
no word, no thought, no image, no intent.
She was a pure, transparent pool reflecting
God, only God.
She held His burnished day; she held His night
of planet-glow or shade inscrutable.
God was her sky and she who mirrored Him
became His firmament.
When I so much as turn my thoughts toward her my spirit is enisled in her repose.
And when I gaze into her selfless depths
an anguish in me grows
to hold such blueness and to hold such fire.
I pray to hollow out my earth and be filled with these waters of transparency.
I think that one could die of this desire,
seeing oneself dry earth or stubborn sod.
Oh, to become a pure pool like the Virgin,
water that lost the semblances of water
and was a sky like God.

Have a blessed week!

In cordibus Iesu et Mariae et Iosephus,

Father Poggemeyer

FOUNDATION'S MISSION:

The St. Wendelin Schools Educational Foundation was established in 1986 as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and as an integrated auxiliary of St. Wendelin Catholic Church. The purpose is to receive, provide for and maintain a fund for the financial support of St. Wendelin Schools, and in the event St. Wendelin Schools are discontinued, to continue to provide financial support of any facet of Catholic education (including but not limited to full and part-time academic and religious training) within Fostoria, Ohio and in the Fostoria vicinity.

A MESSAGE ON THE FOUNDATION'S FUTURE FROM TOM KRUPP, BOARD PRESIDENT:

The St. Wendelin Educational Foundation continues to explore ways to support Catholic education which allows students the opportunity to integrate fundamental human values and scriptural virtues into their daily lives. The Foundation believes the core values attained with a Catholic education is essentially in the best interest of our children and our society through not only formal organized schools but also training for those children who are unable to attend a Catholic school.

The Foundation is pleased to report that the continued support for those parishioners seeking a Catholic education remains its top priority. Since the unfortunate closure of St. Wendelin Catholic School, the board has been able to assist many of our parishioner families in continuing to receive a Catholic education. The Foundation continues to look for ways to make a faith-based education available to all families who seek it. The board prides itself in serving the youth of our parish and always welcomes any support that our parishioners can lend.

This conference is a powerful weekend of friendship building, awesome music, engaging speakers, and powerful experiences of prayer. If your child would like to attend, please contact Jessica Pehmoeller by Monday, January 24th to make sure a spot is reserved!

BAPTISM of the Lord

CELEBRATE YOUR BAPTISM

In the liturgical calendar, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord signifies the end of the Christmas season. The Baptism of the Lord is notable because it marks the beginning of Jesus' ministry and confirms his identity as the Son of God. As we reflect on Christ's baptism, we are reminded of our own baptism. "Celebrate the anniversary of your baptism like a birthday," says Pope Francis. It is a day to give thanks for God's gift of faith to us, and to give thanks for baptism, the foundation of our Christian life. Celebrate the day like a birthday. It is a day to remind ourselves that we are loved and cherished by God.

Pray together

Almighty ever-living God, who, when Christ had been baptized in the River Jordan and as the Holy Spirit descended upon Him, solemnly declared Him your beloved Son, grant that your children by adoption, reborn of water and the Holy Spirit, may always be well pleasing to you. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

As families, we celebrate birthdays, holidays, and wedding anniversaries, but too often we forget to celebrate the most IMPORTANT day of our lives, which is our BAPTISM ANNIVERSARY! That is the day we became sons and daughters of God the Father, and we need to celebrate it! Our family has a tradition of celebrating this important day for each member of our family. To help us, we keep our baptism candles displayed on our prayer table all year, and each candle has a wooden candle holder with our initials and baptism date burned into the wood. On the day of our baptism anniversary, we put the candle on the dinner table, have a special meal and dessert, and then light the candle. We sing the Happy Birthday song and replace birthday with "Baptism Anniversary" and then blow out the candle. Our baptism "wish" is always to become the saint God created us to be so we can spend eternity with Him. After all, that is what baptism allows us to do...and that is worth celebrating and remembering!

The Wood family from All Saints, New Riegel

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

CATECHISM CORNER

According to the Apostle Paul, the believer enters through Baptism into communion with Christ's death, is buried with him, and rises with him: Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. The baptized have "put on Christ." Through the Holy Spirit, Baptism is a bath that purifies, justifies, and sanctifies. (CCC 1227)

GOOD NEWS

MUSIC & LITURGY

The Roman Martyrology

On the Sunday before Christmas, I wrote about the Christmas Proclamation from The Roman Martyrology. This liturgical book, which sadly nowadays is fairly obscure, is a list of over 7,000 saints and blessed of the Church. The first edition of The Roman Martyrology was authorized under Pope Gregory XIII in 1582 following his revision of the calendar. First published in 1583 with revisions coming the same and the following year, the third edition in 1584 was made obligatory throughout the world wherever the Roman Rite was in use. The most recent edition was published in 2001 and revised in 2004 under Saint John Paul II. In the most recent revision, The Roman Martyrology was brought up to date in line with the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, no. 92, from the Second Vatican Council, "The accounts of martyrdom or the lives of the saints are to accord with the facts of history." Some saints who were based more in legend than fact were removed and saints who had been canonized prior to 2004 were added.

What is the function or point of this book? The Introduction says this: "The wisdom of the Church of God in honoring her Saints is equaled only by the great utility of the practice thus consecrated. The Saints are not merely heroes; they are models. Christ lived in them, and Christ yet speaks through them. They were the living temples of the Holy Spirit, in whose mortal bodies dwelt all the riches of His wisdom and grace. They were in life consecrated human exemplars of divine excellence and perfection. Their example still appeals to our minds and to our hearts, more eloquently even than did their words to the men of their own generation, while they were in the tabernacle of the flesh. Though dead, they still speak. Their relics are instinct with sanctity, and through them they continue to breathe forth the sweet odor of Christ."

Historically, especially in monastic communities and those who recite the Divine Office (Liturgy of the Hours) daily, the list of each day's saints were read following the liturgical office of Prime. Post-Vatican II, if The Roman Martyrology is read in community, it usually follows Lauds (Morning Prayer). If not read in Lauds, it can be read in the refectory following the main meal of the day. The formula for proclaiming the saints is arranged in the following manner: the saints for each day are read on the preceding day (so the saints of January 9 would actually be read on January 8); if a moveable feast is assigned to that day, it is mentioned first; then the saints of the day are read followed by this verse from Psalm 116: "Precious in the sight of the Lord / is the death of his Saints." A short Scripture reading may follow and then conclude with a blessing and dismissal.

An English translation of the current text is not yet available, so here is January 9 from a 1916 copy (whenever the word "birthday" is used, it refers to the saint's heavenly birthday [death], the exceptions being Mary and John the Baptist):

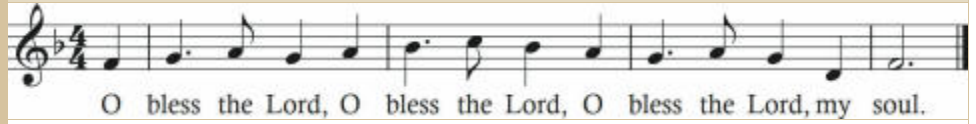

This day, the ninth of January: —The feast of the baptism of our Lord Jesus Christ, in which the beloved Son of God is wonderfully declared, waters are sanctified, man is purified, the world rejoices. —At Antioch, in the reign of Diocletian and Maximian, the birthday of the Saints Julian, martyr, and Basilissa, his virgin wife. Having lived in a state of virginity with her husband, she reached the end of her days in peace. But after the death by fire of a multitude of priests and ministers of the Church of Christ, who had taken refuge in his house from the severity of the persecution, Julian was ordered by the president Marcian to be tormented in many ways and executed. With him suffered Anthony, a priest, and Anastasius, whom Julian raised from the dead, and made partaker of the grace of Christ; also, Celsus, a boy, with his mother Marcionilla, seven brothers, and many others. —In Mauritania Caesariensis (now Algeria), St. Marciana, virgin, who consummated her martyrdom by being condemned to the beasts. —At Smyrna, the holy martyrs Vitalis, Revocatus, and Fortunatus. —In Africa, the holy martyrs Epictetus, Jucundus, Secundus, Vitalis, Felix, and seven others. —At Sebaste, in Armenia, St. Peter, bishop, brother of St. Basil the Great. —At Ancona, St. Marcellinus, bishop, who, according to St. Gregory, miraculously delivered that city from destruction by fire. —And in other places, many other holy martyrs, confessors, and virgins. Precious in the sight of the Lord / is the death of his Saints.

There are two other main uses: 1) on days when the General Roman Calendar has no obligatory celebration, a priest may celebrate Mass in honor of any saint from The Roman Martyrology listed on that day; 2) for any saint listed, a Church may be dedicated in his or her honor or the saint may be chosen as the patron of a particular place.

The Roman Martyrology serves as a daily reminder of all the holy men and women throughout the ages who gave their lives, many in a bloody manner, for our Lord and Savior. May we find strength and courage to live for Christ as they did.
