ANNOUNCEMENTS AND INSPIRATION

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time –

We return to what we call Ordinary Time on our Liturgical Calendar. In total, there are 34 weeks of Ordinary Time. The rest of the Liturgical year consists of our special seasons such as Advent and Christmas, Lent and Easter, and a few Solemnities of the Lord that fall on Sundays (such as those we celebrated over the past few weeks). Don't try to add them all up – they don't always make 52 weeks. That's because each year we have to skip a few "ordinary time" weeks so as to fit in the special seasons and feasts. The last Sunday we celebrated in Ordinary Time was the 7th Sunday – that was before the Season of Lent began. Today, after Lent, Easter, and the special Solemnities, we pick up with the 14th Sunday.

"Ordinary" is a word that does not capture the importance of what we celebrate, because what we celebrate each Sunday is always extraordinary. Officially called the Lord's Day, every Sunday is always a celebration of the Resurrection. It is a day on which we celebrate Jesus Christ the Lord and call to mind the Last Supper, the Passion and the Resurrection. Each Sunday is a day on which we celebrate Christ's continuing physical presence in our world. Each Sunday is a day on which, when we once again encounter the physical presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we gain hope, joy, strength and courage to live the Christian lifestyle.

Each Sunday is not only a day on which we encounter the physical presence of Jesus, it is a day on which by the mere fact of gathering together "in communion," as a community of faith, we become the Body of Christ – the Church. And over the past several months our "gathering" has not been the norm. Some are physically gathered with us in the church, while some join the gathering either through their computer, or smart TV. Either way – it is most difficult to be part of the Church if we do not gather with the Church. To "blow off" Sunday worship at Mass, or to think of Sunday and gathering with our community only casually, should cause us to question the depth of our desire to be with Jesus.

This weekend our Nation is celebrating the Fourth of July holiday. For us as American citizens, it is virtually impossible for us to avoid celebrating this wonderful holiday. We still feel compelled to celebrate the freedom we have. When Jesus said, "Do this in memory of Me," He was partially desirous of creating the compulsion in us to gather weekly to celebrate our spiritual freedom.

In today's Gospel selection is probably one of the best-known, most-quoted and hope-filled passages of Sacred Scripture. Countless people have found comfort as they have faced difficulties too great for them to handle, or perhaps at the end of a busy day when the idea of resting in God's presence, even if only for a few minutes, has been enough to give a new burst of life and comfort. When Jesus told His listeners that they could come to Him, it was at a time when He, Himself, had little time to spare, encountering not only those who loved Him, but also those who could not cope with His message and sought ways of silencing Him. Jesus was busy, but not too busy to welcome those who were sick and troubled, those regarded as important or considered unimportant, young people and old people. To Jesus, everybody is of value and worth taking the time for. That is why He made time for others, regardless of the pressures He faced. He is the "yoke", He is the one willing to carry our often "heavy loads" through life.

On our Sundays throughout the remainder of Ordinary Time, we will explore the extraordinary life of Jesus and what that life has to offer us. The Scriptures will call us to see that apart from Christ, we have no real kingdom that can bring us the peace we most want to have. We will see that apart from the community of faith we cannot be part of Christ's body.

The Birthday of Our Country

For those who follow the way of Jesus, which He promised would lead to God and would set us free, common daily events are of special importance. Disciples of Jesus pursue the holy, both in ho-hum, daily life and also on the special days marked as holidays. The Fourth of July offers us an opportunity for more than a civil celebration. Along with the fireworks, watermelon and fried chicken, we can enjoy the Fourth as a feast day. The prayer below is one way to remind us of the hidden treasures of growth and grace contained within this wonderful summer celebration of our Nation's independence.

A Fourth of July Prayer

We lift up our hearts, O God, on this day of celebration in gratitude for the gift of being Americans. We rejoice with all those who share in the great dream of freedom and dignity for all. With flags and feasting, with family and friends, we salute those who have sacrificed that we might have the opportunity to bring to fulfillment our many God-given gifts.

As we deny all prejudice a place in our hearts, may we also clearly declare our intention to work for the time when all people, regardless of race, religion or sex, will be granted equal dignity and worth.

Come, O gracious God, Who led Your children Israel from slavery, keep us free from all that might hold us in bondage. Bless our country and join our simple celebration that we may praise You, our Source of freedom, the One in Whom we place our trust. (from Edward Hays "A Pilgrim's Almanac")
