WORSHIP TOGETHER

3rd Sunday of Easter - The disciples are huddled in the upper room and have been listening to the two disciples who met Jesus on the road to Emmaus. The lives of these two disciples was turned upside down by their meeting with the Risen Lord and they wanted the other disciples to hear all about it. What were the feelings in the room at that moment? Perhaps some were jealous that it wasn't they who had met Jesus on the way to Emmaus. Maybe a few were still sitting in stunned belief – "Can this be true" There might even have been a few who believed that what the disciples had told them was true, but were angry because they didn't know how they could meet Jesus.

Immediately after the telling of their story Jesus Himself appears in the room. He interrupts all their solitary musings and the tender emotions of that moment, and He wakes everybody up with His presence. Some are still slow to understand what is going on – "Is it a ghost? How do I get out of here?" But Jesus reassures them, "It is I!" And He gives them His peace. He is the same Master they had known but He is changed and glorified. The telling of the Emmaus story had set the scene and prepared the hearts of the disciples. However, the telling of their story could not substitute for the other disciples' own meeting with the Risen Lord. They no longer need to speak about the peace of the Risen Lord, for all the disciples now experience it for themselves.

Each of us is called to share the Good News of the Risen Lord. A vital part of that sharing is the telling of our own experiences of God and God's saving love for each of us. Yet, it is vital for us to remember that, powerful though our sharing may be, it can never truly bring someone else to faith. Only a personal meeting, an encounter, with the Risen Lord can truly bring the peace that the world cannot bring. We are bearers of Good News but it is the Lord Himself Who will bring the word we share to fruition. As servants of the word we share the Good News freely, but we do not assume responsibility for everything that happens. Perhaps someone may be resistant at first to the knowledge of God's love for them; perhaps they may even be hostile because of some past hurt. Whatever the situation, we simply share our trust in Jesus and pray that, in the fullness of time, the person may come to a personal knowledge of God for himself or herself.

The Emmaus disciples told their story and prepared the other disciples for the appearing of the Risen Lord. Let us be bold and generous in sharing the Good News that we have received. Let us be proud to profess our faith in Jesus our Lord. And let us also be gentle, trusting that the Lord's desire for these people to draw near to Him is much stronger and more influential than our meager words.

Let us pray for the Conversion of the World
& for Peace

Earth Day is April 22. But this year many are suggesting we celebrate Earth Week.

Why do we celebrate Earth Day on April 22?

Earth Day is recognized as the largest civic event in the world. ... Earth Day is celebrated on April 22 every year. The day aims to raise awareness among masses about climate change and global warming. The day inspires to act towards the protection of the environment and focus on the need for conservation.

On Our Own – what can we do?

Plant something & Spend Time outside, Ride your bike, Let your voice be heard, Use Reusable Bags, Use a Refillable water bottle, DON'T Litter / Help on your street, or in your neighborhood to clean up litter, Get Produce from a local Farmer's Market, Shop Smart for clothes.
